Radio Philippines Network (RPN)

History Edit

As the Kanlaon Broadcasting System (1960-1975) Edit

RPN was launched and granting the first broadcasting franchise on June 29, 1960 as the Kanlaon Broadcasting System (KBS). Kanlaon is a volcano on the Philippine island of Negros, the home of Benedicto. Once granted, KBS first became a radio network with its first radio station in Manila, DZBI. In 1967, KBS had grown into a full network, with seven radio stations all over the country namely, DZRR and DZAX in Manila, DZAH and DZBS in Baguio, DZTG in Tuguegarao, DZRL in Laoag, and DXDX in General Santos.

In 1969, KBS turned to television as KBS Television was launched with KBS-9 Manila and KBS-12 Baguio as its first stations. Help and funding for the new TV network partly came from ABS-CBN in the form of its old headquarters along Roxas Boulevard and equipment from Toshiba enabling them to broadcast in color. As a result, on its launch it was named Accucolor 9 ("Accucolor" is the name of the color technology used) as the first Philippine television network to launch in full color. In 1970, KBS also acquired an Color-ready Outside Broadcast Van for the remote broadcasts of major news events and sports coverages.

As the Radio Philippines Network, early successes (1975-1986) Edit

In 1974, KBS formally re-launched as RPN, the Radio Philippines Network (the RPN name was first used in the provincial stations before the RPN brand would later be used for the Manila station as well). It aired special coverages of the Olympics, Thrilla in Manila (in 1975) and the Miss Universe; and programs such as John en Marsha, Flordeluna, Superstar. RPN became the first home of the daytime variety show Eat Bulaga! (premiering in 1979). RPN became also a popular and most watched longest running Game show on Philippine television Family Kwarta o Kahon hosted by Pepe Pimentel originally aired on ABS-CBN then BBC-2 the show is run for almost 3 decades until ended in the year 2000. RPN also pioneered the TV newscasting as they launched the first ever newspaper-format nightly newscast titled NewsWatch. The network also pioneered the use of computer graphics for their program plugs and station IDs.

RPN became one of the first Philippine television stations also aired anime programming (making them one of the first to do so in the country), including Macross, Voltes V, Astroboy and Starblazers and imported and syndicated programs from the United States. RPN-9 is the first network to cover the Philippine Basketball Association games live in 1976, before the broadcasts moved on to BBC-2.

In 1980, RPN-9 began to broadcast primetime programs and Eat Bulaga (when it was still with the network) through its new domestic satellite (DOMSAT) technology in which the 1980s logo resembles a satellite antenna.^[2] The network also became home to, from 1978 up to the early 1980s, the Super Sentai series (making it the first in the Philippines to do so, becoming a pioneer in broadcasting tokusatsu and sentai programs in the country in the process). These made it a reason for the network in 1982 to adopt The Leader as its official slogan, coupled with its Number 9 and the red corporate logos, due to its massive successes as the nation's number one network.

Government sequestration and New Vision 9 (1986-1994) Edit

Although by the 1980s RPN was the country's premier TV network, the late 1980s saw RPN's fortunes taking a turn for the worse. After the 1986 EDSA People Power Revolution, the stock and assets of RPN, IBC and Banahaw Broadcasting Corporation were sequestered by the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). President Corazon Aquino awarded BBC's Channel 2 frequency and its affiliates, through an executive order, to ABS-CBN, and RPN's and IBC's assets were turned over to the Government Communications Group. During this period, RPN's saw a ratings nosedive after GMA Radio-Television Arts, which had rose as the leader in 1986, and PTV, another government-owned network, performed strongly after playing a vital role in the EDSA Revolution, causing its ratings to slump, thus tarnishing RPN's popularity.

Worse yet, one of its old rivals, ABS-CBN, which had a lackluster performance upon its reopening, experienced an unprecedented resurgence and consequently, clinched the number one spot in 1988, causing RPN to fall to 4th place. During the post-EDSA Revolution era, RPN launched the first Filipino-created animated series Ang Panday. By 1989, some of RPN's programming such as John en Marsha, Student Canteen, and Superstar were canceled, and TAPE's daytime programs Eat Bulaga!, Agila, and Coney Reyes on Camera (a co-production with Coney Reyes' CAN Television) moved under a co-production agreement to ABS-CBN, as they saw the resurgent network as a vital element in the sustaining of the three shows' success. During this period, it was already clear that RPN was losing its status as a premier broadcaster, resulting in its The Leader slogan to lose its purpose.

In 1989, the network relaunched as "New Vision 9" (but maintained "Radio Philippines Network" as the network's legal name), but the relaunch failed, as it later fell into another ratings slump due the continued resurgence and expansion of ABS-CBN and the recent re-launch of GMA Radio-Television Arts as GMA Network, Inc., but the reformatting positively resulted in another first for Philippine television as it became the first to go into 24-hour broadcasting.

Turnaround and second decline (1994-2007) Edit

In 1994, New Vision 9 was reverted back to RPN and in the same year, RPN became the television channel to broadcast programs in full stereo. In 1996, though, the network quickly regained its footing when it began to broadcast a Tagalog dub of the Mexican telenovela Marimar, which quickly became a popular program for the network, and setting the trend for a few years. The two top networks ABS-CBN and GMA Network were forced to include telenovelas to programming lineup. Also, around this time, RPN introduced Dragon Ball Z to the Philippines. From then, RPN established itself as the Philippine home network for the best in English programming and telenovelas, coupled with blockbuster movies. By the mid-2000s, however, a massive network war between all networks and the meteoric rise of Asianovelas (which was started by ABS-CBN in 2003 with Meteor Garden) caused another era of decline for RPN.

Partnership with Solar Edit

File:CS9.jpg

Hoping to reverse its fortunes, RPN sought a partner to help reverse its worsening status. On March 11, 2007, RPN began a partnership with the Solar Entertainment Corporation, an operator of a number of cable channels in the country. The company began co-producing new programming for the network, such as a local version of the Next Top Model franchise. The network underwent management changes on December 24, 2007, as Tonypet Albano (undersecretary and executive director of Malacañang's Office of Political Coalition Affairs and Deputy Spokesperson of TEAM Unity) was appointed chairman of the network (replacing Education Undersecretary Mona Valisno, incumbent Presidential Assistant for Education). Undersecretary Robert Rivera was appointed director of the board, while the president and chief executive officer became former senator Orlando Mercado.^[3] Mercado's first major move was to expand their partnerships with Solar Entertainment. Programming from Solar's cable network C/S was added to RPN's lineup at the beginning of the new year, and PBA basketball would also return to the network beginning in the 2008-09 season, as part of Solar Sports' new three-year deal with the league after an intense bidding war with ABS-CBN.^{[4][5]} In October 2008, RPN's stations ultimately took on the C/S name as part of their permanent branding, and rebranded itself as C/S 9. The C/S 9 name would not last, on November 29, 2009, the network re-branded again under the new name Solar TV. In late 2010, it was revealed that RPN would no longer carry PBA games, due to planned re-launch to occur in 2011, with more "feminine" programming.^[6]

Privatization Edit

In 2010, the Philippine government began to actively consider privatizing RPN and IBC. Ricardo Abcede, member of the Presidential Commission on Good Government, supported the plans, noting that the government should not need to subsidize three state broadcasters when most countries only have one, and could gain a significant profit if they were sold to a major company willing to invest in the stations.^[7]

In January 2011, reports confirmed that Solar Entertainment and Roberto Benedicto's daughter Kitchie Benedicto now owned a 34% minority share in RPN.^[8] Communications and Operation Office secretary Herminio Coloma, Jr. also began to hold meetings with the network's employees union to discuss the financial state of RPN as part of the planned privatization.^[9] On February 22, 2011, RPN's employees filed a strike notice, protesting a rumored shutdown of RPN on February 25, and accusing the government of attempting to privatize RPN without actively consulting its employees.^{[9][10][11]}

On February 25, 2011, RPN signed off. However, the sign-off was only in preparation for a relaunch as ETC on March 2, 2011.^[12] Additional shares in RPN were sold to Far East Managers and Investors Inc. (FEMI), an organization company affiliated with Ambassador Roberto Benedicto (founder of RPN), and the San Miguel Corporation. The government would retain the People's Television Network to serve as the sole state broadcaster of the country.^{[13][14]} RPN is forced to 200 employees on October 29, 2012 as Solar TV takes over the entire RPN's airtime.^{[15][16]} In November 2013, San Miguel Corporation President and COO Ramon S. Ang declares interest in acquiring Solar Television Network and its stake on RPN but instead acquire a minority stake on GMA Network.^[17]

The 9TV Network Edit

A public advisory was plugged, informing that ETC on RPN aired its final sign-off on March 31, 2013 will return to Southern Broadcasting Network (SBN) while Solar News Channel turned into UHF channel 43 in DWBM-TV.

By March 30, 2013 on the test broadcast until resumed the operation as the commercial operation television started at 7:00pm by switching on its 100-kilowatt transmitter and a big welcome party by the big stars of the network. ETC was ceased commercial operations with ETC going to a cable TV channel when RPN-9 returned to the air on March 30, 2013 will become part of Media ng Bayan. Cash and resources stretched to the limit, with offices being made to double as dressing rooms and basics such as chairs, tables and phones in short supply while RPN stars, personalities and employees start to return to RPN. Hence, RPN employees as president and CEO Robert Rivera was brought in to rework the station's programming.

At the time, money had been scarce while resources were limited; offices were used as dressing rooms and other equipment such as chairs, tables, and phones were in more supply.

The network was forced to share space in the building that was rightfully their own with the sequestered TV station Channel 13.

RPN acquired a new franchise to operate under Republic Act 7831 signed by President Noyoy Aquino III on nationwide satellite broadcasting in over 34 regional TV stations nationwide and creating with RPN's Radyo Ronda in the radio broadcasts for the AM radio stations DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422. The radio counterpart 99.5 Play FM, RPN's FM radio station entered a partnership with Real Radio Network Inc. launched at the same time of the network. RPN took over the management of Real Radio Network, Inc. stations; relaunched as the FM radio station on April 1, 2013 as 99.5 Play FM.

In a surge of phenomenal growth, RPN earned a reputation as The Kasama Network among the ranks of the strong number 3 in the overall TV network rating challenge the dominance of the broadcast industry leaders with a programming that combines the America's certified hits, hit telenovelas, asianovelas, animes and all station-produced local programs. Its creativity and innovation have resulted in numerous long-running program successes on the challenge of revolutionizing the broadcast landscape including a stronger of local news and public affairs programs, high-quality entertainment, the broadcast equipment, and the acquisition of broadcast rights of the two basketball leagues such as the Metropolitan Basketball Association games. Additionally, the network also launched a new advertising campaign and slogan, Kasama Ako!, which the new lineup as being more distinct being aired by its competitors at the time successfully regained its dominance of the intense competition ABS-CBN and GMA.

With the other TV networks focusing on other forms of entertainment, RPN made the animé series that including Dragon Ball Z, Yu-Gi-Oh! and K-On! in the surge of anime on Philippine television. The network gained popularity with a hit telenovela Rosalinda and a Koreanovela Dream High. The top networks are ABS-CBN, GMA Network, IBC and TV5 forced to include telenovelas, animes and asianovelas to their programming lineup. In 2013, MTV begin in partnership with RPN to simulcast during 7:00am to 8:30am on weekdays and 12:30am to 1:30am on daily, with RPN programming in the daytime and primetime.

The new management priority is optimum coverage and TV signal reception. To achieve this, RPN will boost its transmission power and establish new sites in strategic parts of the country. The Kasama Network also aims to reach audiences in America via RPN USA, the world's international channel with the Dish Network. RPN won the Best TV Station award at the 2013 KBP Golden Dove Awards, with several other TV programs on the network also earning awards in their respective categories to widen its telecast.

As of December 2, 2013, the network is launched with a new format of tele-radyo programming with feed from DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422 for their own TeleRadyo during the weekday slots. The apparent behind the simulcast of Radyo Rodna programs is to compensate for the lack of original programming, the broadcast of its cable music channel MTV Asia during 7:00am to 8:30am and 12:30am to 1:30am and came up with intensified programming led by the popular TV reality shows American Idol, Survivor and America's Next Top Model, and several top rate US shows like Glee, 2 Broke Girls, New Girl, The Vampire Diaries, Community, The Carrie Diaries, MacGyver, The Neighbors, NCIS and The Walking Dead introduced more home-grown programming servicing an upscale market with foreign broadcast companies.

On January 3, 2014, RPN and Aliw Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) (operators of DWIZ and Home Radio) recently signed a memorandum of agreement for the expanded coverage of the both TV and radio networks nationwide. Selected DWIZ programs will be simulcast on the Radyo Ronda Network. [\[18\]](#) [\[19\]](#)

Meanwhile, Westside's theater studio in Broadway Centrum located at New Manila, Quezon City was given to RPN that producing Showbiz Ka!, Boses Tinig Pinoy and Superstar are the top-rated hits.

As of April 2014, RPN has now expanded into programming would be 60% sporting events debuted an array of new sports programming including MBA and KBL basketball, pro boxing and UFC-MMA events, as part of a deal with the partnership of managed by Solar Sports, the cable sports channel and the sports content division started developing the concept of a sports channel of free television for a year, 50% foreign canned programs in the US and Hollywood movies, 45% local entertainment, 30% Asian dramas from Korea and taiwan, and Mexcan telenovelas, 25% local news and public affairs shows and 15% children's programs, animes and cartoons. The network is introducing the TV's most fun, fashionable, young, freshest and hottest teen stars like Ingrid dela Paz, Arron Villaflor, Christine Serrano and Errol Abalayan were also introduced as the channel's VJs came into the spotlight as The Kasma Network's newest batch of VJs (video jocks) in the classiest network.

The event also provided a glimpse of its program lineup which includes sports coverage of the MBA and KBL, Manny Pacquiao boxing bouts and UFC explosive matches events. Solar Broadcasting Corporation renewed the agreement for the primetime programming to RPN provincial television stations nationwide.

On June 25-26, 2014, the network celebrated their 54th anniversary in the broadcasting industry. For the anniversary program, free concert featuring OPM artists was held. RPN-9 was commenced the ground-breaking of the soon-to-build RPN Building in Panay Avenue, Quezon City (near the current building in Broadcast City) and the launching of their FM radio station, possibly on those 99.5 MHz called 99.5 Play FM. Angeline Quinto rendered the newest theme song of the network, entitled Kasama Ako.

From then, RPN as the country's leader network, which established itself as the Philippine home network for the best in English programming through World-Class US Primetime, telenovelas, animes and the meteoric rise of Asianovelas, coupled the blockbuster movies and now with more locally-produced shows on the massive networks. The station is now the No.3 in the ratings survey behind ABS-CBN and GMA Network, together with TV5 and IBC also currently rule to the number 3 spot.

Cabangon-Chua Era and re-launch as 9TV Edit

On August 20, 2014, Solar Entertainment Corporation chief Wilson Tieng announced that he ceded his entire share on Solar TV Network, Inc., including its 34% majority share on RPN, to Antonio Cabangon-Chua, owner of business daily BusinessMirror and Aliw Broadcasting Corporation.^{[20][21]} Tieng sold Solar TV in favor of the acquisition of Thunderbird Resorts group and he will be focusing on the remaining television channels he personally owned through Solar Entertainment.

To reflect the change of ownership, on August 13, 2014, Solar Television Network and RPN announces the rebranding of RPN into 9TV Network by August 23 on the test broadcast until resumed the operation aired a countdown to the re-launch until 7:00 pm (PST) when the new lineup began under their new branding of 9TV by switching on its 100-kilowatt transmitter and a big welcome party by the big stars of the network. ^{[22][23]}

9TV expanding its primetime weeknights and weekend programming to cater more audiences which was started by the launching of Kids Weekend.^[24] Also, the ALC Group of Companies appointed Benjamin Ramos as RPN's new President, replacing Undersecretary Robert T. Rivera.^[1] The network will produce and source most of the network's more entertainment programs while RPN would continue to be responsible for news and public affairs programming and operation of the stations.

9TV will be launched on August 23, 2014. The newscasts, current affairs programs and public service programs carried from the format and the personnel will be retained, sports and entertainment programming for the stars and talents and RPN now showing animes, telenovelas, foreign canned shows in the US on primetime and blockbuster movies from Hollywood and Pinoy movie. It is also beefing up their weekend programming including children's, informative, and pre-school shows to cater more viewers, and the launch of responsive, innovative, excellent and creative programming mechanism.

Because of this, the network will retain its imported foreign canned programs in the United States on weeknights while RPN's local primetime version expanded into 7 nights a week of all-Filipino programming on primetime, including telenovelas and Asian dramas on primetime slot will offer. ^[25]

Controversies Edit

In recent years, RPN has been involved in several controversies involving its subsidiaries and programming.

Burning the fire of Broadcast City hit the basement Edit

The network's basement of Broadcast City was on fire around 9:00pm around Saturday evening at the date on February 22, 2014, temporarily knocking off powers in building and interrupting when the people is angry and mad at the killing of technical operation to broke out the privatization of the Philippine government.

We are currently assessing the damage that has temporarily affected our operations. We assure our viewers and the public that measures are being taken to restore normal operations and the planned privatization at the possible time affecting its operation and even its rumored TV reception, could this benefit rival networks in the Kantar Media ratings.

Several electrical panels were burned and firemen had to use breathing apparatus to put out the blaze in the second level parking basement, said Col. Samuel Tadeo, deputy district fire marshal in Quezon City in a power supply was cut off in the whole building are reported toinjured but the fire caused power outage in the building in Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, as well as technical problem with the network's operation consider the fight of privatization of th sequestered broadcast firms like RPN and IBC are hitting.

Fire its the absement of RPN studios in Broadcast City was shoot in fire to fake RPN management and directors experiencing technical difficulties at the soonest possible time.

Police Rubout at Broadcast City Edit

It later became famous after exposing a police rubout on March 21, 2014 at 11:00pm on the evening when it became the media company under the Media ng Bayan to cover a police rubout incident right in front of its broadcast building to shoot the gun in Broadcast City, Old Balara, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, an industrial section in the city of Mega Manila at which is the privatization them caught in the act of firing extra shots at car passengers murdered by the Philippine National Police.

The PNP claimed it was a shootout against carjackers. However, there was too much evidence to the contrary as it was in fact a broadcast rubout. This is substantiated by several eye-witnesses, including a video recording from RPN (a local sequestered TV station who happened to be filming at the time), to forensic reports, and the evidence that has yet to unfold.

The Kasama Network proved it was a rubout and also recorded the cops planting guns and stolen license plates in the trunk of the sedan, before calling the media. They shot to kill the privatization efforts of the studios and had no interest in saving their lives. RPN's footage became the vital evidence and accidents for a case filed on the Philippines' Commission on Human Rights.

RPN is currently the proud member of the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas(KBP).

History Edit

As the Kanlaon Broadcasting System (1960-1975) Edit

RPN was launched and granting the first broadcasting franchise on June 29, 1960 as the Kanlaon Broadcasting System (KBS). Kanlaon is a volcano on the Philippine island of Negros, the home of Benedicto. Once granted, KBS first became a radio network with its first radio station in Manila, DZBI. In 1967, KBS had grown into a full network, with seven radio stations all over the country namely, DZRR and DZAX in Manila, DZAH and DZBS in Baguio, DZTG in Tuguegarao, DZRL in Laoag, and DXDX in Dadiangas.

In 1969, KBS turned to television as KBS Television was launched with KBS-9 Manila and KBS-12 Baguio as its first stations. Help and funding for the new TV network partly came from ABS-CBN in the form of its old headquarters along Roxas Boulevard and equipment from Toshiba enabling them to broadcast in color. As a result, on its launch it was named Accucolor 9 ("Accucolor" is the name of the color technology used) as the first Philippine television network to launch in full color. In 1970, KBS also acquired an Color-ready Outside Broadcast Van for the remote broadcasts of major news events and sports coverages.

As the Radio Philippines Network, early successes (1975-1986) Edit

In 1974, KBS formally re-launched as RPN, the Radio Philippines Network (the RPN name was first used in the provincial stations before the RPN brand would later be used for the Manila station as well). It aired special coverages of the Olympics, Thrilla in Manila (in 1975) and the Miss Universe; and programs such as John en Marsha, Flordeluna, Superstar. RPN became the first home of the daytime variety show Eat Bulaga! (premiering in 1979). RPN became also a popular and most watched longest running Game show on Philippine television Family Kwarta o Kahon hosted by Pepe Pimentel originally aired on ABS-CBN then BBC-2 the show is run for almost 3 decades until ended in the year 2000. RPN also pioneered the TV newscasting as they launched the first ever newspaper-format nightly newscast titled NewsWatch. The network also pioneered the use of computer graphics for their program plugs and station IDs, and after the 1973 fire that razed its first studios, moved to the ABS-CBN Broadcasting Center in 1973 and to its current Broadcast City home in 1979.

RPN became one of the first Philippine television stations also aired anime programming (making them one of the first to do so in the country), including Macross, Voltes V, Astroboy and Starblazers and imported and syndicated programs from the United States. RPN-9 is the first network to cover the Philippine Basketball Association games live in 1976, before the broadcasts moved on to BBC-2.

In 1980, RPN-9 began to broadcast primetime programs and Eat Bulaga (when it was still with the network) through its new domestic satellite (DOMSAT) technology in which the 1980s logo resembles a satellite antenna.^[2] This made RPN the first national network to achieve nationwide program simulcasting via satellite.

The network also became home to, from 1978 up to the early 1980s, the Super Sentai series (making it the first in the Philippines to do so, becoming a pioneer in broadcasting tokusatsu and sentai programs in the country in the process). These made it a reason for the network in 1982 to adopt The Leader as its official slogan, coupled with its Number 9 and the red corporate logos, due to its massive successes as the nation's number one network.

Government sequestration and New Vision 9 (1986-1994) Edit

Although by the 1980s RPN was the country's premier TV network, the late 1980s saw RPN's fortunes taking a turn for the worse. After the 1986 EDSA People Power Revolution, the stock and assets of RPN, IBC and Banahaw Broadcasting Corporation were sequestered by the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). President Corazon Aquino awarded BBC's Channel 2 frequency and its affiliates, through an executive order, to ABS-CBN, and RPN's and IBC's assets were turned over to the Government Communications Group. During this period, RPN's saw a ratings nosedive after GMA Radio-Television Arts, which had rose as the leader in 1986, and PTV, another government-owned network, performed strongly after playing a vital role in the EDSA Revolution, causing its ratings to slump, thus tarnishing RPN's popularity.

Worse yet, one of its old rivals, ABS-CBN, which had a lackluster performance upon its reopening, experienced an unprecedented resurgence and consequently, clinched the number one spot in 1988, causing RPN to fall to 4th place. During the post-EDSA Revolution era, RPN launched the first Filipino-created animated series Ang Panday. By 1989, some of RPN's programming such as John en Marsha, Student Canteen, and Superstar were canceled, and TAPE's daytime programs Eat Bulaga!, Agila, and Coney Reyes on Camera (a co-production with Coney Reyes' CAN Television) moved under a co-production agreement to ABS-CBN, as they saw the resurgent network as a vital element in the sustaining of the three shows' success. During this period, it was already clear that RPN was losing its status as a premier broadcaster, resulting in its The Leader slogan to lose its purpose.

In 1989, the network relaunched as "New Vision 9" (but maintained "Radio Philippines Network" as the network's legal name), but the relaunch failed, as it later fell into another ratings slump due the continued resurgence and expansion of ABS-CBN and the recent re-launch of GMA Radio-Television Arts as GMA Network, Inc., but the reformatting positively resulted in another first for Philippine television as it became the first to go into 24-hour broadcasting.

Turnaround and second decline (1994-2007) Edit

In 1994, New Vision 9 was reverted back to RPN and in the same year, RPN became the television channel to broadcast programs in full stereo. In 1996, though, the network quickly regained its footing when it began to broadcast a Tagalog dub of the Mexican telenovela Marimar, which quickly became a popular program for the network, and setting the trend for a few years. The two top networks ABS-CBN and GMA Network were forced to include telenovelas to programming lineup. Also, around this time, RPN introduced Dragon Ball Z to the Philippines. From then, RPN established itself as the Philippine home network for the best in English programming and telenovelas, coupled with blockbuster movies. By the mid-2000s, however, a massive network war between all networks and the meteoric rise of Asianovelas (which was started by ABS-CBN in 2003 with Meteor Garden) caused another era of decline for RPN.

Partnership with Solar Edit

File:CS9.jpg

Hoping to reverse its fortunes, RPN sought a partner to help reverse its worsening status. On March 11, 2007, RPN began a partnership with the Solar Entertainment Corporation, an operator of a number of cable channels in the country. The company began co-producing new programming for the network, such as a local version of the Next Top Model franchise. The network underwent management changes on December 24, 2007, as Tonypet Albano (undersecretary and executive director of Malacañang's Office of Political Coalition Affairs and Deputy Spokesperson of TEAM Unity) was appointed chairman of the network (replacing Education Undersecretary Mona Valisno, incumbent Presidential Assistant for Education). Undersecretary Robert Rivera was appointed director of the board, while the president and chief executive officer became former senator Orlando Mercado.^[3] Mercado's first major move was to expand their partnerships with Solar Entertainment. Programming from Solar's cable network C/S was added to RPN's lineup at the beginning of the new year, and PBA basketball would also return to the network beginning in the 2008-09 season, as part of Solar Sports' new three-year deal with the league after an intense bidding war with ABS-CBN.^{[4][5]}

In October 2008, RPN's stations ultimately took on the C/S name as part of their permanent branding, and rebranded itself as C/S 9. The C/S 9 name would not last, on November 29, 2009, the network re-branded again under the new name Solar TV. In late 2010, it was revealed that RPN would no longer carry PBA games, due to planned re-launch to occur in 2011, with more "feminine" programming.^[6]

Privatization Edit

In 2010, the Philippine government began to actively consider privatizing RPN and IBC. Ricardo Abcede, member of the Presidential Commission on Good Government, supported the plans, noting that the government should not need to subsidize three state broadcasters when most countries only have one, and could gain a significant profit if they were sold to a major company willing to invest in the stations.^[7]

In January 2011, reports confirmed that Solar Entertainment and Roberto Benedicto's daughter Kitchie Benedicto now owned a 34% minority share in RPN.^[8] Communications and Operation Office secretary Herminio Coloma, Jr. also began to hold meetings with the network's employees union to discuss the financial state of RPN as part of the planned privatization.^[9] On February 22, 2011, RPN's employees filed a strike notice, protesting a rumored shutdown of RPN on February 25, and accusing the government of attempting to privatize RPN without actively consulting its employees.^{[9][10][11]}

On February 25, 2011, RPN signed off. However, the sign-off was only in preparation for a relaunch as ETC on March 2, 2011.^[12] Additional shares in RPN were sold to Far East Managers and Investors Inc. (FEMI), an organization company affiliated with Ambassador Roberto Benedicto (founder of RPN), and the San Miguel Corporation. The government would retain the People's Television Network to serve as the sole state broadcaster of the country.^{[13][14]} RPN is forced to 200 employees on October 29, 2012 as Solar TV takes over the entire RPN's airtime.^{[15][16]} In November 2013, San Miguel Corporation President and COO Ramon S. Ang declares interest in acquiring Solar Television Network and its stake on RPN but instead acquire a minority stake on GMA Network.^[17]

The 9TV Network Edit

A public advisory was plugged, informing that ETC on RPN aired its final sign-off on March 31, 2013 will return to Southern Broadcasting Network (SBN) while Solar News Channel turned into UHF channel 43 in DWBM-TV.

By March 30, 2013 on the test broadcast until resumed the operation as the commercial operation television started at 7:00pm by switching on its 100-kilowatt transmitter and a big welcome party by the big stars of the network. ETC was ceased commercial operations with ETC going to a cable TV channel when RPN-9 returned to the air on March 30, 2013 will become part of Media ng Bayan. Cash and resources stretched to the limit, with offices being made to double as dressing rooms and basics such as chairs, tables and phones in short supply while RPN stars, personalities and employees start to return to RPN. Hence, RPN employees as president and CEO Robert Rivera was brought in to rework the station's programming.

At the time, money had been scarce while resources were limited; offices were used as dressing rooms and other equipment such as chairs, tables, and phones were in more supply. The network was forced to share space in the building that was rightfully their own with the sequestered TV station Channel 13.

RPN acquired a new franchise to operate under Republic Act 7831 signed by President Noyonoy Aquino III on nationwide satellite broadcasting in over 34 regional TV stations nationwide and creating with RPN's Radyo Ronda in the radio broadcasts for the AM radio stations DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422. The radio counterpart 99.5 Play FM, RPN's FM radio station entered a partnership with Real Radio Network Inc. launched at the same time of the network. RPN took over the management of Real Radio Network, Inc. stations; relaunched as the FM radio station on April 1, 2013 as 99.5 Play FM.

In a surge of phenomenal growth, RPN earned a reputation as The Kasama Network among the ranks of the strong number 3 in the overall TV network rating challenge the dominance of the broadcast industry leaders with a programming that combines the America's certified hits, hit telenovelas, asianovelas, animes and all station-produced local programs. Its creativity and innovation have resulted in numerous long-running program successes on the challenge of revolutionizing the broadcast landscape including a stronger of local news and public affairs programs, high-quality entertainment, the broadcast equipment, and the acquisition of broadcast rights of the two basketball leagues such as the Metropolitan Basketball Association games. Additionally, the network also launched a new advertising campaign and slogan, Kasama Ako!, which the new lineup as being more distinct being aired by its competitors at the time successfully regained its dominance of the intense competition ABS-CBN and GMA.

With the other TV networks focusing on other forms of entertainment, RPN made the animé series that including Dragon Ball Z, Yu-Gi-Oh! and K-On! in the surge of anime on Philippine television. The network gained popularity with a hit telenovela Rosalinda and a Koreanovela Dream High. The top networks are ABS-CBN, GMA Network, IBC and TV5 forced to include telenovelas, animes and asianovelas to their programming lineup. In 2013, MTV begin in partnership with RPN to simulcast during 7:00am to 8:30am on weekdays and 12:30am to 1:30am on daily, with RPN programming in the daytime and primetime.

The new management priority is optimum coverage and TV signal reception. To achieve this, RPN will boost its transmission power and establish new sites in strategic parts of the country. The Kasama Network also aims to reach audiences in America via RPN USA, the world's international channel with the Dish Network. RPN won the Best TV Station award at the 2013

KBP Golden Dove Awards, with several other TV programs on the network also earning awards in their respective categories to widen its telecast.

As of December 2, 2013, the network is launched with a new format of tele-radyo programming with feed from DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422 for their own TeleRadyo during the weekday slots.

The apparent behind the simulcast of Radyo Rodna programs is to compensate for the lack of original programming, the broadcast of its cable music channel MTV Asia during 7:00am to 8:30am and 12:30am to 1:30am and came up with intensified programming led by the popular TV reality shows American Idol, Survivor and America's Next Top Model, and several top rate US shows like Glee, 2 Broke Girls, New Girl, The Vampire Diaries, Community, The Carrie Diaries, MacGyver, The Neighbors, NCIS and The Walking Dead introduced more home-grown programming servicing an upscale market with foreign broadcast companies.

On January 3, 2014, RPN and Aliw Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) (operators of DWIZ and Home Radio) recently signed a memorandum of agreement for the expanded coverage of the both TV and radio networks nationwide. Selected DWIZ programs will be simulcast on the Radyo Ronda Network. [\[18\]](#) [\[19\]](#)

Meanwhile, Westside's theater studio in Broadway Centrum located at New Manila, Quezon City was given to RPN that producing Showbiz Ka!, Boses Tinig Pinoy and Superstar are the top-rated hits.

As of April 2014, RPN has now expanded into programming would be 60% sporting events debuted an array of new sports programming including MBA and KBL basketball, pro boxing and UFC-MMA events, as part of a deal with the partnership of managed by Solar Sports, the cable sports channel and the sports content division started developing the concept of a sports channel of free television for a year, 50% foreign canned programs in the US and Hollywood movies, 45% local entertainment, 30% Asian dramas from Korea and taiwan, and Mexcan telenovelas, 25% local news and public affairs shows and 15% children's programs, animes and cartoons. The network is introducing the TV's most fun, fashionable, young, freshest and hottest teen stars like Ingrid dela Paz, Arron Villaflor, Christine Serrano and Errol Abalayan were also introduced as the channel's VJs came into the spotlight as The Kasma Network's newest batch of VJs (video jocks) in the classiest network.

The event also provided a glimpse of its program lineup which includes sports coverage of the MBA and KBL, Manny Pacquiao boxing bouts and UFC explosive matches events. Solar Broadcasting Corporation renewed the agreement for the primetime programming to RPN provincial television stations nationwide.

On June 25-26, 2014, the network celebrated their 54th anniversary in the broadcasting industry. For the anniversary program, free concert featuring OPM artists was held. RPN-9 was commenced the ground-breaking of the soon-to-build RPN Building in Panay Avenue, Quezon City (near the current building in Broadcast City) and the launching of their FM radio station, possibly on those 99.5 MHz called 99.5 Play FM. Angeline Quinto rendered the newest theme song of the network, entitled Kasama Ako.

From then, RPN as the country's leader network, which established itself as the Philippine home network for the best in English programming through World-Class US Primetime, telenovelas, animes and the meteoric rise of Asianovelas, coupled the blockbuster movies and now with more locally-produced shows on the massive networks. The station is now the No.3 in the ratings survey behind ABS-CBN and GMA Network, together with TV5 and IBC also currently rule to the number 3 spot.

Cabangon-Chua Era and re-launch as 9TV Edit

On August 20, 2014, Solar Entertainment Corporation chief Wilson Tieng announced that he ceded his entire share on Solar TV Network, Inc., including its 34% majority share on RPN, to Antonio Cabangon-Chua, owner of business daily BusinessMirror and Aliw Broadcasting Corporation.^{[20][21]} Tieng sold Solar TV in favor of the acquisition of Thunderbird Resorts group and he will be focusing on the remaining television channels he personally owned through Solar Entertainment.

To reflect the change of ownership, on August 13, 2014, Solar Television Network and RPN announces the rebranding of RPN into 9TV Network by August 23 on the test broadcast until resumed the operation aired a countdown to the re-launch until 7:00 pm (PST) when the new lineup began under their new branding of 9TV by switching on its 100-kilowatt transmitter and a big welcome party by the big stars of the network. ^{[22][23]}

9TV expanding its primetime weeknights and weekend programming to cater more audiences which was started by the launching of Kids Weekend.^[24] Also, the ALC Group of Companies appointed Benjamin Ramos as RPN's new President, replacing Undersecretary Robert T. Rivera.^[1] The network will produce and source most of the network's more entertainment programs while RPN would continue to be responsible for news and public affairs programming and operation of the stations.

9TV will be launched on August 23, 2014. The newscasts, current affairs programs and public service programs carried from the format and the personnel will be retained, sports and entertainment programming for the stars and talents and RPN now showing animes, telenovelas, foreign canned shows in the US on primetime and blockbuster movies from Hollywood and Pinoy movie. It is also beefing up their weekend programming including children's, informative, and pre-school shows to cater more viewers, and the launch of responsive, innovative, excellent and creative programming mechanism.

Because of this, the network will retain its imported foreign canned programs in the United States on weeknights while RPN's local primetime version expanded into 7 nights a week of all-Filipino programming on primetime, including telenovelas and Asian dramas on primetime slot will offer. ^[25]

File:RPN9-CNN Philippines logo.jpeg

In October 14, 2014, 9Media Corporation (formerly Solar Television Network) inked a 5-year brand licensing agreement with the Turner Broadcasting System to rebrand UHF into CNN Philippines, the local franchise of Cable News Network, and the third local CNN channel in Asia (after CNN Indonesia and India's CNN-IBN). CNN Philippines is targeted to launched by January 2015. ^[26]

Controversies Edit

In recent years, RPN has been involved in several controversies involving its subsidiaries and programming.

Burning the fire of Broadcast City hit the basement Edit

The network's basement of Broadcast City was on fire around 9:00pm around Saturday evening at the date on February 22, 2014, temporarily knocking off powers in building and interrupting when the people is angry and mad at the killing of technical operation to broke out the privatization of the Philippine government.

We are currently assessing the damage that has temporarily affected our operations. We assure our viewers and the public that measures are being taken to restore normal operations and the planned privatization at the possible time affecting its operation and even its rumored TV reception, could this benefit rival networks in the Kantar Media ratings.

Several electrical panels were burned and firemen had to use breathing apparatus to put out the blaze in the second level parking basement, said Col. Samuel Tadeo, deputy district fire marshal in Quezon City in a power supply was cut off in the whole building are reported toinjured but the fire caused power outage in the building in Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, as well as technical problem with the network's operation consider the fight of privatization of th sequestered broadcast firms like RPN and IBC are hitting.

Fire its the absement of RPN studios in Broadcast City was shoot in fire to fake RPN management and directors experiencing technical difficulties at the soonest possible time.

Police Rubout at Broadcast City Edit

It later became famous after exposing a police rubout on March 21, 2014 at 11:00pm on the evening when it became the media company under the Media ng Bayan to cover a police rubout incident right in front of its broadcast building to shot the gun in Broadcast City, Old Balara, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, an industrial section in the city of Mega Manila at which is the privatization them caught in the act of firing extra shots at car passengers murdered by the Philippine National Police.

The PNP claimed it was a shootout against carjackers. However, there was too much evidence to the contrary as it was in fact a broadcast rubout. This is substantiated by several eye-witnesses, including a video recording from RPN (a local sequestered TV station who happened to be filming at the time), to forensic reports, and the evidence that has yet to unfold.

The Kasama Network proved it was a rubout and also recorded the cops planting guns and stolen license plates in the trunk of the sedan, before calling the media. They shot to kill the privatization efforts of the studios and had no interest in saving their lives. RPN's footage became the vital evidence and accidents for a case filed on the Philippines' Commission on Human Rights.

Merchandising items in local and worldwide markets as it incorporates its merchandising arm RPN Creative Products, selling merchandise featuring the network's various TV shows.

To gain a new competitive advantage, RPN has converted from analog production to digital technology enabling it to enjoy unparalleled newsgathering and production capabilities. Equipped with taped and digital disk-based cameras, which use an optical disk for storage rather than tapes. For remote broadcast capabilities, equipped with SNG vans and portable antennas or SNG fly-aways. The entire news process will be server-based, thus every aspect will be fully automated and news will be gathered, stored, accessed, produced and delivered fast by a system that binds everything. All editing will be non-linear and file-based instead of tape based. This functionality in news will also be translated to local production. To improve the quality of all local shows, RPN will be using the same cameras as those used by News as well as lipstick and hidden cameras. Post-production will use non-linear editing. Eventually, like news, it will have a fully integrated end-to-end system. There is an ongoing comprehensive training and certification program to train and retool end-users on new technologies. Catch up-catch up all the time. Your favorite shows watch them all here on RPN Rewind.

Our target viewer is the upper-class income and middle class market with the local and global markets for the upscale of A-B-C market and mass audience of C-D-E market.

A viewership by confirms the sequestered TV station that RPN-9 ranks the number 3 in viewership, behind the two giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA, along with number 3 slot of IBC-13, TV5 and Studio 23.

To provide an alternative programming for viewer audience has grown into a phenomenon in the industry such increase in number indicates growth in listenership and viewership of a considerable magnitude and scale, The Kasama Network is home to the imported Mexican hit telenovelas like Marimar and Rosalinda starring the Mexican actress Thalia becoming the popular telenovela that grabbed prime-time ratings from established popular shows, and the Koreanovelas Dream High and Can You Hear My Heart. About Us Edit

Since the granting of its broadcasting franchise in 1960, RPN has performed as a major player and has been recognized as an innovative pace-setter in the country's broadcast industry.

The network has made its mark in Philippine radio and television history with its string of innovations and achievements which include:

The introduction of state-of-the-art superior color transmission dubbed Accucolor in 1969.

The first remote color transmissions with the latest Outside Broadcast (OB) Van in the country.

The first nationwide TV broadcasts via domestic satellite in 1981.

The longest running top-rating TV series in the 70's such as John en Marsha and Superstar.

The production of critically acclaimed, distinctly award-winning Filipino mini-series like Malayo ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao and Boracay.

The first record-breaking half-hour daily serial, Marimar – RPN's "programming coup" in 1996 that dislodged the top two TV networks' programs in the 6pm timeslot.

RPN was the original home of the top Hollywood TV series MacGyver, Ally McBeal, The X-Files, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg and The Practice. These were just few of the shows which became popular to Filipino TV viewers through RPN channel 9 known as 9TV.

PROFILE:

On June 19, 1960, the Philippine Legislature passed Republic Act No. 2980 which granted RPN a franchise to construct, establish, maintain and operate radio broadcasting and television stations in the Philippines. Once fully operational, it launched its flagship radio station in Manila, DZBI. By 1967, RPN had grown into a full network, operating DZRR in Manila as well as DZAX in Manila, DZAH and DZBS in Baguio, DZTG in Tuguegarao, DZRL in Laoag, and DXDX in Dadiangas.

Since the granting of its first broadcasting franchise in 1960, RPN has performed as a major player and has been recognized as an innovative pace-setter in the country's broadcast industry.

1969 was a signal year in the growth of RPN. It was in this year that the network branched out into television with channel 9 in Manila and channel 12 in Baguio. It was also in 1969 that RPN introduced technical milestones in Philippine television. First, help and funding for the new TV network partly came from ABS-CBN in the form of its old headquarters along Roxas Boulevard and brought in its Toshiba equipment which enabled Channel 9 to telecast in full color.

Accucolor, as its color casting capability was named, was far superior and professional from the test-quality color broadcasts then being run in the country.

Then, RPN brought in the first Outside Broadcast Color Van (OB Van) in the country, making it possible to beam studio-quality broadcasts of news and special events coverage from remote sites.

RPN entered the 1970's as the country's premiere radio and television network with the coverage of the times epochal events by its award-winning news and public affairs, it's TV Hall-of-Fame local and international services, landmark local and foreign entertainment specials and extensive coverage of sporting events, from Philippines Basketball to Munich and Montreal Olympiads.

A decade later, in 1981 RPN introduced another first, when it brought true "networking" to the country as it pioneered the use of domestic satellite to simulcast its primetime block programs over all its TV stations nationwide through its new domestic satellite (DOMSAT) technology, making it possible for provincial audiences to view the same programs at the same time as their Manila counterparts.

Today, RPN known as 9TV continues to provide exceptional broadcasting together with its provincial TV and radio stations nationwide, and its partner Solar Entertainment Corporation.

RPN is also currently one of the media companies under the Presidential Communications Operations Office headed by Secretary Herminio B. Coloma, Jr.

OTHER HISTORICAL ACHIEVEMENTS:

- Pioneered the TV newscasting came out with the first TV newspaper program: Newswatch is known as the longest-running English news program in the Philippines.
- Introduced two of the longest running sitcoms in Philippine TV (John en Marsha and Buddy en Sol).
- Cover live via satellite major sporting events, including the Olympics.
- Came out with Superstar variety program format.

- Launching the longest-running noontime variety TV show on Philippine television: Eat Bulaga! (hosted by Tito Sotto, Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon)
 - Use computer graphics in its station breaks, including program plugs and station IDs.
 - Launched the first local animation series Ang Panday.
 - Made public affairs program more popularly appealing like Tell The People with Julie Yap Daza.
 - Introduced the first and award-winning Filipino mini-series such as Malayo Pa Ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao and Boracay.
 - RPN also aired anime programming (making them one of the first to do so in the country) in including Macross, Voltes V, Astroboy, Starblazers and 90's anime Dragon Ball Z, and some imported and syndicated programs from the United States.
- The network also became home to, from 1978 up to the early 1980s, the Super Sentai series (making it the first in the Philippines to do so, becoming a pioneer in broadcasting tokusatsu and sentai programs in the country in the process). These made it a reason for the network in 1982 to adopt The Leader as its official slogan, coupled with its Number 9 and the red corporate logos, due to its massive successes as the nation's number one network.
- Launched the telenovela genre starting with La Traidora and followed by the phenomenal Marimar, which quickly became a popular program for the network, and setting the trend.
 - RPN established itself as the Philippine home network for the best in English programming and telenovelas, coupled with blockbuster movies.

Arangkada Balita

Monday to Friday 6:30pm - 7:30pm

RPN news team has always proven to be innovative in its news and public affairs programming.

Often this is the turf of the major news organizations, ABS-CBN and GMA 7, which pride in big-name personalities, state-of-the-art equipment and large work teams. 9News has made up for the lack of the given with good broadcast writing and content. With the reformat of its station and the shift to more entertainment-based shows, even the news at 9TV has made the change.

RPN's primetime news programs in Filipino, compete against the two giants ABS-CBN and GMA, had all their newscasts in the vernacular.

Arangkada Balita is an hour-long evening Filipino news program that delivers the latest breaking news in the country. Know the facts behind the day's top stories in a flash.

Get your news fast and accurate. It is anchored by veteran anchor man Bing Formento and a multaward female broadcast journalist Angelique Lazo reported here occurred widely throughout the day with the help of 9News and Radyo Ronda correspondents

NewsWatch

Monday to Friday 11:00pm - 11:30pm

In 1970, RPN started the first TV newspaper-format program as the nightly newscast in the country.

Informative, straightforward, unbiased and trusted for years. From the same news organization you have trusted for years comes in another breaking news revitalized, attuned to the times.

Pioneered the TV newscasting as Newswatch aired via domestic satellite, it remains the country's longest-running English newscast on Philippine television will keep you posted on issues of national concern here and around the globe updated on current events.

Anchored by long-time RPN news anchors: veteran news anchorman Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon served recap of the news and reporting. The news program also reporting each time in such networks.

Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo!

Friday 11:30pm - 12:00mn

The public service program where helpless citizens can address their grievances against members of the government and private groups or individuals. Dramatizations or re-enactment are shown to clearly present to the viewing public the abusive treatment done to the complainants. The program features a step-by-step method of how a complaint has been acted upon through the mediation of its highly-efficient staff. The various segments in the program deal with follow-ups on previously aired complaints whose solutions were not immediately shown, the modus operandi of bad elements so that the public can take the necessary precautions. Exemplary deed or heroism shown by policemen are also featured to regain the citizen's respect for our law enforcers especially during these times when considered as corrupt, opportunistic individuals. Ramon Tulfo, veteran police reporter and columnist, hosts the show.

RPN's another teleserye My Family's Lover to conquer TV viewing on March 3, 2014

March 1, 2014

We had an average of five programs in the Top 20 Weekly Primetime Program ratings. A sequestered network is always at the bottom of the order when vying to acquire performing stars and programs would consider transferring to RPN-9. The big US studios of their top programs to sequestered networks.

If the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA as well as the number 3 station IBC and TV5, it found a thread-of-the-mil and tried programs that continue to permeate the Filipino audiences here in the Philippines. We created this fan site devoted to our favorite third TV station RPN hopes to bring upscale programming to the mass market, thus appealing to a broad demographic range of TV viewers.

Based on the Kantar Media/TNS survey for February 2014, RPN-9 is seen by more viewers than any other local TV station as 30% total day audience share. Jose Mari Gonzales appointed him as RPN's top honcho. As a TV executive, he reinvented the telenovela's La Traidora and Marimar, dubbed to Tagalog.

RPN-9 has a semblance of competitive and innovative programming because of the shows of Solar Entertainment which is headed by my good friend and Tokayo (namesake), William Tieng.

For 54 years in the Philippine television space of the TV industry, RPN shows will given more push and determination will pull as the number 3 station in the Philippines! Still, more power to the Kasama network.

The comeback of the top-rated foreign hit series such as MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy, the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, Dharma and Greg and The Practice are some of the best of award-winning shows will tribute to the Kasama Network's World-Class US Primetime quality programming. A strong number 3 in viewership which virtually stronger among A-B-C classes for upscale viewers during primetime with today's best multi-award-winning world-class its on primetime such as Glee, America's Next Top Model, Community, Chicago Fire, New Girl, 2 Broke Girls, Beauty and the Beast, The Big Bang Theory, The Vampire Diaries, American Idol, Survivor, The Carrie Diaries, The Walking Dead, The Neighbors, MacGyver, NCIS and Marvel's Agents of Shield which has been on primetime schedule with a new seasons and a new episodes in the United states for the hottest primetime shows.

More local programs of RPN cater to the wide cross section of the Philippine society, from A-B-C markets to D-E market for the mass-based market as The Kasama Network burst with a spirit of renewal raring to take on new challenges in the Philippine broadcast industry, the network that will truly serve, inform and entertain.

Last February 28, 2014, the government-owned sequestered media network RPN had its presscon for its another first in teleserye called My Family's Lover provides welcome relief from the excessively formulaic dramas on the bigger networks.

It was one of dream come true when I got the chance to be among the guests of this launched because I am so proud to tell you that the writer for this primetime teleserye is none other than, the multi awarded writer Ms. Carmela Abaygar. I am more than proud to have the chance to have met and tell her that me and my husband collects all the books she had written in the recent press conference of RPN's primetime teleserye offering going on primetime soap operas and competing with other big television networks.

The 5 Girls played by: L-R: Kyline Alcantara, Andrea Brillantes, Jane Oineza and Erin Ocampo

This family-drama series is very timely because it focuses on family values and the growing percentage that there is a rise in number of "parenting families."

My Family's Lover is about father dad Zoren (Albert Martinez) with his wife Carmella (played by Rufa Gutierrez) to be the mother and father to her 5 kids giving birth with their youngest daughter of kids.

The couple has five daughters, played by The Kasama Network's new stable of talents - Kyline Alcantara, Jane Oineza, Andrea Brillantes, Erin Ocampo and Ingrid dela Paz, the child with autism.

The director, veteran megman and producer Joel Lamangan and The Kasama Network shared that it took this long for them to finally air a 3 teleseryes Jose Rizal, Kung Maibabalik Mo Lang and My Family's Lover because they had to keep within its corporate mission and philosophy of offering, 100% family-oriented wholesome programming. RPN is careful in bringing a good values to its Filipino audience.

There will be an advance screening of the teleserye's first episode in Digital Cinemas in Metro Manila on Saturday, February 28, at 3:30 p.m., where there will be free admission for the viewing public.

These venues are: SM North EDSA, SM Mall of Asia Cinema, Robinson's Galleria Cinema, and Robinson's Place Cinema. There will also be simulcast screenings in five separate areas or barangays in different parts of Metro Manila, from March 3 to 8. Screenings will be done in one public area per day where the target public can watch the teledrama as it is aired on The Kasama Network RPN.

On Monday, March 3, the screening is in Barangay Commonwealth; on Tuesday, March 4, the screening is set in Bgy. Pinagbuhatan; on Wednesday, March 5, it will be held in Taguig City University; and on Friday, March 7, it will be at the Oreta Sports Complex in Malabon.

On Saturday, there will also be a special screening at the San Andres Sports Complex in Manila.

Don't forget to mark the date, March 3, Monday-Friday from 9:30-10:00pm on RPN. Directed by the award-winning director Joel Lamangan. My Family's Lover is RPN's another first in teleserye, which promises to captivate the audience with its storyline focusing on Filipino family values.

This is the major drama series of RPN's Entertainment TV Division, which aims to deliver more quality programs for The Kasama Network and the viewing public this year, explained Wilson Tieng, Radio Philippines Network chairman and Rober T. Rivera, the network's president and chief executive officer.

My Family's Lover will also showcase the dramatic as well as comedic talents of veteran character actors Bembol Roco, who plays Jupiter, Anna's father, and Raquel Villavicencio, who plays Venus, Lisa's mother. Both have played various challenging roles in film, TV and theater.

The Kasama Network rolls out weekend revamp

March 20, 2014

In its effort to bring a unique TV viewing experience from other television networks, RPN focuses on foreign canned shows in the US. Hence, the tagline Kasama Ako!.

As the best and the most in enduring hit foreign canned shows on Philippine TV are coming back: MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy, the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg, The Simpsons and The Practice bridging the generation gap with the power of 100-kilowatts ERP is the strongest and biggest reach in VHF announcing the birth of The Kasama Network for the Timeless Kasamahan.

The station-produced programs of RPN cater to the wide cross section of the Philippine society, from A-B-C classes to C-D-E markets. Primetime news program Arangkada Balita cater to the masses while the longest-running English newscast Newswatch also serve more upscale viewers while entertainment programs of RPN will also aims to the mass audience from dramas, comedies, game shows, musical variety shows, talk shows and reality shows that will feature the brightest and biggest stars in the Philippine entertainment industry.

Consistently earning significant viewers of foreign canned shows will cater to the Asian market with its most upscale drivers of A-B-C classes such as Glee, America's Next Top Model, Community, American Idol, NCIS, Survivor, New Girl, The Neighbors, The Simpsons, The Big Bang Theory, The Walking Dead, Chicago Fire, The Carrie Diaries, Beauty and the Beast, The Vampire Diaries, 2 Broke Girls, Hell's Kitchen, MacGyver and Agents of Shield earns the most number of viewers both in the total number of individuals and households viewing and the Hollywood box-office hits like Sine Nueve and Sunday's Big Event which featuring the best of Hollywood blockbuster movies, TV specials and concerts.

New prime-time schedule big on music, comedy and competition

Philippines' sequestered TV-radio broadcaster RPN as the Summer Storm 2014 is ramping up its weekend prime time slot in a bid to be more effective and competitive against the country's big two – ABS-CBN and GMA Network, in terms of TV rating as well as the number 3 spot also claimed by IBC and TV5. For its part, RPN's niche strategy is the A-B-C market with their foreign TV shows.

Transmitter power of 100-kilowatts tower output in Panay Ave., Brgy. South Traingle, Quezon City with such building at RPN studio 1 and 2 at the transmitter studio and its 200-foot antenna tower. The network is still focused on maintaining the same target demographic of young, ABC viewership and positioning.

Already intruding this thread to bash that means RPN is indeed starting to be a competitive threat to the other 2 stations. More work in the entertainment industry and more alternative programs for the audience from the soap operas that dominate rival schedules approving the PCGG's privatization of RPN-9. Its popular line-up of series and shows will continue to grow with each new television season.

RPN stirs things up with 'Weekend Primetime' block

With the shadows of the country's two giant networks looming largely over the newly overhauled network, the biggest, brightest, best and all on RPN's super primetime weekend with the biggest family entertainment on Philippine television history with the broadcasting industry. RPN's newest president and chief operating officer (CEO) Robert T. Rivera, promises a number of big shows this year.

RPN's comedy coup is signing up the biggest names in Philippine laughs - Roderick Paulate, Nova Villa and Bayani Agbayani - for its new production also committed to "a number of new formats that we're trying out that will hopefully set new trends in local programming".

The tie up consequently allowed the network to beef up its programming, which consequently boosted its chances to compete against ABS-CBN and GMA-7 offered by the more established networks.

The network's new identity, coupled with aggressive promotion and interesting programs, immediately made an impression among viewers right on its first month of reinvention.

We are the No.3 leader television network in the country, thanks for making us to the top. We'd like to thing out Kasama viewers for making RPN-9, the No.3 leader station. Stay tuned to Philippine television for your favorite all family shows and your favorite RPN stars of The Kasama Network.

RPN's ten new weekend shows include the game show prize format The Million Peso Money Drop (Saturday, 6pm) hosted by Rafael Rosell, as well as local drama anthology Pinapangako Mo (Saturday, 7:45pm) hosted by Coney Reyes, reality show for the national singing contest format Boses Tinig Pinoy (Saturday, 8:30pm and Sunday, 8pm) hosted by German Moreno as Kuya Germs with a judges of Aileen Papin, John Nite, Pilita Corales and Anthony Castelo, a popular and top-rated comedy sitcom Roderick en Nova (Saturday, 10:15pm) starring Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa and Mister Kemis Bayani (Saturday, 11pm) top-billed by Bayani Agbayani and a late-night gag show Dobol Trobol (Saturday 11:45pm).

Is RPN-9 doing anything at all?

April 8, 2014

RPN-9 is in the third ranks as ABS-CBN and GMA.

It makes even deserves to be mentioned in the domination. Channel 9's market share is so large that it gets scant consideration from advertisers and media buyers, and consequently its revenues can also be a tiny fraction of those of the two giants. Ask the man on the street what he associates with RPN-9 and he will most likely and rather the administration, appointment of the president Noynoy Aquino III.

"In fairness," as showbiz royalties would putting it, RPN-9 is the other private, government-sequestered television and radio network media in the country; and thus, the network with a chance of challenging the duopoly over the long term. The government controlled by the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). The acquisition of the network by Wilson Tieng of Solar Entertainment became RPN chairman last 2007, put it in a position to compete; and the first time in the new management generated a good deal of excitement and anticipation as well.

Getting the MBA and KBL games was a brilliant idea that instantly filled RPN-9 schedule with programming practically guaranteed to rate recently and pull in the local advertisers. Picking up American Idol was also particularly astute considering that all the other local networks had ignored the show as Jessica Sanchez is the popular singer made it the talk of the town. Launching Arangkada Balita and Newswatch together with Tell the People, Saklolo Abogado, Kasangga Mo Ang Langit, Biyaheng Langit and Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo spoke of a determination to build a strong, independent and credible news organization. Airing masterpieces such quality soap opera hits as Luz Clarita, Muling Ibalik ang Tamis ng Pag-Ibig and My Family's Lover gave substance to Tieng's reseration of support for TV fare of those drama serials.

Of course, there were local trend as well--Pat P-Daza Planas' talk show Showbiz Ka!, educational programs Eskwela ng Bayan featuring Karen's World, Why?, Solved and Alikabok, and Ruffa Gutierrez's reality show slash beauty contest. Thankfully, they were all the homegrown programs. To be fair, RPN-9 should at least get points for trying out groundbreaking concepts. In fact, some observers say that if these programs had been produced of the network and compared to ABS-CBN and GMA-7, they have been successful.

Currently, RPN-9 is airing another set of quality innovative programs: Superstar (Angeline Quinto), a Sunday night, singing musical variety show; The Million Peso Money Drop (Rafael Rosell) and The Price is Right (Tom Rodriguez) becoming the million-peso prized game show for Filipino viewers; and Boses Tinig Pinoy, a reality show for the local national singing contest with German Moreno and Alleen Papin launching the singing champion. Still to come, already get a recent press conference, is a show in which professional Filipino actors compete for a chance to break into the superstars of the network.

The Kasama Network is doing a major reformat. In spite of everything it is doing, its ratings are strong in the large single digits. The real question therefore is: Why RPN-9 compete?

Here are ten things The Kasama Network has got to work on:

1. Signal strength. RPN-9's transmitter has more than the power of the ABS-CBN and GMA-7 transmitters. As a result, people in southern portions of Metro Manila who might want to watch Superstar (because they have relatives among the singers) because Channel 13's signal is strong over there. The longer RPN-9 trying to address this problem, the more money it will given on programming that many people get a chance to see.
2. Picture quality. Those viewers who do get the RPN-9 signal often get pictures that are grainy and almost monochromatic. It's more fun to watch the MBA and KBL isee the players. RPN-9 has to buy some new cameras, more lights, better playback machines, etc, etc. all the way in the line. With everybody else going digital and high definition acceptable.
3. Canned programs. ABS-CBN Sports and Action, Star TV, ETC, 2nd Avenue, Jack TV, Jack City and AXN all carry the top US programs. In order to stand out in this crowd, RPN-9 should also broadcast the current season of a canned series and should at the very least air ahead of the cable channels. Some foreign canned programs as World-Class US Primetim such as MacGyver, NYPD Blue, NCIS, Revolution, Community, Missioin: Impossible, The Walking Dead, American Idol, Survivor, The X-Files, Glee, 24 and Chicago Fire maybe The Kasama Network should, too.
4. Production. RPN-9 spends over a million pesos to produce each episode of its Mexican telenovelas and asianovelas from Korea and Taiwan. Obviously the people at RPN-9 will doing to match the level of spending, but this time they have to realiz that even the best concepts will be ruined by cheap execution. The recent Mutya ng Pilipinas beauty pageant is a case in point. Bringing in Oscar Awards, Academy Awards and Miss Universe from all over the world was a winning idea, the staging of the pageant was about as good as well.

5. Stars. Stated in Filipino viewers want to see the stars of RPN-9. Those talents and stars with the fresh faces of them: Rafael Rosell, Angeline Quinto, Tom Rodriguez, Gemran Moreno, Nora Aunor, Bayani Agbayani, Roderick Paulate, Nova Villa, Ruffa Gutierrez, Albert Martinez, Tirso Cruz III, Randy Santiago, Kuh Ledesma, Raymond Lauchengco, Marjorie Barretto, Pat-P Daza Planas, Coney Reyes, Dennis Padilla, etc. Some hottest young stars who bame the next Kasama star.
6. Sales and Marketing. The banners in Mega Manila are the masses. To build market share, RPN-9 has to get the word about its programs. Like almost everyting else in this list, better publicity requires more money. You can try to be creative and get more bang in the cash register
7. News coverage. Live reporters of the heroic efforts of RPN-9's news reporters, it is often obvious get the top stories. The Kasama Network has to be more reliable in this respect ants to compete in news.
8. MBA and KBL. Sports programming, some of the entertainment network wants in the running, especially the two basketball league has all kinds of Filipino sports fans of its own.

Channel 9 premieres impressive lineup

April 8, 2014

RPN Channel 9 is the sports and action channel in the country that airs the MBA and KBL basketball games, also with American Idol and Survivor--two of the most phenomenally successful reality shows in the world.

With the realization that at least 70 percent of TV viewers are men and boys in sports, RPN-9 has positioned itself as a channel for males and sports men, viewers get a great serving of the best of international shows along with outstanding locally produced shows.

RPN wants to be relevant to men by entertaining them and making their acton-packed and thrilling," said Robert Rivera, RPN president and chief operating officer (CEO).

It was wow with a capital Barangay Kasamas at the recent RPN Channel 9 Trade Show at the Cinema 2 of Greenbelt 3 as the premiere local sports and action channel unveiled its impressive lineup of shows with a premiere night-style two-day event. It was a unique trade event as the entire program was held inside a movie house, reminiscent of a Hollywood private screening. The event was a box office hit, so to speak, as the screening played to a full house and seats had to be added to accommodate guests. From the "masa" niche, RPN is now gearing towards the upscale and massive men market. RPN further ups the ante by offering new locally produced programs for its target A-B-C and C-D-E male audience.

Rivera admitted that RPN is positioning itself as a local version of Clar Sports but with more comprehensive and thoughtful approach in fulfilling the entertainment needs of men. For young boys of shows the hit animes and cartoons, which is a third most popular channel in Mega Manila after parent company ABS-CBN and GMA as well as the number 3 spot of IBC and TV5, approaches entertainment for men and boys by having something for the different stages of their lives.

He said while RPN's programming was a "work in progress," the network has expanded its audience to include men aged 18 to 40 and even beyond. The reformatting is a first step towards becoming the sports and action channel for men in the Philippines and we have seen our ratings improve since then," Rivera added.

Establishing its mark as the local channel that features the best of foreign shows like American Idol, NCIS, MacGyver, NYPD Blue, Revolution, Mission: Impossible, Chicago Fire, 24: Live Another Day, The X-Files, Community, Survivor and The Walking Dead together with top-notch telenovelas Mar de Amor and Porque el Amor Manda, and some Koreanovelas like Wonderful Life and Dear My Sister The Kasama Network is all set to further up the ante with its new shows that are sure to capture the taste of the bes in action-packed intensifies its programming as it brings you the hottest shows and must-see television specials, recently unveiled its line-up of new shows, new seasons of American shows and must-see TV specials.

About 70 percent of the network's shows are foreign program and 40 percent are locally produced. The Kasama Network is also known as the home of Asian dramas, MBA and KBL basketball games, animes series, Mexican telenoelas, Hollywood movies and foreign canned prgrams in the US. "RPN is on top of the male ABC and CDE market's shopping list," reports. He ventures into comparisons.

"The shows that you see on RPN-9 are actually shows that people go home to watch like The X-Files, NCIS, MacGyver, NYPD Blue, Revolution, Mission: Impossible, Chicago Fire, 24: Live Another Day, Community and The Walking Dead," observed Robert Rivera, the president and CEO of RPN to fill viewers.

In the planning stage are a program for single professionals and a reality show that hopes to attract contestants who are young, cool and hip. Although RPN is a nework for men and for Filipino sports. Our goal is to improve our ratings by offering complete entertainment for men. So we have something for everyone," he said. Trade partners and other guests were on the edge of their seats as they were given a ladd of the exciting shows to come in RPN-9 via an audio-visual presentation that clearly showed The Kasama Network further intensifying its sports and action programming and even introducing its website at rpn9.com.

"Before," he relates, "RPN-9 duplicated the ABS-CBN and GMA's target market, the masses. " Today, he notes how things have changed for the better. The shift to the ABC-DE male market. Advertisers are now plunking in their precious budgets. Now, they realize that The Kasama Network and the cable channels target one and the same upscale audience.

RPN's new and exciting programs include the afternoon family dramas dedicated to the children and kids called Luz Clarita, starring the child star Andrea Brillantes; a mini-series Muling Ibalik ang Tamis ng Pag-Ibig starring the superstar Nora Aunor and Tirso Cruz III; soap opera series My Family's Lover top-billed by the drama actor Albert Martinez and beauty queen Ruffa Gutierrez as much as 60 percent growth rate.

Set to air with the MBA and KBL basketball games which has been acquired the new luster of the network and also this month are the sports coverage of the Olympic Games, Southeast Asian Games and the Asian Games. Some boxing matches such as World-Class Boxing and Pacquiao Flashback, the biggest mixed martial arts of Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) featuring some of the best MMA fighters and the wrestling fans of WWE Bottom Line and WWE SmackDown!. These new shows go perfectly well with RPN's current shows that are getting better and brighter every day. The top-notch shows include a nightly musical variety show Superstar (Angeline Quinto); game shows The Million Peso Money Drop (Rafael Rosell) and The Price is Right (Tom Rodriguez); the reality show for the national singing contest as well Boses Tinig Pinoy (German Moreno as judges Aileen Papin, John Nite, Pilita Corales and Anthony Castelo); local comedy sitcoms such as John en Nova (Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa) and Kemis: Kay Bayani Ako (Bayani Agbayani); drama anthology Pinapangako Mo (Coney Reyes); and news programs Arangkada Balita (Bing Formento and Angeli Lazo) and Newswatch (Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon).

RPN stars seen during the two-day event were Bayani Agbayani, Roderick Paulate, Nova Villa, Coney Reyes, Angeline Quinto, Rafael Rosell, German Moreno, Tom Rodriguez, Aileen Papin, John Nite, Anthony Castelo, Nora Aunor, Tirso Cruz III, Albert Martinez, Ruffa Gutierrez, Pat-P Daza Planas and Dennis Padilla. Some of the RPN-9 executives present were the chairman Wilson Tieng, president and CEO Robert Rivera.

RPN-9 programming empowers viewers

July 6, 2014

RPN's new handle for its homegrown programming, which will see a number of new programs launched and a minor schedule reshuffle, is The Kasama Network. Simply rated, it means empowering the viewer to choose the best TV fare, according to his taste and his inclinations, by providing him with a wide choice of excellent programs, slotted at strategic days and time slots. It means viewers need not follow the herd. Over the last 54 years, RPN-9 has consistently followed the concert of World-Class US Primetime programming with the best of foreign imports, and proudly Philippine-made programs guided by the spirit of originality and innovation.

This best exemplified by outstanding foreign programs as MacGyver, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Chicago Hope, Dharma and Greg, The Practice, among others, which are not only top-rated but also consistent awardees in the landmark of local programs like Eat Bulaga!, John en Marsha, Superstar, Champoy, Young Love, Sweet Love, Buddy en Sol, etc. Award-winning Filipino mini-series such as Malayo Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao and Boracay, a Mexican telenovelas Marimar, Simplemente Maria, Acapulco, Maria la del Barrio, Luz Clarita, La Usurpadora and Maria Isabel.

New seasons of The Walking Dead and Community start this week, while the dominance of trend-setting program Dobol Trobol, headlined by Brod Pete, Dennis Padilla and Eric Quizon. Of RPN's program thrust, Wilson Tieng, RPN chairman and Solar Entertainment president and CEO says: innovation, diversity, experimentation, multiculturalism are important to us.

It has spelled out success. It has made our programming different, unique. It is said that broadcast is like trench warfare - every inch of difference you can gain is valuable. Channel 9 also from the telenovela craze, it started La Traidora in 1994 and Marimar in 1996 which becoming the hits.

RPN-9 strives to make every program unique, with a personality of its own. Kasama treats each program as an individual product, as it believes branding in the name of the game. Robert T. Rivera, RPN president and CEO explains: "We will just say let's produce a comedy and a drama. We conceptualize very distinct programs, programs which we can say have the Kasama network trademark of originality.

Discerning viewers have remarked that viewing RPN-9 is like going into a shop which has only the best choices in merchandise. Every major item has been chosen with great care. And they're all one-of-a-kind. RPN is in the thick of the network war to the throne, it has the "copycatting" in against it.

RPN has opted for strategic counter programming. When viewers decide to exercise their viewing time, there will be a true shift in the primetime balance of power. In July, RPN-9 unleashes new and challenging programs with populist genres. Among the US imports through World-Class US primetime, Smallville promises to be the hit of the season for the brand new episodes in a superheroes. The Big Bang Theory delight the tradition of the much-loved comedy, 24: Live Another Day brings to the screen a new action-packed team, while the reality show American Idol shows us the host Ryan Seacrest.

Of the local front, Superstar continues to be the best musical variety show on Philippine TV; Kanta Tayo which is the response to viewers' clamor for the sing-along karaoke game show; and on July 12, the two of primetime game shows The Million Peso Money Drop and Price is Right for the million-peso prizes, the top-rated reality show Boses Tinig Pinoy with a new season for the national singing contest, and on Saturday sees the debut of what to be the hottest comedy show on Philippine TV: Dobol Trobol, the program to laughing for.

Marketing Case Study - Marimar Edit

Background

Marimar is a Mexican TV telenovela originally broadcasted in 1994 in Mexico. The rights were later bought by RPN 9, dubbed it in Filipino and re-broadcasted on a primetime slot on Philippine television. Pitted against industry giants ABS-CBN and GMA-7, Marimar caught the fancy of Filipinos and became a nationwide sensation. Intriguing is the fact that at that time, ABS-CBN and GMA's shows lord over television and their shows occupy a very huge chunk of the ratings pie. In came Marimar and shoved its rival's ratings. What made this foreign telenovela so special that it was able to do such? On the marketing perspective, what strategies were employed that led to the tipping of the ratings scale?

The company and its available resources Radio Philippines Network, Inc (RPN), initially known as Kanlaon Broadcasting system, is a broadcast television network in the Philippines owned by the Government Communications Group.

Initially it operated radio stations and in 1969 it launched its television arm. In the 70s and 80s, RPN was a big player in the local broadcast industry with several shows and special coverage in its fold. It aired special coverage like the Olympics, Thrilla in Manila and the Miss Universe Pageant. It also launched trendsetting programs such as John en Marsha, Superstar, Eat Bulaga, and several big-name animes. It also bought rights for re-broadcasting of several hit TV shows from the United States.

After the 1986 EDSA revolution, RPN was sequestered by the government and its assets were turned over to the Government Communications Group. In its fall from grace, the network lost much of its viewership to GMA and ABS-CBN. Some of its high-rating primetime shows were either cancelled or moved to a rival network. It eventually fell into a ratings slump due to the resurgence of ABS-CBN and GMA. Being a government controlled company; it was running on a tight budget.

The company stature could compete head-on with its rival's heavily funded shows. As an obvious result, the viewer-market favored other network's programming over theirs. The company is in dire need of something to turn the tide in their favor. Other Variables

Providing as background to the events of the 1990s, economically, the Philippines was not faring well. Though it had made progress with its rapid economic growth under Pres. Fidel Ramos (1992-1998), the poor still constituted a majority of its citizens. This time was also characterized with power shortages leading to widespread blackouts.

Being all too similar. It was also more cost-efficient and less risky to show Marimar than gambling on a similar news program to match the already popular and well staffed rival shows. RPN was already importing foreign shows (mostly from the US and Japan).

Marimar was a top-rater in any Latin American country where it was shown. With Spanish influence deep in Filipinos' blood. Two years prior. Marimar thus became the pawn against the bishops and rooks of their rival. The craze was called Marimar. the executives at RPN hoped that the same phenomenon (or even half of that) would infect the Philippine scene. Disapproving they may be of the newscasts. ABS-CBN had TV Patrol and GMA had Saksi. Both GMA and ABS-CBN fielded their respective top-rating early-evening news program in the primetime slot.

At that time. Product Comparison (Strengths and Weaknesses of Programs in the 6pm slot) (pardon me for the use of non-business language. With nothing to lose and nothing in their current roster of programs resilient enough to contend with the heavyweights.

Some light stuff would be earmarked here and there but the emphasis almost always bordered on the negative. Analysis Tapping an Untapped Market Owing to its near-nil resource and recognizing its inability to contend toe-to-toe with GMA and ABS-CBN's well-planned. both programs also left the same void in the market. Both news programs were headlined by the 2 network's popular newscasters. the newscast's ratings were sky-scrappers as compared to RPN's primetime slot In 1996.

RPN looked at the programming choices it will offer for the 6pm primetime. a craze was spreading across Latin America. It was not new to them to import top-rating shows in other countries whose formula are akin to the shows patronized in the Philippines. well-executed and highly-financed newscasts.) shows supplanted by RPN on this timeslot took a back seat on its rival network's newscasts. The Primetime Slot: An introspective look the programs of ABS-CBN and GMA on its 6pm timeslot were characterized with similar attributes.. RPN decided to look elsewhere. Both programs catered to the same need. The audience were in a neck-deep dire state and the newscasts were highlighting the scenes they would otherwise leave unnoticed. News at that time was often about the dire plight of the country.

The venture was more cost-efficient: no production costs and talent fees, it made use state of the art technology in broadcasting and news reporting) round-the-clock yried and tested formula that generated high-rating To infinity and beyond Rregular marketing (Ads, billboards kept them glued to their screens. .

Alternative fare for 9TV

August 22, 2014

MANILA, Philippines, Newly refurbished channel of RPN-9 makes a splash in the local Philippine TV scene this month called 9TV's initial broadcast on Saturday night (August 23) had none of the telenovelas and noontime variety shows commonly on ABS-CBN and GMA.

It used to be that viewers would switch to Channel 9 gets a make-over for the foreign canned shows in the United States, telenovelas, Asian dramas and sports from MBA and KBL. From the Radio Philippines Network, Inc. (RPN), the station is now being reintroduced as the newest Philippine TV sensation 9TV with the chairman Amb. Antonio Cabangon-Chua as Chairman and Benjamin Santos as President and CEO.

9TV retaining the news and current affairs, sports and entertainment programming while expanding its primetime and weekend programming to cater more audiences which was started by the launching of Kids Weekend. Also, ALC Group of Companies appoints Benjamin Ramos as new president of the Radio Philippines Network, replacing Usec. Robert T. Rivera. I hope RPN comes up with better programming.

"It's the risk we decided to take. We wanted to give people an alternative to the current fare," said RPN's newest chairman Amb. Antonio L. Cabangon Chua and the president and CEO Benjamin Ramos during the network's launch last Thursday in Greenhills, San Juan.

“If we would come up with shows with just the same format, kaming pinagkaiba.” Amb. Antonio added that the network will first concentrate on strengthening its prime time block, which is from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. 9TV strives for an alternative programming. 9TV is the newest major player in Philippine television industry.

9TV's new logo comes with more generic blue and red branding to reach a wider audience and strengthen its presence on free TV RPN-9. Remember these of public service program Action 9, which was anchored by Ramon Tulfo, Atty. Dong Puno, Angelique Lazo and Rey Langit.

This was announced last Friday by Amb. Antonio Cabangon-Chua, chairman of RPN, during the launch of 9TV's new programming lineup in a glitzy affair at the Hotel Rembrandt ballroom.

I wish that RPN-9 would bring back its own programming and to bring the network's news programs such as Arangkada Balita (weeknights 6:30 p.m.) anchored by Bing Formento and Angelique Lazo, and also the long-running English late-night newscast NewsWatch (weeknights at 11 p.m.) anchored by Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon. It will also air with the US TV shows, telenovelas, Asian dramas, animes, cartoons, etc.

Chua stressed that the unique strength of RPN-9 known as 9TV is that it brings together the superstars of local sports, the foreign canned programs in the US, telenovelas, Asian dramas, cartoons and anime with the leading lights of Philippine entertainment industry under one roof, in a never-before-tried mix.

The need to reinvent Channel 9, Atty. Antonio said, had been pursued by its management led by a chairman Amb. Antonio L. Cabangon Chua. Negotiations led to a long-term block-time agreement between RPN, Solar Entertainment and ALC Group of Companies, the local subsidiary of Solar Television Network. The Kasama Network RPN-9 became its new brand name as 9TV adds the entertainment shows on primetime which also develop its own roster of homegrown talents and stars.

Its modest aim, according to Antonio, is to become No.2 in the so-called TV network wars. “ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are both claiming to be No.1 and IBC-13 and TV5 still charting to the No.3 slot in the ratings game. We’d gladly give that to them. But we want to be the solid third force in the industry,” explained Antonio.

Together with the directors and producers who have joined the new network, the list of actors who will be seen nightly has been growing by the week. Antonio happily reports, “The Kasama Network 9TV is proud to have secured the services of several established talents in the industry. We hope to be a venue where actors can showcase their talent to the fullest regardless of where they originally ‘came’ from. We feel that this cross-pollination of talent is very good for the entertainment industry as a whole.” Of course, RPN-9 will also develop their own fresh new talents which goes without saying.

More exciting

A week after week is the newly-refurbished RPN Channel 9 surfaced as 9TV, we find ourself hoping and sharing a conviction that there is dedication in our talented artists, producers and network owners to turn around the industry that many have practically given up on.

Undoubtedly, TV is the most powerful avenue for the formation of taste, opinion and creation of idols that not only the on-cam actors but also in producers, writers, directors, makeup artists, wardrobe assistants, cameramen who welcomed the development.

The returning to come back for my future on RPN Channel 9 with the new facilities of studios and broadcast headquarters, included the buildings of the new RPN Media Center in Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City and the transmitter tower in Panay Avenue, Brgy. South Trilangle, Diliman, Quezon City, we saluted to my future on RPN is time to given back and returned the air. Entertainment shows on primetime, many groundbreaking drama shows on 9TV could dub and air on primetime.

“We hope to make our shows more exciting. We want to change the current TV landscape,” he said. The future of RPN Channel 9 are become returned with dare and included the network's three radio stations are: DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422 for AM (the format of news and information, public affairs, talk, entertainment, music, full service and public service), 99.5 Play FM (contemporary hit radio, OPM and Top 40 music) and 106.9 Bida FM (hot adult contemporary, OPM and Manila Sound music format).

As the major player on Philippine television, Inquirer Entertainment attended 9TV's grand coming-out party, during the launch of 9TV's new programming lineup also on Saturday night at the SMX, Mall of Asia in Pasay City. New shows and their hosts were introduced and home to the KBL and MBA basketball games.

All local shows on Channel 9 are currently produced by the network itself and co-produced by Solar. RPN name remains re-active on air, even though it is the official name of the network.

It aims to turn RPN around back to the glory days with its own pool of talents and as the leader network.

Think of it as the basketball fans just like MBA. Hence, for the first time ever, the likes of basketball icons Johnny Abarrientos, Rommel Adducul and Marlou Aquino will join the hands with the stars Richard Gutierrez, Angeline Quinto, German Moreno, Empress Shuck, JM de Guzman, Ingrid dela Paz, John Wayne Sace, Hazel Faith dela Cruz, Kristofer Martin and Joshua Diosino, Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa, Miguel Sarne, Jellyn Echon, among others. Of course, in a series of promotional efforts of the newest TV channel 9TV.

One thing 9TV already has going for it is a well-entrenched niche of loyal and royal TV viewers - fans of sports programs, the fans of telenovelas and Asianovelas, fans of anime and cartoons thru Kids Weekend, fans of foreign canned shows in the United States and now seeks to build upon this foundation by expand into a new area, that of local entertainment, by producing shows with the original local productions of RPN-9 whose formats have a proven track record of huge success.

The network's banner shows also continues to be its sports programs led by its flagship program, with the Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA) games (Wednesday and Friday at 8 to 9:30 p.m., Saturday at 2:30 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m.), which Solar Sports has been producing for television. 9TV also featuring the Korean Basketball Association (KBL) games on Saturday at 12:30 p.m. and Sunday at 10 a.m.

9TV also introduced 20 brand-new local shows, including two fantasy series, a romance soap opera, a youth-oriented teen drama, drama anthology, two sitcoms, one gag shows, four game shows, children's show, showbiz talk show, four reality shows, musical variety show and Bong Revilla's weekly hit action movie.

German Moreno known as Kuya Germs, is the variety show host of the original reality show for the talent search called Boses Tinig Pinoy, which airs every Saturday at 9 p.m. and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. It will showcased the talents from the 12 regions of the country through a unique singing contest, which is performed in "acapella" with two categories – duet and trio. Over P1-million worth of prizes will be given away for the new season with the weekly winner receiving P50,000, and a contract under the Polyeast Records.

Antonio said the contest is part of strengthening their radio stations in the 12 regions of the country, and also provides a once-in-a-lifetime shot for fame and fortune.

Richard Gutierrez hosting the local version of the US top-rating game show The Price is Right, which also aired every Sunday at 6:30 p.m. will exciting the game. It gives away loads of prizes and provides unequalled and non-stop entertainment to Filipino contestants and the audience. Contestants totally enjoy their stint in the highly entertaining game show. They will get to take home cool appliances, leisure travel packages, and sometimes a brand new car when the price is right.

Rafael Russel on hosting shows in competing networks

October 31, 2013

Thanks to RPN president and CEO Robert T. Rivera announced that the Philippines in the country to acquire the franchise of the show from the company Endemol International.

RPN-9 intensifies its primetime programming with more excitement as it launches The Million Peso Money Drop, a top-rating game show on Philippine television last April 6, 2013 with the actor Rafael Rosell as host. "The prizes of The Million Peso Money Drop are more local audiences of The Kasama Network." Aside from the Philippines, The Million Peso Money Drop being shown in the US which in turn is based on The Million Pound Drop also be a hit in the Philippines just as it has become popular in other countries will offer viewers Kasama Prize Packages.

An extraordinary game show event round of auditions with one key twist: contestants are already given the prize money at the start of the game! But after eight questions, can they keep hold of it?

The show is popularly seen in other countries like the US and UK with a franchise in primetime game shows.

With the million pesos right before the contestants' eyes at the start of the show. The money is theirs. Naturally, all contestants aspire to win and bring home the cash. But first, they must answer the multiple choice questions and bet their money. They can risk the cash in the trap door which they feel contains the correct answer. They can stop the clock in case there's still time left and they already finished answering the question. Then they can advance to the next question and get much closer to winning whatever is left of their one million pesos.

The transfer of their bundles of money to the trap door entails only one minute or they can use the one-time quick change within the game. Quick change gives contestants a chance to change their answer for another 30 seconds. They can use the quick change only once for questions one to seven. The final question will give them the chance to take home whatever money they have left in the game.

If they give a wrong answer, the cash placed on the trap door will fall down in "money drop." Kasama stars and celebrities has since won the full million pesos at the end of the game. Winning P275,000, so far the biggest money taken home by players in the show and won

P150,000 with a million pesos (40 bundles of 25,000 pesos in 20 peso bills) will call lucky home viewers and the winner of P1 million peso cash prize.

Catch this newest game show to hit Philippine TV, where contestants can win or lose, life-changing amounts of money in front of a live audience. The game show to be aired every Saturday night from 6:00PM to 7:00PM on RPN-9. The local version of the worldwide game phenomenon, The Million Peso Money Drop., is one of the prime offerings of the Kasama network introducing new programs will surely played and excite Saturday nights with intense, jaw-dropping action, with in the world contestants the full P1 million prize at the beginning of the show.

Rafael Rosell emphasized that those who want to join the game show with studio contestant visit the studio of RPN from Broadcast City in Diliman, Quezon City. Interested participants only need to bring the following: two valid IDs, one 2x2 photograph of themselves, an original NBI clearance, birth certificate and medical certificate.

Kasama fans happy with BOSES Tinig P Noy ratings

November 1, 2013

Philippine TV is starting to be a third player RPN-9, the broadcast landscape by the two giant stations in the coveted Top 15 slots of TV programs in terms of viewership ratings.

The Kasama Network RPN-9 is showing with the ratings of BOSES Tinig P-Noy, the flagship reality show, had viewers tuned in despite in the 12.4% performance on the ratings scale.

The advertisements, the commercial sports of RPN-9, including San Miguel products, Smart, Globe, Talk N Text, Sun Cellular, Touch Mobile, Jollibee, McDonalds, Coca Cola, Charmee Pantliners, Kraft products, P&G products, Uniliver products, Universal Robina and Jack n' Jill products, KakaoTalk, RC Cola, Mang Inasal, Unilab products, Pepsi, PLDT, Selecta products, RFM Foods products, NutriAsia from Datu Puti, UFC products and Mang Tomas, Mister Donut, Dunkin Donuts, Mega Sardines, 555 Tuna, Century Tuna, Goldilocks, among others.

Last October 19, 2013, The Kantar Media revealed that BOSES Tinig P-Noy garnering in 10.2% pitted against ABS-CBN's I Dare You (12.1%) and GMA-7's Katipunan (8.2%). Meanwhile last October 20, also with 15.3% viewership against TV Patrol Weekend (14.6%) and 24 Oras Weekend (10.4%).

BOSES, one of the network's original concept programs which aired on Saturdays from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. and Sundays at 8 p.m. to 9 p.m. The Radio Philippines Network (RPN) DXKS-Surigao has launched recently a singing competition BOSES Tinig P-Noy to showcase talents from the different places in the province held at the Gaisano Capital Mall, this city fighting head to head in the double-digit-ratings game with ABS-CBN's and GMA-7's Saturday and Sunday primetime shows. A strong third contender and attracting more viewers who welcome RPN's quality programming alternative that is very different from the shows of the giant networks with more quality shows.

With its impressive launch, BOSES Tinig P-Noy completes a new trio of #1 shows on RPN's weekend lineup along with the MBA and ABL ranked its #1 on weekends. Every Saturday, Penpen de Sarapen as the #1 educational children show, Showbiz Ka! hosted by Pat-P Daza Planas and Nestor Torre as the showbiz talk show, The Simpsons as the #1 cartoons, Rafael Rosell's The Million Peso Money Drop also became the #1 show on its timeslot, wrestling fans of WWE Bottom Line, Pinapangako Mo hosted by Coney Reyes in the #1 primetime drama anthology, Roderick en Nova topbilled by Roderick Paulante and Nova Villa in the #1 sitcom and the #1 comedy gag show Champoy. And on Sunday, Nova starring Nora Aunor and Tirso Cruz III as the #1 drama series, the wrestling TV hit WWE SmackDown!, the musical variety show Superstar hosted by Angeline Quinto, has been consistently ranked the #1 show on its timeslot and Bayani Agbayani's Mister Kemis Bayani as the #1 sitcom.

The regional reality singing search aims to discover the singing prowess of potential talents coming from the 12 regions of the country where 12 AM radio stations of RPN-9 are located. It also aims to boost the tourism potential of the particular City and region where the winners come from. "Here we hope to bring about the best vocal rendition in perfect harmony and blending of voice without any accompaniment which is also less costly for any group of persons to join into, and for any recording company to produce," Rivera further added.

"Considering the fact that we were up against the giant shows, we are also very much happy in the ratings game," said RPN-9 president and CEO Robert T. Rivera and chairman Wilson Tieng. Contestants need not produce a minus one and bring any instruments like organ, piano and guitar as this is pure acapella in duet and trio.

A huge hit that it set a trend in talent shows on rival networks, all weekly winners will compete during the monthly contest and vie from the quarterly finals. The grand prize winners will also have a music recording contract, a talent management contract Talent9, voice and stage training, trophies, cash and other fabulous prizes.

Despite the ratings, to achieve against the giant networks on Saturday nights with the performance night and Sunday nights for the results voting night," he said. In fact, while people from The Kasama Network for the result of the ratings, advertisers win the commercial spots on BOSES Tinig P-Noy open for all ages in a form of duet and trio in a capella for the unique reality talent search singing in acappella hosted by roadshow hosts Center for Pop Coaches Aileen Papin and Anthony Castelo discover local talents. A national singing contest for young and talented artists and which would be staged by the 12 RPN 9 radio stations nationwide Radyo Ronda.

RPN-DXKS Station Manager Bienvenido Galeon, Jr. during the launching said that the semi-final winners for duet and trio categories will compete from among the winners of the 12 RPN branches stations nationwide for the grand finale this December and will have the chance to win a grand prize of P1 million pesos and other fabulous prizes open to all talented singers from 15 years old and above in audition.

He continued coming the weekend shows on RPN such as Showbiz Ka!, The Simpsons, the MBA and ABL basketball games, The Million Peso Money Drop, WWE Bottom Line, WWE SmackDown!, Pinapangako Mo, Aahat, Roderick en Nova, Champoy, Kwarta o Kahon, Mister Kemis Bayani, Superstar and Sunday's Big Event.

This can be viewed as a significant leap for RPN-9 shows that the network is indeed a strong third contender attracting more viewers for fresh programming alternative from the shows of the two giant networks.

A cappella is singing without any instrumental accompaniment. The singers can be heard using their natural and powerful voices. The competition focuses on a cappella for duet and trio to produce a harmonic melody with choreography because there would be no harmony to be created in solo a capella.

BOSES Tinig P-Noy has been creating since RPN-9 acquired the rights from Shine International. The acquisition placed the runner-up station at the forefront of the local TV network wars that BOSES Tinig P-Noy seasons have established all over the world explained is all contestants can form a duet and trio with the other contestants regardless of what group they came in with. Winners for the weekly, monthly and quarterly finals will qualify for the grand finals in Manila for the grand champion open a cappella duos and trios with members aged 15 and above in important star potential that will help Talent9 hone them into RPN's biggest idols, superstars and rank them among the hottest personalities in the industry as well.

The reality singing competition for a capella in the Philippines and homegrown talents will have the chance to shine a recording artists as the winners await over P1 million in cash and fabulous prizes through a talent management contract with RPN-9 through Talent9 and the music recording contract with Universal Records. This milestone is attributed to the strong performance of its Hollywood movie block, Korean novels, telenovelas, animes, World-Class Boxing matches, and the ABL basketball games.

The reality capella singing contest is one of RPN's station local programming. Catch the latest episodes of your fave series with the FUSE (Fresh from the US Episodes) campaign on RPN. It has brought the network's market in the canned hit shows like Survivor, Glee, The X-Files, The Vampire Diaries, New Girl, 24, The Walking Dead, Aahat, NCIS, Hell's Kitchen, Community, The Big Bang Theory and American Idol as well as the hit telenovelas Marimar and Rosalinda, and the popular Korean novelas are Can You Hear My Heart and Dear My Sister, as well as its sports programming for action-packed sports fans like the MBA (Metropolitan Basketball Association) and the ABL (ASEAN Basketball League) basketball, World-Class Boxing for the boxing matches, and WWE Bottom Line and WWE SmackDown! for wrestling fans. Part of this effort are shows like Superstar, The Million Peso Money Drop, Showbiz Ka!, Mister Kemis Bayani, Spin-A-Win, Kwarta o Kahon, Chibugan Na!, Penpen de Sarapen, Pinapangako Mo, Champoy, Roderick en Nova, Nora, Sana Kahit Minsan and Muling Pagmamahal increase a ratings.

Robert T. Rivera, the president and chief executive officer of RPN, told Inquirer Entertainment cited ABC's escalated efforts to strengthen the network's financial muscle to finance its programming, privatization and expansion plan. RPN gathered its friends from the press to celebrate its win and to unveil its new program slate.

They added that by investing Solar Entertainment to further enhance RPN's programming to be an alternative, ratings and sales as well as improve the broadcast network's coverage and signal strength throughout the country regarding the sale of the government-owned sequestered TV-radio station RPN for the tagline Kasama Ako! with its innovative and creative programming content that will give it the edge over other networks, at the same time guaranteeing the profits, revenues and income from its airtime.

To be part RPN Rewind, the first free online streaming of shows spearheaded by a network in the country, viewers can now watch the latest episodes of their favorite US programs as well telenovelas, koreanovelas, animes and RPN's local programs anytime via the internet. Shows currently available for viewing include foreign programs with its World-Class US Primetime in which popular programs are aired here just three weeks after their US telecast are Hell's Kitchen, Survivor, The X-Files, Community, New Girl, The Vampire Diaries, NCIS, Two and a Half Men, Glee, The Big Bang Theory and American Idol become a hits, WWE Bottom Line and WWE SmackDown!, and The Walking Dead as well as its local shows are Arangkada Balita, NewsWatch, Toda Mo TV, Masam Ratsa Live!, Justice Man, Tell the People, Champoy, Nora, Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo, Sana Kahit Minsan, Pinapangako Mo, Muling

Pagmamahal, Spin-A-Win, Roderick en Nova, Mister Kemis Bayani, Penpen de Sarapen, Kwarto Kahon, The Million Peso Money Drop, BOSES Tinig P-Noy, Oh Yes, it's Johnny!, Showbiz Ka!, Chibgan Na!, Superstar, MBA and ABL. You can also view in the popular hit telenovelas like Marimar and Rosalinda, the hit Koreanovelas are Can You Hear My Heart and Dear My Sister, and the Indian horror-thriller series Aahat.

Under the Media ng Bayan, this new unique program based on sales and ratings, RPN-9 winning the Best TV Station in the KBP Golden Dove Awards and the Anak TV Seal Awards and introduced to the media several new programs rolling out on the network in the broadcast media industry.

Based on media research group Kanar Media reports, RPN's audience share in an average of 17%, at the top ratings charts behind dominant television companies GMA Network, Inc. and ABS-CBN Corporation, which get an average of 45% and 38% respectively along with IBC (30%) and TV5 (22%) also grabbing the number 3 slot.

They noted that RPN-9 has significantly increased its viewership ratings and has established its position as a strong and certified number 3 in the country's Philippine television industry. This, they said, is evidenced by the rise of its shows like The Million Peso Money Drop, Pinapangko Mo, BOSES Tinig P-Noy, Roderick en Nova, Superstar, Mister Kemis Bayani, ABL and MBA as the top rating programs for primetime weekends.

RPN claims a new program slate described by chairman Wilson Tieng as an unrivaled suite of entertainment, news and public affairs and sports programs whose broad appeal crosses age, gender, and socio-economic class, middle-class and upper-class in upscale and mass audience. He said the network believes that there are audiences looking for alternatives programming there are markets out there with a broad repertoire of tastes and interests and with penchant for original. This is the audience to Kasamas wants to serve its multi-faceted menu. The government of PCGG for privatization, according to president Noyonoy Aquino III in PNoy administration.

From the benchmark of the longest-running sitcom John en Marsha which spawned any number of clones across all channels starring the comedy king Dolphy, Superstar which first brought the musical variety show on Philippine television hosted by the one and only superstar Nora Aunor and co-host German Moreno, Ang Bagong Kampeon is the reality singing contest hosted by Pilita Corrales and the late Bert 'Tawa' Marcelo produced the Asia's songbird Regine Velasquez, the drama anthology like German Moreno's Young Love, Sweet Love, the Filipino mini-series such as Malayo Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao, the classic soap opera Flordeluna starring rising star Janice de Belen, the top-rated sitcom Buddy en Sol top-billed by Eric Quizon and Redford White, Ang Panday which has been the local animation series, and Eat Bulaga!, the longest-running and top-rating noontime TV variety show with Tito Sotto, Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon. Also, the phenomenal of the trend-setting and pioneering Mexican telenovelas such as Marimar, Maria la del Barrio and Luz Clarita. A past hits of the US foreign canned shows such as MacGyver, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg and NYPD Blue. And now, RPN unleashes a fresh batch of groundbreaking shows on the Kasama Network spawned by some of the best creative teams in the network led by VP Licensing and Merchandising Kitchie Benedicto, Entertainment Division of Entertainment TV Head Eduardo Cojuangco, Jr. and for News & Public Affairs, by News Head Mariold Haber-Dunca.

Perci Intalan, head for creative and entertainment production of RPN Entertainment TV will boost RPN's ratings in programming formats to improve our audience share. Topping the new slate of first TV program including a list is the singing sensation as the reality search show BOSES Tinig P-Noy, a nationwide reality singing contest show which premiering the new season on November 16, Saturday at 9:15 p.m. and Sunday at 8:15 p.m. Hosted by the singers are Aileen Papin and Anthony Castelo with the judges are German Moreno, Pilita Corales and John Nite cited the BOSES Tinig P Noy duet and trio in Acappella as the biggest singing contest event ever in which five groups will compete in the quarterfinals.

Competing quarterfinalists under the Duet in Acappella category are Coleen Mangabat and Mhelrose Uy of Batac National High School, Batac City; Jasmine Santos and Alex Soller of Paoay National High School, Paoay Ilocos Norte; and Christopher Mendoza and Ian Mendoza of Badoc, Ilocos Norte.

For the Trio in Acappella category, the quarterfinalists are the groups of Johanna Miranda, Jasper Arizabal and Phoebe Faye de Guzman, all choir members of Alpha and Omega International Christian Ministries Inc. Ilocos Norte chapter; and the group of Gina Ventura, Christian Paul Torqueza and Erickson Paulo of Laoag City.

The quarterfinal winners for duet and trio categories will compete with the winners from all radio and TV stations of RPN-9 nationwide during the grand finals set on March 2014 in Metro Manila, he said that the grand finals winners will receive P1 million cash prize plus a talent management contract with RPN-9 thru Talent9 and a music recording contract with Polyeast Records.

Asia's pop superstar princess Angeline Quinto hosting her very own musical variety Superstar (Sunday 9:15 p.m.), our own musical production numbers cater to the audiences will perform with the songs in OPM history as the singer along with guests that range in performers for a night of music will showcase their talents while inviting different OPM artists for performances.

The musical performers singing their songs showcasing her singing prowess Quinto's singing and dancing capabilities boasts of its well-arranged musical numbers and medleys feature all kinds of songs and performed by the show with other guest singers and entertainers in the concert on TV for the stage allowing to explore their range while performing the current and golden hits. The singer will be joined in by co-hosts Rafael Rosell, musical director Jonathan Manalo, choreographer Georcelle Dapat-Sy, and director Erick Salud in Superstar. The musical variety show will also feature Streetboys as dance performers and a special guest co-host every week.

Another first is RPN's franchise of Endemol to producing the game show The Million Peso Money Drop, the local version of the worldwide game phenomenon, airing on Saturdays at 6 p.m., where contestants can win or lose, life-changing amounts of money in front of a audience.

The transfer of their bundles of money to the trap door entails only one minute or they can use the one-time quick change within the game. Quick change gives contestants a chance to change their answer for another 30 seconds. They can use the quick change only once for questions one to seven. The final question will give them the chance to take home whatever money they have left in the game.

Hosted by Rafael Rosell, with the million pesos right before the contestants' eyes at the start of the show. The money is theirs. Naturally, all contestants aspire to win and bring home the cash. But first, they must answer the multiple choice questions and bet their money will call lucky home viewers and the winner of P1 million peso cash prize. They can risk the cash in the trap door which they feel contains the correct answer. They can stop the clock in case there's still time left and they already finished answering the question. Then they can advance to the next question and get much closer to winning whatever is left of their one million pesos.

A longest-running and top-rating sitcom Roderick en Nova (Saturdays at 10 p.m.), top-billed by the two comedians of today's top stars Roderick Paulante (Roderick Montano) and Nova Villa (Nova Soriano), directed by Al Quinn.

On public service, hard-hittin broadcast journalist Ramon Tulfo provides the action in Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo (Fridays at 11:30 p.m.) as the public service program. On the other hand, Tado Jimenez and RJ Ledesma will host two outrageously radical TV treats: Toda Mo TV (Monda at 11:30 p.m.), a hilarious satire on serious political and social ewewnt in an irreverent and post-modern pseudo-investigative news program. Tell the People (Thursdays at 11:30 p.m.), hosted by multi-awarded broadcast journalist and news head Marigold Haber-Dunca through all the osbtacles to expose the bare facts of burning issues in the public affairs show tackles different sides of the issues, backed by firsthand information from the newsmakers themselves.

Adding to that line up are the new episodes and new seasons of US canned shows launched this month on RPN provide viewers with a World-Class US Primetime of their favorite programs:

Chef Gordon Ramsay's new season of reality cooking competition Hell's Kitchen (weekdays at 5 p.m.), to be followed at 5:45 p.m. are: NCIS (Monday), The Vampire Diaries (Tuesday), the latest season of 24 (Wednesday), the new episodes of Revolution (Thursday) and the phenomenal reality contest Survivor: Blood vs. Water (Friday), and also watching the brand new season of The Walking Dead (Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.), sitcom Community (Tuesdays 8:30 p.m.), the latest season of the comedy sitcom The Big Bang Theory (Thursdays at 7:30 p.m.) and new episode of Glee (Fridays 8:30 p.m.). In addition to the new show The Neighbors (Mondays at 7:30 p.m.). It is the TV network which regularly airs the Hollywood films from around the world in Sine Nueve, Saturday Night Playhouse and Sunday's Big Event.

Plus the station's other recent offerings with advertisers of teleserye ABS-CBN and GMA, the superhero animated series like Buzz Lightyear of Star Command (Saturdays at 9 a.m.), the primetime soap operas like a hit telenovela Rosalinda (weeknights 10 p.m.) starring the Mexican actress Thalia and actor Fernando Carrillo, the Koreanovela Dear My Sister (weeknights 10:30 p.m.), top-billed by Jang Mi-in-ae, Ryu Tae-joon and Choi Chang-yeob, and the first-ever Bollywood product on TV from India's thriving showbiz industry through an Indian horror-thriller Tagalized series Aahat (Saturdays at 8:45 p.m.) featuring the best of Bollywood stars in India. Of course, RPN also airs the ABL and MBA basketball which has acquired new luster with the network, and will also carry the SEA Games. Also watch out for the live telecast of the Miss Universe 2013 beauty pageant in December 1.

German Moreno gives support to Tieng's new business venture

November 16, 2013

"This year, sequestered TV station RPN-9 will be celebrating its 53rd anniversary, member Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP). We have been innovating. Since the start of the year we've actually introduced a series of TV programming initiatives and we are proud to say that these initiatives have actually been very successful for us in economic growth and development. Join the nation and all the members of the Philippine television and radio broadcasting and telecommunications industry of extending to RPN management and staff out best wishes on the occasion of the blessing and inauguration in the audience reception.

I would like to congratulate and staff of RPN-9 for their continuing effort in upgrading the state of the country's television industry with RPN's transmitter tower at 100-kilowatt Harris Transmitter in 500-foot high TV tower.

Commitment: To the Filipino people so that more and more viewers can share in the distinctive broad range of programming that RPN offers with broadcasting quality. To our partners in the advertising industry, so that they are reaching out to a greater number of people. Loyal employees, artists, talents, stars, superstars and co-members, so that they may look forward to a future with The Kasama Network for the family with the wiring and integration of a truck-mounted Master Control Room (MCR). We've been talking about cross promotions with other channels, billboards, barangay campaigns and player outreach programs.

A refurbished OB Van, ENG Van and SNG Van ordered a brand-new P120 million OB Van, ENG Van and SNG Van, with an eight to 10-camera capacity. From analog cameras, using high definition cameras. From ambient microphones, we'll be upgrading to eight microphones and a boom. There are plans to invest in a skycamera and a lipstick camera to get extraordinary shots from over the court and right at the hoop.

For this, the following were used: ENG and SNG vans, manned cameras, goal cams, Zplay slomo machine. For the Philippine telecast over The Kasama Network RPN, with local commentary, the following were deployed: Five commentary positions, OB vans and five cameras including wireless, the satellite vans and the TVRO antennae for the international transmission in their collective goal to promote and market the pro league on re-affirming the PBA's status as the prime sports-entertainment package in the land.

Matches will be aired over Channel 9 and although it has a high-definition OB van use, RPN has ordered a later-model, custom-made van from the US to better bring quality images to viewers. We'll put the MBA in news programs on radio and TV and players will appear as guests on different RPN shows.

German Moreno, known as Kuya Germs partner of chairman Wilson Tieng who a few months ago added the RPN television network to his business empire, lent full support to her man and graced the Annual MBA Championship held Friday evening at the Glorietta Activity Center in Makati, along with prominent entertainment personalities. The 10 MBA teams took their pick from among a field of over 30 promising rookies who hope to see action in the MBA 2013-14 season in the Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA) from RPN in the upcoming days raises the bar of Kasama viewing to heights with its new line-up of shows to bring in state-of-the-art equipment to enhance its coverage of the games ordered all the equipment like the HD (high-definition) cameras, HD OB vans.

As RPN, under new management, features MBA and ABL games and special events as part of the network's aggressive reprogramming in a bid to challenge giant rivals in the industry. Regular programming of MBA games over RPN starts as the MBA opens its transition tournament —with the MBA International Cup at the SM Mall of Asia Arena.

The Kasama Network has acquired the rights to air the Philippines' world-renowned professional basketball league. The MBA games will air on primetime TV on RPN starting on airing the schedule is 4 p.m.-6 p.m. on Saturday and 2:30 p.m.-6:30 p.m. on Sunday. Also featuring the ABL games on weekends from 9:30-11:30 a.m. on Saturdays and 10 a.m.-12 noon on Sundays. With its new primetime schedule, the ABL and MBA basketball games will effectively be the core of RPN's programming fans. With the action-packed sports programs including the big-time boxing matches World-Class Boxing (Sundays at 12 noon) and the wrestling fans of WWE Bottom Line (Saturday nights at 6:45 p.m.) and WWE SmackDown! (Sundays at 7:30 p.m.). RPN also plays home to the biggest and top-rating American TV shows, animes, telenovelas and Koreanovelas in your favorite shows bring a fresh brand of entertainment and excitement to televiewing.

The network that aside from ABL and MBA games which into more exciting and viewing, RPN-9 will reinvent its more local shows are Roderick en Nova, Superstar, The Million Peso Money Drop, Mister Kemis Bayani, Kwarta o Kahon, Nora, Pinapangako Mo, Muling Pagmamahal, Sana Kahit Minsan, Penpen de Sarapen, Oh Yes!, it's Johnny!, Showbiz Ka!, Chibugan Na! and introduce new program concepts develop stable of homegrown talents of singers through BOSES Tinig P-Noy, a reality search show which now enjoys a nationwide singing contest for superstars.

Also, The Kasama Network airing the hit foreign canned series in the US via World-Class US Primetime campaign. Featuring the popular and top-rated Hollywood TV shows with its new episodes and new seasons of the series become a hit by bringing into a local television for more series hits like Glee, Hell's Kitchen, Community, New Girl, NCIS, The Walking Dead, Survivor, The Big Bang Theory, American Idol, The Neighbors, Two and a Half Men, Revolution, Ally McBeal, 24, The X-Files, America's Next Top Model and The Vampire Diaries. The Hollywood blockbuster movies via the movie blocks are Sine Nueve, Saturday Night Playhouse and Sunday's Big Event.

Under Tieng, RPN gearing itself to challenging the supremacy of the two dominant networks ABS-CBN and GMA along with IBC and TV5 grabbed the number 3 spot. He has allocated millions to maximize the signal quality and reach of RPN and upgrade its technical facilities. He is expected to allocate as much for its programming and the government in privatization of the network through PCGG.

Wilson has acquired a key asset for the big job ahead. Together with his team led by Robert T. Rivera, the network's president and CEO; Marigold Haber-Dunca, the news and public affairs head; Eduardo Cojuangco, Jr., the entertainment production head; Olivia Limpe-Aw, the provincial network operations, Willy Y. Tieng, the local production head; Deedee Siytangco, the VP for finance and regional network programming Edith del Rosario.

And of course, there's always Mr. Rivera who is all-out in supporting and inspiring Wilson and in sharing with the telecom magnate turned TV owner her valuable showbiz knowledge and experience. He'd rather be full-time to their people are hoping she will be convinced to face the cameras once more and have a show at RPN. With a musical variety shows, drama anthology, soap operas, gag shows, sitcoms, lifestyle magazine show, children shows, game shows and reality shows in above. The stars, idols, talents and superstars came out to grace this launch.

RPN-DXXX launches new programs

January 16, 2014

Solar buys RPN from the government. All the foreign canned shows like Glee, American Idol, Community, NCIS, Revolution, The Neighbors, America's Next Top Model, The Walking Dead, New Girl, The Vampire Diaries, The Big Bang Theory, 2 Broke Girls and Beauty and the Beast with a hit telenovela Marimar and Rosalinda, Koreanovela hits like He's Beautiful, Can

You Hear My Heart and My Dear Sister, airing on RPN's primetime shows such as the ABL and MBA basketball games, singing reality show Boses Tinig Pinoy, sitcoms Mister Kemis Bayani and Roderick en Nova, noontime show Chibugan Na!, primetime game show The Million Peso Money Drop, musical variety show Superstar and a gag show Champoy as well as its news programs Arangkada Balita and NewsWatch.

RPN-DXXX-Zamboanga officially launched new programs over the radio and via internet which started yesterday. RPN-DXXX Station Manager Jerry Lacastesantos said the new programs will hook up DWIZ-Manila from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. featuring the popular and the veteran radio broadcasters and commentators Rey Langit and hard-hitting Ramon Tulfo.

This will be followed by Zamboanga Tiempo Ya from 7pm to 9pm hosted by local veteran announcer Philip Abuy back-to-back with Mon Follosco as co-host and the Noche De Ronda (The original) hosted by Jerry Lacastesantos from 9pm to 11pm.

Zamboanga Tiempo Ya (Saturday Edition) from 7pm to 9pm is being hosted by Arnold "Ronda Ace" Francisco and Ric "Ronda Spade" Gamao featuring news reports on local occurrence.

Lacastesantos said the set-up is being applied to all provincial 15 radio stations nationwide and can also be seen via internet by logging DXXX/Channel 5-Zamboanga City, with all local programs can be seen via u-stream from 7pm to 11 o'clock in the evening.

RPN-DXXX-Zamboanga got its fame during the 1976 7.9 magnitude earthquake that devastated major parts of the Zamboanga Peninsula with Pagadian City as the worst hit.

With that incident, Noche De Ronda emerged with the late founding father and former councilor Eddie Rodriguez as broadcaster and commentator and still the longest serving nightly public affairs radio programs in the entire Mindanao.

Carolínians top DyKC singing competition

February 2, 2014

CEBU, Philippines - RPN DyKC Cebu has successfully held its Boses Tinig Pinoy Search in Acapella (Duet and Trio) last Jan. 17 at J. Centre Mall in Mandaue City with Manila celebrities Mr. Anthony Castelo, John Nite, Aileen Papin and Pilita Corales, and German Moreno as Kuya Germs as hosts.

The tandem of Jose Thaddeus Roble III and Sheena Luz Comabig topped the Duet contest while the group of Ian Mark Corales, Driane Paul Saberon and Nina Claire Rivaca was the best Trio. All of them are from the University of San Carlos. The winners captivated the audience and judges with their voice quality, stage performance, timing and choreography as well as their perfect selection of songs.

They will represent RPN DyKC Cebu in the national contest which will be participated by winners from the other 11 RPN Radio Stations nationwide. The winners of Boses Tinig Pinoy Quarterly Finals were chosen by a panel of judges composed of Coach Jay Unchuan – The Ultimate Celebrity Vocal Coach of Center for Pop, Kirk Philip Tarona of Montebello Villa Hotel, Nino Matillano of Dept. of Education, Jeffrey Comillas – Band Member and Ariel Libo-on – formerly a CCTN Ch.47 Talent.

Present during the Boses Quarterly Finals were RPN Manila Officials, Regional Operations Manager – Mr. Nestor Sandoval, Treasury Manager – Mrs. Aida Cabrera and Engineering Manager – Eng'r. Rene Allarde, and RPN DXKP Pagadian Station Manager Mr. Pangan.

Boses Tinig Pinoy, the nationwide search for the best in Acapella singing competition, is the brainchild of RPN President and CEO, Robert T. Rivera to develop young and talented individuals, to help them excel in their talent in music. The grand winners which will be known come March 19 at the SM Aura will win a recording contract with Universal/Polyeast Records among other prizes.

Event: RPN Launches 'BosesTinig Pinoy Do it in Acapela'

Submitted by Edith Colmo on Mon, 02/10/2014

First in the country, that a nationwide singing contest without any musical accompaniment is launched by the Radio Philippines Network (RPN), The Kasma Network dubbed BOSES TINIG PINOY DO IT IN ACAPELA.

To ensure that the show reaches a wider audience, the RPN executive added that the network is also currently improving its signal with a concept of RPN president Robert Rivera, who himself is music-minded, offers opportunity to the aspiring contestants in the provinces, which usually he said is done in Manila.

BOSES acapela contest are in three levels: Provincial level, and the launching over the weekend was held at Robinsons Place-Bacolod. The next level is regional, to be held in Cagayan de Oro on February 22, and the national level during which participants are from the regional winners, to be held in Manila on March 18.

Buddy Ferrer, station manager of RPN TV 8 and DYKB Bacolod said, the acapela contest categories are duet and trio. Contestants age 15 to 35 years old, male or female, and regardless of physical status.

Prizes for the provincial category: P3,000.00 for trio; and P2,000.00 for duet; and scholarship grant courtesy of Pop Music Philippines, to which winners will sign a year contract as recording artists.

Winners have chances to be exposed over the 12 TV and radio stations nationwide of RPN. The show continues to be aired live on Saturdays 8:45pm and Sundays 7:30pm on RPN Channel 9.

DTH station buys terrestrial TV station

April 14, 2014

MANILA — RPN-9 owned and chairman Wilson Tieng has the government-owned sequestered media network to be the No.3 terrestrial network with Robert Rivera, the president and CEO of the network, for about $83 million in effort of privatization as the country's premier sports and action station.

Tieng going with Dream Broadcasting, the country's first digital direct-to-home TV company; the buy-in is a strategic move to push Dream and Solar content provider to take over full management and programming control aimed at establishing a niche for itself in the upscale TV market to make RPN (VHF Channel 9), a major player in the network war dominated by ABS-CBN, owned by the Lopez family, and GMA Network, owned by the Gozun, Duavit and Jimenez families.

Tieng's family owned of Solar Entertainment about the block-timer of the station. The Tieng's Solar is the joint venture to assume the functions of managing, providing programming content and marketing for Channel 9. In exchange, RPN would get P100 million in "goodwill" money.

The new RPN is expected to target the burgeoning middle- to upper-class youth market. ABS-CBN and GMA focus on income markets, which lap up soap operas and fantasy series, drama anthologies, talk shows, local comedies, variety shows, game shows, reality shows, Japanese animes, Mexican telenovelas and Asian dramas from Korea and Taiwan. The younger audience has abandoned these for cable TV.

RPN-9 may win audience with foreign shows, including MacGyver, NYPD Blue, The Walking Dead, Community, Revolution, Mission: Impossible, American Idol, Survivor, NCIS, Law & Order and Chicago Fire, a strong of telenovelas including Mar de Amor and Porque el Amor Manda and Korean novelas Wonderful Life and Dear My Sister, and a growing base of locally produced shows as well as its sports programming fans with the MBA and KBL basketball games, boxing matches are Pacquiao Flashback and World-Class Boxing, the biggest mixed-martial arts (MMA) organization UFC: Ultimate Fighting Championship and the wrestling fans of WWE Bottom Line and WWE SmackDown!. RPN has 15 stations nationwide and more than 100 cable TV affiliates.

The Kasama stars of the sports and action network RPN for the Kasama network.

Robert T. Rivera, president and CEO of RPN-9 envisioned a network sequestered by the new government that will not only fill in the gap brought about by the localization of the industry but will also eventually become the leading upscale television network boast of innovative and sports and action programming is destined to be the upscale viewers access to world class selections of movies and television series on its roster of shows from here and abroad.

RPN, meanwhile, had a good mix of both local shows and foreign hits in my opinion, RPN could well have been the biggest competition in terms of programming structure and content of international market to make the fans of foreign shows on RPN keepst upper and with the right combination of local and imported shows that format assures wider viewership shows the most number of American imports, some of the chartbusters like MacGyver, NYPD Blue, The Walking Dead, Community, The Walking Dead, Revolution, Law and Order, NCIS, Chicago Fire, Glee, American Idol, Survivor, Mission: Impossible and The X-Files went on by airing shows from Solar Entertainment also bought airtime to air as well.

They began to buy airtime to interested parties like the KBL and MBA basketball as well as music shows and Value Vision and Home Shopping Network advertisers infomercials.

An attempt made to reclaim its glory days by buying the rights to produce Boses Ting Pinoy as well as its original hit shows like the local game shows The Million Peso Money Drop and The Price is Right, Superstar, Kemis: Kay Bayani Ako, Pinapangako Mo, John en Nova, Showbiz Ka!, etc.

New blockbusters from RPN on Philippine TV primetime

June 1, 2014

In the early to mid-1990's, Marimar was a household name when the hit TV series that aired on RPN-9 in the Philippines, took television primetime by storm. The Latina star, Thalia, set a trend among foreign telenovelas dubbed in Tagalog as ratings went through the roof. By the mid-2000's, so called Koreanovelas and which Latinovelas on primetime TV, heavily competing with Filipino-produced telenovelas in ratings.

It will also be supported by an equally intriguing and entertaining bunch made up of 24: Live Another Day, Survivor, Law & Order, Community, Revolution, American Idol and The Walking Dead will show new seasons featuring all new and exciting episodes never before seen on local Philippine television.

Revived the glory days once again, a third player in Philippine television will launch its new primetime programs on the free-TV channel of The Kasama Network RPN-9, starting June 1st.

Where everything you see is local production — save for a couple of Mexican and Korean telenovelas that are even dubbed in Tagalog — most shows on Channel 13 in the past were foreign canned programs (the most popular in the US): MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg, Chicago Hope, The Practice, etc. Toidas, the network's prime market was from A-B-C-D-E crowd. But Channel 13 exactly lacking in good local productions in those days. The few that it had were among the best produced and starting in this series, I will go down memory lane and share with you my favorite local shows on RPN-9 from the past to the present.

The Kasama network will deliver a new telenovelas in the primetime slots with the Filipino-dubbed Mexican content. The drama-love story Mentir Para Vivir at 5:30 p.m, an ultimate Thalia telenovela Marimar at 6 p.m. and a romantic dramedy Porque el Amor Manda at 10 p.m. which will air from Monday to Friday nights. Together with the top-rated Korean drama became the huge success Dear My Sister which will air from Monday to Friday at 10:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. Mentir Para Vivir, a million-dollar per production serial drama, will set the pace for new telenovelas in Philippine primetime television. In photo is the main cast of the Mexican series David Zepeda and Mayrín Villanueva with Altair Jarabo and Diego Olivera.

Robert T. Rivera, RPN's president and CEO, promises an exciting rollout for TV 9's evening primetime slots. "This will change the TV landscape while we see ourselves like David battling against Goliaths on Philippine television primetime programming," said Rivera.

"You know the rest of that story," Rivera adds confidently.

RPN President and CEO Robert T. Rivera

Mr. Rivera revealed that they at RPN-9 are launch in negotiations with a digital venture development firm to set-up their strategic digital content platform to support their offline efforts.

In terms of news setup, the 6:30 p.m. news is Arangkada Balita concentrates on the masses of C-D-E while our 11 p.m. newscast is NewsWatch cater to an A-B-C crowd for serve more upscale viewers.

It will led televiewers to watch regularly other RPN's quality shows, the network will premiere in June as two of the hottest series now sweeping the United States. The two blockbusters are action-packed hits Smallville and The Big Bang Theory airing on local Philippine primetime television.

Smallville

Premieres last May 31, every Saturday at 8:30 p.m. The critically-acclaimed television series in the US com bined the mix of superhero, drama, sci-fi and fantasy introducing other DC comic book superheroes and villains. Tom Welling portrays Clark Kent, a young man with superhuman abilities, who tries to find his place in life after discovering he is an alien. He uses his abilities to help others in danger.

Meanwhile, Bong Revilla Cinema sa RPN (Saturdays 10:45 p.m.) featuring the local Pinoy action blockbuster movies from the box-office action star Bong Revilla and the Sunday night movie block Sunday's Big Event (Sundays 10 p.m.) highlighting Hollywood movies, specials and concerts.

Love, romance on RPN's Kasamang Telenovela

June 2, 2014

Mexican 'telenovelas' on RPN-9

RPN-9 would really have to buy some big giants to bump of ABSCBN and GMA as well as IBC and TV5 also still the number 3 spot in the ratings game.

It has made the importing foreign shows, Channel 9 may go into exporting local shows struck one of the best deals in the entertainment industry when it won the rights to air Bong Revilla movies. Prior to that, it was rare to see Revilla films on the small screen. But Channel 9 gave FPJ fans a treat by showing movies of the Action Star on TV every Saturday night for many years. "For exportable local programs. It is planning to air both canned and locally produced programs on RPN-9 as part of the block-time deal."

It has available to share the ratongs. Most of a favorite shows televisited on RPN. The Simpsons, MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg, Chicago Hope and The Practice for those foreign hits. RPN also brought us the Mexican actress Thalia known as Marimar and Maria la del Barrio telenovela as well as the anime series Dragon Ball Z.

Since the first-ever primetime telenovela La Traidora in 1994 starting at 6:30 p.m. From the past years since 1996, the very first telenovela shown here was La Traidora at 1:30 p.m.

weekdays. Marimar was the second one, shown at 6:30 p.m. Then at the months ago, RPN-9 added more telenovelas in their primetime block (usually 3 telenovelas every evening) beginning with Acapulco, Cuerpo Y' Alma at 5:30 p.m. and before Thalia's Marimar at 6:30 p.m., then Simplemente Maria airs at 7 p.m. When Acapulco ended, it was replaced by Luz Clarita, Marimar was replaced by Maria la del Barrio starring the Mexican actress Thalia, and when Simplemente Maria was replaced by La Duena.

RPN-9 will make an announcement regarding this new programs. "RPN trust that the primetime audience in the homegrown and powerhouse programming standards, concentrated fantaserye, teleserye, telenovela and Koreanovela from being other networks."

To join the network wars once again, RPN has branches a show to watch preparation of Solar Entertainment owned by Wilson Tieng who is now the chairman of RPN. The retrieved artists as they highlight many local shows to air this station with the big name artists. Solar to grow viewership of RPN-9 where Channels 2 and 7 led the performance of Philippine television programs.

. "Telenovelas are the "in" shows nowadays, riding high on the popularity of the classic phenomenal Mari Mar. Now, The Kasama Network RPN-9 brings you two more telenovelas that tell of life's greatest mystery and love.

Kasamang Telenovela kicked up at 5:30 p.m. from Mondays through Fridays with Mentir Para Vivir. Mayrín Villanueva as Oriana Caligaris de Falcón and David Zepeda as Ricardo Sánchez Bretón star as the protagonists, while Altair Jarabo, Leticia Perdigón and Diego Olivera star as the main antagonists.

Porque el Amor Manda airs at 10 to 10:30 p.m. from Monday to Friday. Top-billed by Fernando Colunga and Blanca Soto. Jesus is a really nice guy; he is always smiling, caring and looking at the bright side of life. He works as a pizza delivery guy, and at a restaurant's kitchen, too. He also studies administration at night. He arrived in Chicago six years ago when he left his hometown, Monterrey, after ending a tormenting relationship with Veronica, who suffocated him with her obsessive order. When they broke up, he decided to change of environment and left the city, chasing the American dream.

THE RPN OF BROADCASTING

In the years of the government-sequestered network, RPN-9 had a reputation for the station with the most balanced programming as attested by the trophies it received at the annual Citizen's Award for Television handed by the Citizen's Council for Mass Media headed by Conchitina Hechanova Baizas.

It would also win the same honors at the Patas (Philippine Academy of Television Arts and Sciences) Awards, an annual industry event to give television artists, performers and technicians the recognition they so deserved for their outstanding works in the various television formats.

Through the year of the privatization of PCGG, RPN has risen back to life. And it is inching into the core of local broadcasting which is now dominated by two warring giants, ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

"Let them quarrel," Wilson Tieng, chairman of RPN, declared last week during a recent press conference gathering at the Rembrandt Hotel ballroom. "RPN is keeping focused on providing the Filipino public with only the best entertainment - on American TV, and now more than ever, by Filipino talent."

The statement has thrown my memory back to my college days when I did a paper on balanced programming in one of my broadcasting courses and an executive of the almost same thing. Ratings as a bid deal that RPN could lay claim their importance in broadcasting on the basis of critical notices. It had, in fact, the most credible newscast hailed by critics as the best among the lot.

These days, the rules of the game have changed. What matters more now are the percentages of audience share a show and a network can claim. And for this alone, broadcasting in the country has degenerated into a silly competition for ratings.

It's good to hear Tieng and the rest of RPN management declaring that steering the network in that direction. RPN is getting the prized advertising spots now being wrestled by other networks, but more sensible and more educated television audiences are beginning to understand what broadcasting is really all about. It is about money, and is it about rating. It is about relationships between the network and the audience.

History Edit

Since the granting of its broadcasting franchise in 1960, RPN has performed as a major player and has been recognized as an innovative pace-setter in the country's broadcast industry.

The Network has made its mark in Philippine radio/TV history with its string of innovations and achievements which include: The introduction of state-of-the-art superior color transmission dubbed “Accucolor” in 1969. The first remote color transmissions with the latest Outside Broadcast (OB) Van in the country.

The first nationwide TV broadcasts via domestic satellite. The longest running top-rating TV series in the 70’s such as John en Marsha and Superstar.

The production of critically acclaimed, distinctly Filipino mini-series like Malayo Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao and Boracay.

The first record-breaking half-hour daily serial, Marimar – RPN’s “programming coup” in 1996 that dislodged the top two TV networks’ programs in the 6pm timeslot.

Is RPN-9 Destined to Return?

August 4, 2014

The RPN name and logo, in which Solar Television took full control of the network's airtime. (Logo courtesy of the Radio Philippines Network)

All eyes are on Channel 9 and a possible return to the RPN name. While become the new facilities of RPN Media Center in Shaw Boulevard or Boni Avenue, Mandaluyong City.

On July 21, The Kasama Network decided to reduce World-Class US Primetime (currently airing the US TV shows like 24: Live Another Day, Community, American Idol, Survivor and Smallville) in favor fo more local primetime shows, including telenovelas, Asian dramas, animes, Hollywood and Pinoy movies, and sports programs. For its news programs renained the network as Arangkada Balita (early evening), NewsWatch (late evening), RPN News Break(news update) and Arangkada Balita Weekend (weekend midnight).

In a related development, Media Newser Philippines also reported through a network insider that News9, the news department of the original Radio Philippines Network, will also be revived, with a target launch slated for the last quarter of 2014. The report came after Ramon Ang of San Miguel Corporation acquired RPN's stake from Solar Entertainment. Then starting August 16, cartoons and educational programs will take over RPN's weekend morning programming. Kids Weekend will feature the return of Sesame Street to Philippine television, as well as other memorable cartoons such as the Care Bears, Strawberry Shortcake, Batman and the DC Comics Universe, and Pokemon.

With all these developments, does this mean the old Radio Philippines Network name will return on the air? Yes, will this lead to an even bigger plan.

Let's face it, Channel 9 is and will always be known as RPN-9. From C/S 9, Solar TV and ETC in its history. RPN has been an iconic brand on Philippine television, and through good times and bad, the network always provided a great show for its viewers. Channel 9 is indeed an odd-job broadcaster for 54 years.

More importantly, with the possibility of bringing back the RPN name on air seems certain. Even the revival of the long-running newscast NewsWatch is bound to happen.

But there is one problem. Ramon Ang recently acquired a 30% stake of GMA Network, which means that he now has two stations in his watch. According to Media Newser Philippines, a merger between GMA and Solar News is inevitable, unless Ang gives up partial ownership of Channel 9.

Ang's ownership of both networks will certainly affect the fortunes of both parties. Since GMA News and Public Affairs is the more recognizable and more credible of the two, they will be more than happy to absorb Solar News into their department. And as far as viewers are concerned, Solar News remains an unproven commodity even after three years of continuous operation.

Then again, these are all possibilities and might be subject to change in the near future. It is clear that the sun is definitely setting on Channel 9's latest incarnation. As the 'Solar' name is quietly being retired from the brand, a new era in the history of the Radio Philippines Network is about to take place.

Their best years were during the Marcos years, prior to the infamous sequestration. Once they were sequestered by Cory Aquino's government, things went downhill, although the likes of Battle of the Brains, Penpen de Sarapen, NewsWatch, Marimar and Kwarta o Kahon kept them relevant. When the era with Superstar, Eat Bulaga, Batibot and John en Marsha remains RPN's best.

I wonder if the comebacking RPN will still be under the government as a sequestered station. The government only has minority ownership. Halos privately owned na ang RPN. That has been the case since Solar acquired much of stake along with other private entities.

Okay, I hope RPN comes up with better programming.

It's so interesting to know that these kiddie programs will return on airwaves esp. Sesame Street, Pokemon and Care Bears as these shows became part of my elementary life. :-)

Ito po ang Nationwide TV Ratings noong July 2014 , ayon sa AGB Nielsen.

1. ABS-CBN = 33.9%
2. GMA = 33.4%
3. IBC = 30.7%
3. RPN = 21.9%
3. TV5 = 11.5%
4. PTV = 11.0%
5. IBC News Network = 10.4%
6. GMA News TV = 3.4%
7. ABS-CBN Sports+ Action = 1.5%
8. Aksyon TV = 1.1%
9. Solar News Channel = 0.2%

Mukhang ramdam na nga ang possible merger ng 2 networks under Ang's umbrella. Alalahanin lang ni Ang: may AM stations ang RPN na palugi din yata.

Ito po ang Nationwide TV Ratings noong July 2014 , ayon sa AGB Nielsen.

Based on the Philippine history of televisio, RPN-9 was the original number 1 TV stations from 1960's to 1990's. Headed by their great shows like John en Marsha, Superstar, Ang Bagong Kampeon, Buddy en Sol, Young Love, Sweet Love, Flordeluna, Marimar, Maria la del Barrio, Luz Clarita, Arangkada Balita, Newswatch and Eat Bulaga, anime 1st come from them Dragon Ball, Ben 10, Voltes 5. If channel will become RPN-9 for sure many will support it, so bring back to Channel 9 cause we miss it so much.

Actually that network, along with BBC and IBC, was controlled by the cronies of Marcos, so competition between the three networks was never a problem. Mapupunta naman kasi at the time ang earnings ng tatlong istasyon sa mga kaibigan ni Marcos. After all, they didn't care who's No.1 between them.

Once RPN was sequestered, however, their fortunes gradually fell, although the presence of MariMar in the mid-90s briefly gave them life. Pero the ownership of the government hurt RPN, and ite once Solar acquired majority ownership and subsequently of RPN name on-air.

But this time, when RPN-9 and IBC-13 now recently dominated the TV landscape as well, and still ranks the No.3 slot in the ratings game in terms of earning competition, behind the three networks.

Sana totoo na talaga ay magbabalik ang RPN-9 will all new and great TV shows. Sana I revive ulit nila ang Battle of the Brains, Young Love, Sweet Love, Newswatch, Arangkada Balita, even Buddy en Sol isama na rin nila ang Thalía telenovela coz Thalía made mark and history in Philippine television, plus lagyan din ng sports shows, sana could change the culture of philippine television and more on soap opera ang palabas.

Revive RPN, but not the old shows you were suggesting. Basta yung Arangkada Balita and NewsWatch are the anchor of RPN's news programs pwede nila, tapos some new shows to boot. Just confuse kelan po start na babalik na sa channel 9 ang RPN-9 just asking lang po.

How about Boses Tinig Pinoy could it be that radio show could be air on national television? AFAIK, all local shows on 9 are currently produced by Solar. The RPN name remains inactive on air, even though it is the official name of the network, and they have to do with the production of Solar's shows.

Starting August 23, RPN and RPN News and Public Affairs will be the new name of the channel's news organization. Wilson Tieng has reportedly his stakes in the channel. With the intense competition among the major networks, the best that they can do for now is to establish a niche following, then they can starting thinking of expanding their programming.

The Kasama Network turns into 9TV

Published: Wed, August 13, 2014

Starting on August 23 (Saturday), The Kasama Network will officially change its name to 9TV, according to a statement issued by the organization on Wednesday (August 13).

This marks the beginning of the channel's thrust to reach a wider audience and to strengthen its presence on Philippines free TV network RPN 9.

As a major player in the Philippine TV industry, 9TV will continue to focus its programming on providing news and information, entertainment and sports programs while beefing up not only primetime programming, but also beef up its weekend programming to cater to more viewers.

Similarly, the RPN News and Public Affairs organization will then be known as 9News. Congrat's hoping na, eto po simula ng pagiging competitive ng channel 9 by 9TV now, gaya ng RPN-9 dati. All the programs and personnel will remain the same. Only the brand name will change. Another Free TV Channel for competition.

"The network will retain its objectives and values," the statement said. "9TV will continue making its mark in developing an informed and inspired public, while also broadening its appeal to the free TV audience. 9News will continue to be the credible and consistent source of news and information, offering News You Can Use and back-to-basics journalism."

9TV will be seen in the following free channels:

- RPN 9 in Metro Manila, Cebu, and Davao
- RPN 5 in Zamboanga
- RPN 12 in Baguio
- RPN 8 in Bacolod

It will also be carried by over 160 cable operators nationwide, among them:

- Sky Cable Channel 14 in Metro Manila
- Sky Cable Channel 6 in Cebu, Davao, Bacolod, Iloilo, and Baguio
- Destiny Channel 14
- Signal Channel 10
- Cablelink Channel 14

Starting August 23, the RPN News website will also change its address from its current www.rpnmnews.com to www.9news.ph. Its Twitter account will become @9newsph and Facebook account will be www.facebook.com/9newsph.

RPN-9 renamed as 9TV

August 20, 2014

RPN News and Public Affairs, along with RPN-9, will officially become 9News and 9TV, respectively. The change will take effect on August 23. (Logo courtesy of 9News)

Channel 9 on Philippine free TV has a new name.

On August 23, RPN-9 will officially rename themselves as 9TV, leaving behind its iconic 'sun' logo and blue and yellow scheme in favor of a more generic blue and red branding. In addition, RPN News and Public Affairs organization will change their name to 9News which is under Media ng Bayan.

The announcement was first made on August 13 through a Twitter post of 9News senior anchor Jing Magsaysay. According to the said statement, the network's rebrand 'marks the beginning of the channel's thrust to reach a wider audience and to strengthen its presence on free TV RPN-9.

Other than the brand change, the staff, objectives and values, and programming will be retained. However, the previously announced Kids Weekend, originally slated to premiere last August 16, will now be launched this Saturday, alongside other programs aimed towards a bigger audience.

The seeds of Channel 9's rebrand were first sown in November 2013, when Ramon Ang acquired Solar News and a stake on RPN-9 from Solar Entertainment. Soon after, SNC and ETC traded channels, with SNC moving to UHF TV and ETC to SBN-21.

Then in late July and early August, news programs of Arangkada Balita and NewsWatch, while the 'sun' logo and RPN News signage were taken the network's studios in Broadcast City. And in a sign of things to come, all reporters of the said network are now required to use the 9News name after every report. When 9TV begins programming, the reporters will say: (name of reporter), 9News.

To reach a wider audience share and to strengthen its presence on 9TV is to have a live sports event like airing the KBL and MBA basketball in future back to RPN 9, airing boxing events live especially Manny Pacquiao, airing some foreign movies as like as TV5 and GMA-7 whether dub in Filipino, airing some imported in the local game shows and reality shows.

That said, the rebrand of the RPN-9 to 9TV as The Kasama Network will officially mark the partnership of Solar Entertainment's decade-long relationship with RPN. Solar was essential in privatizing RPN after two decades of government sequestration, but the finances also led to their sale of RPN to Ramon Ang, who promptly changed the direction of Channel 9. This Saturday will mark a new era in Channel 9's storied yet tumultuous history. And for 9TV, it is time to start fresh.

Ang istasyon ng RPN Channel 9 ay dapat munang kailangan na inilipat sa bagong studios at headquarters ang may bagong RPN Media Center dito sa Panay Avenue, Quezon City ay tumungo agad sa bagong pasilidad sa wakas at puwedeng pagsamanta munang ibinalik namin ang istasyon ng RPN at dapat munang magbalik sa ere hanggang ngayon.

That will only happen once they decided to rebrand again as RPN. For now, tiis-tiis muna sa mga newscast in with 9TV, not to mention those talk shows and kids' programs. And besides, entertainment networks sa free TV ngayon. Remember, in the later years of RPN-9, they compete against bigger entertainment channels like ABS-CBN and GMA as well as TV5 and IBC-13. You can compete these channels alone for entertainment, basta kailangan ng konting diversity na pwedeng pagpilian ng niche viewers.

On its first stop on August 28 at the Star City grounds, starting 10 am until 12 midnight, RPN-9 will be welcoming the New Year with great festivity. What better way to welcome the New Year than to celebrate it with the newest and fastest rising TV station?

As the newest treat for its viewers, The Kasama Network RPN-9 known as 9TV brings its programs closer to Pinoy viewers through 9TV Live: Kasama Ako Caravan.

RPN-9 kicked off the caravan's year-long journey around the country on Thursday, August 28, at the Star City grounds, CCP Complex in Pasay City.

Set to journey to six different destinations this year, 9TV LIVE Caravan will give away lots of prizes and will take everyone to the ultimate shaking experience as it brings your favorite 9TV shows, celebrities and stars on live tapings and on-ground interaction. Sesame Street and his friends are set to meet and greet kids and the cast of Barkada Diaries are on-hand as well to meet their fans. Anime cosplayers are also around to interact with guests. While enjoying fun games around the booths, on-stage entertainment will also be featured as RPN-9 presents popular rock bands Moonstar 88 and Sugarfree.

The project, according to RPN chairman Amb. Antonio Cabangon-Chua, was developed because, "We'd like the viewers to experience 9TV live, as such the name of the caravan. People can come down here with minimal, halos walang entrance fee, if you're a student specially. We have different booths from RPN shows."

RPN as 9TV aims to have six destinations for 2014, with the first ones set in key cities in Metro Manila. Inside the caravan, one can see different booths that feature each program of RPN-9.

Likewise delivering more entertainment and showcasing an abundance of the talents are Boses Tinig Pinoy, Kanta Tayo and The Price is Right winners, with the latter also holding on-ground auditions for talented aspirants. RPN president and CEO Benjamin Santos, said that 9TV LIVE Caravan is expecting to meet and greet thousands of audiences "as an expression of the station's gratitude and thanks" to its supporters. "We are very excited about this. 9TV is very thankful for the positive reception it earns from viewers and for the very favorable ratings, keeping us at a strong number three position in Philippine TV."

Benjamin also invites and encourages everyone to look out for more exciting Kasama Network events and activities for 2014. "9TV LIVE Caravan is just one of the many big surprises that we will be bringing out this year. And this is just the first, so everyone should watch out for the others which are of course, guaranteed to be just as much fun and grand as this one."

Aside from booths, games, and prizes, the caravan also featured celebrities who were seen on 9TV shows. Angeline Quinto, who is greatly identified with singing 9TV because of Superstar, started the whole-day affair. Young stars Karen Reyes, youngest multimedia actor Miguel Sarne, and newcomer Kim Gantioqui of the gag show Dobol Trobol hosted parlor games for the kids who went to the caravan.

An actual audition was also held inside the caravan for the reality talent search program Boses Tinig Pinoy, which is hosted by German Moreno as Kuya Germs. Along with the judges such as John Nite, Anthony Castelo and Aileen Papin, some of the top finalists are Coleen Mangabat, Mhelrose Uy, trios of Johanna Miranda, Jasper Arizabal and Phoebe Faye de Guzman, Jasmine Santos, Alex Soller, trios of Gina Ventura, Christian Paul Torqueza and Erickson Paulo, Christopher Mendoza, Ian Mendoza, trios of Ian Mark Corales, Drianne Paul Saberon, and Nina Claire Rivaca, the singing duets of Febra Sagarino and Rueda Haictin, and Maretchen Vasquez and Esther Martinez.

Then, in the evening, stars of 9TV's youth oriented show Lipgloss showed up to give entertainment to the audience. These include Ingrid dela Paz, Aaron Villaflor, Nikki Bagaporo, Diego Loyzaga, Christine Serrano and Errol Abalayan. Some love teams of the hottest fantaserye I'm a Princesa starring Ingrid dela Paz and Arron Villaflor, and Empress Schuck and John Wayne Sace of the killig teleserye Fall in Love for You.

Kids will enjoy the superstars of Batang X: Ang Pagbabalik with Kobi Vidanes, Casey Bacayo, Miguel de Guzman, Clarence Delgado, Jarius Aquino, Bea Besa, JB Agustin and Jillian Aguila, and the rest of the children's educational variety show Penpen de Sarapen gang.

JM de Guzman of Temptation Island: Dare to Win, as well as The Price is Right star Richard Gutierrez joined the RPN celebrities in giving away raffle prizes. Bands such as Moonstar 88 and Sugarfree also performed their hit songs for the benefit of the crowd gathered at the Star City grounds.

To completely welcome the new year with a bang, the newest TV station continues living up to its tagline to be called Kasama Ako! by offering viewers more exciting and alternative programs.

Mr. Antonio promised, "This year, it's gonna be as jam-packed program for the year. We're gonna raise the bar in our programming as well."

9TV LIVE Caravan is made possible in cooperation with Star City, Alaska Choco, Globe, Smart, Lady's Choice Mayonnaise, McDonalds and Extra Joss. Welcome the New Year with your new favorite TV station live, and watch out for bigger RPN shows and events that await this 2014. Kasama Ako!

The Return of RPN 9, Under New Management

August 28, 2014

9TV is the new name of RPN 9 which started its broadcast last August 23, 2014, now under Aliw Broadcasting System Inc. (Photo Credits: Wikipedia)

Tagalog newscast, imposible na yun since loaded na ang lineup nila. And 9TV caters more to the niche upper class and the masses, so making a Tagalog newscast would clash with their viewing audiences' preferences..

9TV, the new name of RPN 9 began to make waves in Philippine television last August 23, 2014. The station is also home for RPN Channel 9, DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422, 106.9 Bida FM and 98dot5 Radio Romance.

The relaunching of the channel began its thrust to reach a wider nationwide audience and strengthen its presence on free TV. It is also the first foray of Aliw Broadcasting Corporation as a new player in the Philippine television industry. Last January, Aliw and RPN signed a memorandum of agreement for their expanded nationwide TV and radio coverage. The known for its flagship radio stations DWIZ and Home Radio Natural, Business Mirror, and the Filipino Mirror tabloid.

It would be the partnership between RPN and Solar, where the ladder started broadcasting as a block-timer. This is the culmination of certain events that happened prior to the relaunching of Channel 9.

Solar beginning with its partnership with RPN-9. They would be retained, making the news organization renamed as 9News (under Media ng Bayan). Coinciding with the foreign canned shows in the US would now retain during Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights, the launch of 9TV on Philippine television is the 7 nights of all-Filipino programming on primetime, some telenovelas and Asian dramas, MBA and KBL basketball and the return of cartoons and educational programs on free TV through the Kids Weekend morning block. These include the return of Sesame Street on Philippine free TV and the new season of Pokemon.

These recent changes and developments mark the beginning of a new era for RPN 9, now under the new leadership of former Ambassador Antonio Cabangon-Chua. RPN 9 is remembered as an iconic brand in Philippine television, and it always provide great programming to its viewers during good and bad times. In my point of view, this will change the landscape of the channel but is going to change in Philippine television today. We'll just see if these changes can change the fate of RPN in the television industry.

RPN News and Public Affairs

RPN News and Public Affairs, commonly known as 9News is the news organization of Philippine media sequestered Radio Philippines Network (9TV) under the Media ng Bayan in the Philippines.

The organization is responsible for daily news and information gathering of the network's news programs. Its slogan is Kasama ng Balita, Kasamahan ng Ating Bayan. RPN News and Public Affairs topped the list among Philippines news organizations, garnering 20% of the public trust. It produces its news and information contents for 9TV, the RPN Regional Group, the flagship radio stations DZKB Radyo Ronda and media portal 9News website .

The division operates mainly and headquartered at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City while RPN regional stations also have their local news divisions, which is a big help in newsgathering for the whole network. It also has a news bureaus in North America, Europe, Asia Pacific, Korea, Taiwan and the Middle East with the help of 9TV Global Ltd., these make RPN News and Public Affairs ahead among the other news organizations in the country as they were the largest and the most comprehensive when it comes to local and international newsgathering.

In November 2013, San Miguel Corporation President and COO Ramon S. Ang personally acquire a majority stake in Solar Television Network as well as its stake on RPN.^[1] Meanwhile, on August 20, 2014, Solar Entertainment Corporation chief Wilson Tieng announced that he ceded his entire share on Solar TV Network, Inc., including its 34% majority share on RPN, to Antonio Cabangon-Chua, owner of business newspaper BusinessMirror and ABC.^{[2][3]} To reflect the change of ownership, and upon announcement of the rebranding of RPN into 9TV Network by August 23, RPN News will also rebrand into 9News, retaining its primetime programming as 9TV expands its weekend programming.^{[4][5][6]}

RPN-9 celebrates another milestone in its history of providing more and more of our countrymen with quality programs with the relaunch of its 500-foot TV tower in the station's viewership.

Cognizant of the crucial role that television plays in providing information and entertainment. RPN sees this new facility as a means of reachign more people and covering more areas of the country commitment to the public and dedicate our services to help rebuild and strengthen our nation, particularly in the area of telecommunications for efforts to literally raise the quality standards of Philippine television.

Aside from investing in programming and content as an alternative set of programs from the usual menu consistently being offered by the two giant and more established network, transmitter signal strength of RPN-9 on a state-of-the-art with the power of brand new 100-kilowatt Harris Transmitter tower, which means a coverage and signal. This transmission quality upgrade in a stronger than other major networks in the country, the dish satellite in DOSMAT and antenna on their TV sets.

In celebration of their 53rd year anniversary committed to providing the members of the family in the Annual RPN Provincial Network, RPN reaching the top of TV industry recorded its highest growth in audience share nationwide as the strong and certified number 3 position in the ratings, behind the two giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA, and the number 3 spot of IBC and TV5, according to the data survey of Kantar Media.

Number 3 in the chart over new primetime programs developed and produced increase in viewership and its consistently at double-digit share levels on top spot that will make them rule the number 1 spot (based on individuals viewing). Continuing investments to improve reach, programs and systems by broadening its niche market to include virtually stronger and certified hits among A-B-C income brackets viewers during primetime in programming to cater to a wider audience. Filipinos of all classes and relegating the board of A-B-C crowd shows at RPN-9 makes more difficult for for that crowd to the mass audience of C-D-E markets.

"To date, RPN for highest level in 15% audience shares and fight with the network giants ABS-CBN and GMA with 45% and 36% audience shares, respectively. Total day viewership is also higher the number 3 spot like IBC (30%), TV5 (22%) and Studio 23 (10%) in terms of viewership and audience share versus the other competing stations."

RPN claim itself as The Kasama Network firmed by the TV viewing public viewing audience, whose perception of pertains to its phenomenal growth has started to hit the right track in its programming at the trailblazing concepts on free-to-air broadcasting with its stable of talents on the issue of accepting projects. RPN maintains the foreign canned programs and locally-produced shows gears up to developing its own stars and talents.

Being an active buyer in the world's videomarts, RPN 9 has a wide inventory of top-rated foreign canned series has pioneered in airing Hollywood TV shows a few days after their US broadcast as well as specials and concerts. Continuing our partnership with major US networks: CBS, ABC, Warner Bros., Walt Disney and Fox.

On top of the foreign titles, Rivera says RPN has also beefed up its local programming with a new shows, talents and stars. It is very aggressive in local program development to cater more mass market. It also enjoys a good relations in airtime with blocktimers and co-producers of Solar Entertainment Corporation, who further widen its programming trend in the millions of Filipino televiewers with the programs now completes your viewing habit from daytime, primetime and late evening in the family station.

It has developed for the local productions (drama, comedy, talk shows, game shows, reality shows and variety shows) with producing the original programs. Nowadays, ABS-CBN is on VHF channel 2, while channel 4 is now controlled by state-broadcaster People's Television Network after the EDSA People Power Revolution, that was event after these channels sequestered by Ferdinand Marcos' cronies. It held on to the number one spot of the ratings from 1987 to 2004, ending with GMA taking its dominant spot. However, in 2007, amid stiff competition, ABS-CBN managed to defeat GMA and reclaim its dominance. Currently, as of 2014, ABS-CBN continues to secured the no.1 position lead the industry nationwide.

- Associated Broadcasting Company (TV5): Launched DZTM-5 in 1960 by Chino Roces of Manila Times. In 1972, ABC shut down due to martial law by then-President Ferdinand Marcos. But in February 1992, ABC relaunched channel 5 and became the fastest-growing network in the 1990s, a status that was undermined in the early 2000s with increasing competition from ABS-CBN and GMA and financial problems. In 2008, the channel changed its name to TV5, and after a massive marketing campaign and huge contribution from PLDT after it acquired TV5 in 2010, TV5 became successful once again, regaining its number three spot in audience shares and ratings.
- GMA Network, Inc. (GMA): Launched DZBB-7 in 1961 by Robert Stewart, American journalist of its former name Republic Broadcasting System, then changed its channel name to GMA Radio-Television Arts in 1974. GMA became one of the instrumental during the People Power Revolution in 1986 and became top stations in the country. Now, the RBS corporate name shifted to GMA Network Inc. in 1996. The Kapuso campaign launched in 2002 helped GMA to rise as the dominant television network within 2004 (thus starting an intense network war in the country), but was overtaken by ABS-CBN in 2007. As of 2014, it continues to be 2nd place in the industry behind ABS-CBN.
- Radio Philippine Network (RPN): Launched in 1969 as DZKB-9 by Kanlaon Broadcastion System of Roberto Benedicto, RPN was sequestered by the Philippine Commission on Good Government (PCGG) in 1989 together with IBC. RPN entered a partnership with Solar Entertainment arm subsidiary of Solar Television Network and consider privatizing the station while the station is home to the MBA basketball, RPN is become the relaunch of the leader network in 2013 and gaining the number three spot behind the increasing competition of two networks ABS-CBN and GMA along with TV5 and IBC grabbed the number three in audience shares and ratings (mostly local programs, foreign shows, animes, asianovelas, telenovelas, sports and cartoons). But in 2013, RPN regained its dominance in Mega Manila primetime and secured the no.3 position nationwide.
- Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC): Launched in 1960 as DZTV-TV 13, run by Inter-Islands Broadcasting Corporation of Andres Soriano. Now, the corporate name of the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation in 1975. In 1989, it was sequestered by the Philippine Commission on Good Government (PCGG) in 1989 together with RPN. IBC entered a partnership with Viva Entertainment and consider the privatization refloat with a massive marketing campaign. The country's third leading television network in the country home to the PBA and NBA basketball. Since 1998, currently gaining and becoming the number three spot in audience shares and ratings with increasing competition ABS-CBN and GMA in the dominant spot.

Government-owned networks

- People's Television Network (PTV): DWGT-TV 4, established in 1974, run by the Government Television, the name changed to Maharlika Broadcast System (MBS) during Marcos' era and changed to People's Television (PTV) after People Power Revolution. In 2001, it changed its name to National Broadcasting Network (NBN) and reverted it to PTV in 2011 and relaunched as Telebisyon ng Bayan in 2012. The government-owned television network is home of the UAAP and ABL games.

RPN-Zamboanga kicks-off modern broadcasting

November 23, 2013

Radio Philippines Network, Inc. (RPN), which operates radio station DXXX and Television 5 in Zamboanga City, yesterday inaugurated its newly-constructed radio studios and office at the 3rd floor of Fairland Property building, along Mayor Vitaliano Agan St. (Nuñez Extension)

Undersecretary Robert Rivera, RPN president, led other visiting network executives in simple rites that accompanied the studios' soft opening.

RPN Station Manager Manuel "Jerry" Lacastesantos expressed optimism that with this newly-transferred station's opening, RPN will slowly, yet dramatically, regains its old glory as the leader in Zamboanga broadcasting industry.

Lacastesantos was referring to the time when DXXX was on its peak, "soundlessly, gaining laurels, due to its credible, dependable, decent, educational and informative type of programming, that won the hearts of listeners from the big part of Zamboanga Peninsula, including some of the now ARMM provinces".

Known to have popularized the programs Radyo Ronda and Noche de Ronda since the of 70s, RPN-DXXX is also arming itself with modern and sophisticated state-of-the-art facilities and is expected to radiate on a 10-kilowatt broadcast power, once it goes in full-blast operation.

Now a sister company of SOLAR Entertainment Corporation, RPN, apart from airing local public affairs programs, would also hook up with some radio and TV programs of said popular entertainment network.

Lacastesantos reiterated that the transfer of RPN studios and office to its new site, represents an initial step to a tele-radyo type of broadcasting, which would give listeners an added amenity of watching on RPN Channel 5 (a free channel), what is being broadcast over radio DXXX.

“Listeners can freely watch our radio programs on RPN Channel 5, which would eventually, be carried over too by local cable TV services,” he explained. Meanwhile, all is set for this afternoon’s BOSES Tinig Pinoy monthly final eliminations at the Yubenco Star Mall, in barangay Putik.

Closed to 10 sets of contestants representing the trio and duet categories will vie for the much-awaited victory, for them to qualify for the grand finals, which is scheduled sometime March next year in Manila. A million pesos worth of cash and valuable prizes, including recording contracts await the winners of said musical competition.

Filipino artists like famous Balladeer Anthony Castelo, and singers Aileen Papin, John Nite, and child sensation Constantine, would be among those to entertain and host the said competition.

RPN 9 inks deal with J Centre for talent search

December 02, 2013

CEBU, Philippines - RPN 9 is launching the Cebu leg of Boses Tinig Pinoy on January 17, 2014 at J Centre Mall in Mandaue City, following a deal reached between management of the broadcasting network and the mall.

J Centre Mall will host the January 17 launching program at the mall’s atrium where shoppers are sure to enjoy an afternoon of entertainment.

Coming to Cebu for the launching are RPN’s top officials led by RPN President & CEO Robert T. Rivera whose brainchild is this nationwide search for the best in a cappella, duet or trio. Rivera believes in this unique talent search as the best way to identify the real singing talents. He personally sees to the success of launching activities by attending to these events himself.

RPN dares to be different with Boses Tinig Pinoy since this is the first ever on nationwide radio. With Boses Tinig Pinoy, Rivera aims to turn RPN around back to the glory days with its own pool of talents and as the leader network.

Top winners of the search get over 1 million pesos in prizes and a shot at a recording career and a talent management contract with RPN 9. Rivera is encouraging the youth, in school and out of school, members of campus and church choirs, and other talents, age 15 and above to join the search . Auditions are held daily in all provincial stations nationwide. Just go to RPN DYKC Radio Station located in Maguikay, Mandaue City.

Celebrity roadshow hosts Aileen Papin and Anthony Castelo will also grace the event. Aileen Papin aside from being the sister of singer Imelda Papin , herself is well-known for her repertoire of hitsongs like her version of Amazing Grace, Ikaw Ang Musika, Awit Koy Dinggin Mo, and Give More, Love More.

Anthony Castelo is likewise best remembered for hits like Kastilyong Buhangin and Balatkayo. Both artists have proven they will not be outdone by today's younger crop of entertainers during the launching in Cagayan de Oro City where they wowed the crowd with their old-time favorite hits, not to mention their gift of rapport with the audience.

Celebrities supportive of Rivera's Boses Tinig Pinoy project include Superstar Nora Aunor who started her singing career with RPN and made it her home for twenty years, and of course, the ever loyal Kuya Germs, German Moreno, who is now the Master Showman of another TV network.

Launching programs have been held in other RPN provincial stations nationwide.

Radio station to launch singing contest; auditions ongoing

December 9, 2013

THE RPN 9 DyKC radio station will launch the Cebu leg of its Boses Tinig Pinoy on Jan. 17 at the J Centre Mall in Mandaue City after reaching a deal with the mall.

RPN officials led by RPN president and chief executive officer Robert Rivera will grace the occasion.

Rivera is the brains behind this nationwide search for the best in a cappella, duet or trio.

RPN dares to be different with Boses Tinig Pinoy since this is the first ever nationwide singing contest on radio.

With Boses Tinig Pinoy, Rivera aims to go back to the glory days when RPN was the leading network.

Celebrity roadshow hosts Aileen Papin, sister of Imelda Papin, and Anthony Castelo will also grace the event.

Winners of the search will get over P1 million in prizes, a recording career and a talent contract with RPN 9.

Rivera is inviting the students and out-of-school youth, aged 15 and above, who are members of a campus choir or a church choir to join the search.

Following its masterplan to broaden and focus on the growing target of upscale, niche and mass market is a major player in the Philippine TV industry, RPN's schedule has since expanded to include a locally-produced roster of shows compared to its counterparts in our selection and production of programs.

Local entertainment TV industry: primetime soaps Jose Rizal (weekdays 5 p.m.), a Filipino mini-series starring the veteran stars Joel Torre, Gina Alajar, Panky Amador and Michael de Mesa directed by Ruel Bayani, Muling Magmamahal (weeknights 9:30 p.m.), a teleserye top-billed by the beauty queen Ruffa Gutierrez and Albert Martinez with a roster of Kasama talents Erin Ocampo, Jane Oineza, Andrea Brillantes and Ingrid dela Paz; Pinapangako Mo (Saturday 8 p.m.), a drama anthology for the lucky-sender story with Coney Reyes; sitcoms back-to-back: Roderick en Nova (Saturday 10 p.m.), a family comedy sitcom starring Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa and Mister Kemis Bayani (Saturday 10:45 p.m.), a sitcom top-billed by comedian Bayani Agbayani; showbiz talk show Showbiz Ka! (Saturday 5:30 p.m.) hosted by Pat-P Daza Planas and Nestor Torre; the top-rated game show The Million Peso Money Drop (Saturdays at 6 p.m.) hosted by Rafael Russel in the world contestants the full P1 million prize at the beginning of the show; another top-rated game show The Price is Right (Sunday 6 p.m.) hosted by Tom Rodriguez; late-night talk show Oh Yes!, it's Dennis (Saturday 9:45 p.m.) with Dennis Padilla; the daily top-rated noontime variety show Chibugan Na! (Monday to Saturday at 12:30 p.m.) hosted by Randy Santiago, Marjorie Barretto, Hajji Alejandro and Chiqui Pineda together with today's hottest celebrities and stars; the Sunday night longest-running musical variety show Superstar (Sunday nights at 8:30 p.m.) hosted by the pop superstar Angeline Quinto; an educational children show Penpen de Sarapen (Saturdays at 10 a.m.) with Connie Angeles, Kobi Vidanes, Aaron Junatas, Angel Sy, Andrea Brillantes, Lance Angelo Lucido and Clarence Delgado.

The primetime reality show Boses Tinig Pinoy (Saturdays at 8:45 p.m. and Sundays at 7:30 p.m.) for a national singing contest in a duet and trio capella hosted by German Moreno for the nationwide talent search competition with Anthony Castelo, Aileen Papin, John Nite and Pilita Corales as a judge of the singing superstars discover talented singers were the standards they upheld in the show's host, judges and contestants. A representative from our partner, Center for Pop Music Philippines, acts as judge during the weekly eliminations, as well as the monthly show discloses that the competition is open even to persons with disabilities where some contestants that RPN-9 officials personally visit different provinces in the country to discover talented singers. The contest is open to all ages, and we encourage those persons with disability (PWDs) who have the talent to join the contest also strengthening our radio stations in the 12 regions of the country, and this contest gives a once in a lifetime shot of fame and fortune for the grand winner.

Separates this from other singing competitions, Rivera explained is all contestants can from a duet and trio with other contestants regardless of group they came in with open to school and university with 15-25 years old and above can sing, dance and act to showcase talents from the 12 regions of the country dedicated to all a capella duos and trios competing in weekly, monthly and quarterly rounds. The Kasama Network organizers for coming to the province to discover new singing talents. The regional search aims to discover, harness and develop the singing prowess of potential talents coming from the 12 regions of the country where the 12 AM radio stations of RPN-9 are strategically located aims to harness and develop young artists nationwide showcasing their singing prowess.

Goal of the contest in discovering singer acapella field except the extension of the image and tourism of the area, the first singing competition in a capella launched in the Philippines and home grown talents in the chance to shine through a recording contract with Universal Records that the semi-final winners for duet and trio categories will compete from among the winners of the 12 RPN branches stations nationwide for the grand finale and will have the chance to win a grand prize of P1 million pesos and other fabulous prizes.

RPN-9 is in a way helping recording companies save from today's high cost of production and resulting from piracy by doing away with the session musician during production or recording of songs since there are no longer electronic musical instruments like piano, guitars and organ. This way, believes that the singers can be heard using their natural and powerful voices. Rivera said the competition focuses on a cappella for duet and trio to produce a harmonic melody with choreography because there would be no harmony to be created in solo a cappella. The national reality singing contest for young and talented artists and which would be involved staged by the 12 RPN radio stations nationwide Radyo Ronda from Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao. Open for all ages in a form of duet and trio in a capella to showcase talents from the different places in the province. The unique singing contest differs from other singing contests since it will be performed "acapella" in a form of a duet and in trio. As much as P1 million worth of prizes, and a contract to RPN-9 through Talent9 will be given during the grand finals, be held in Manila on March 2014. Announcement of the rules and audition will be on RPN. BOSES is a reality contest where coming of the field of singing does not use any instruments like guitar, piano or organ because only voice only investment to achieve the dream to distinguish their talents with acapella considered the first kind of search around the country in important star potential that will help Talent9 hone them into RPN's biggest idols, superstars and rank them among the hottest personalities in the industry as well. The nationwide winner of Boses Tinig Pinoy will take home P1 million peso cash prize with a talent management contract with RPN through Talent9 and a music recording contract of Polyeast-Universal Records.

Educational TV show watched Eskwela ng Bayan series every weekday morning from 11 a.m. to 12 noon this was targeted among younger children and elementary students. There four MANILA, Philippines - Solar Television Network, Inc. announces that beginning Aug. 23 its brand Solar News Channel will officially change its name to 9TV. This heralds the beginning of the channel's opportunity to reach a wider audience and strengthen its presence on free TV on RPN-9.

9TV will continue to focus its programming on news and information, entertainment and sports, and beef up its primetime and weekend programming to cater to more viewers.

The RPN News and Public Affairs organization will also now be known as 9News. All news, public service, current affairs programs and personnel will remain the same (under Media ng Bayan).

The change is only in the brand name; the network will retain its objectives and values.

The Return of Channel 9, Under New Management

9TV, the new name of RPN 9 has arrived in Philippine television last August 23rd. The new rebranding is the beginning of the channel's thrust to reach a wider nationwide audience and strengthen its presence on free TV. It also marked the first foray of the ALC Group of Companies headed by former ambassador Antonio L. Cabangon-Chua as a new player in the Philippine television industry.

The ALC Group of Companies owns Aliw Broadcasting Corporation, which is known for its flagship radio stations DWIZ 882 FM and 97dot9 Home Radio Natural, the business newspaper Business Mirror and the tabloid Filipino Mirror. Last January 3, 2014, RPN and Aliw Broadcasting Corporation signed a three-year memorandum of agreement for the expanded nationwide coverage of their radio stations.

Aside from Channel 9, the station also has the radio stations DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422, 99.5 Play FM and 106.9 Bida FM. The rebranding of channel 9 was also the culmination of the recent developments prior to the said event, which led to the acquisition of Solar's majority shares of the network to the ALC Group of Companies that was announced last August 20, 2014. With the newscast will get a refreshing make-over.

Arangkada Balita anchored by Bing Formento and Angelique Lazo, RPN's primetime Filipino news program on Philippine television, now airs at 6:30 p.m.

The longest-running English late night newscast on Philippine television Newswatch, is now part of 9TV and airs at 11 p.m. The newscast gets a boost with its anchor Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon.

But wait! There's more!

9TV showing accessible to a wider audience a market. That means along with the network's flagship and top-rating news programs Arangkada Balita and Newswatch, we can now enjoy the foreign canned shows such as Smallville, The Walking Dead, American Idol, Community and 24: Live Another Day on free TV.

Coincided with the launch of 9TV was the beginning of its Kids Weekend morning block. The block features the return of Sesame Street on Philippine television, the new season of Pokemon, a new Batman animated series, and many more.

9TV is just a slight return of RPN 9 on Philippine television, as the newscasts, current affairs and public service programs will be retained under the new name 9News. Aside from this, 9TV has already beefed up its foreign canned programs during primetime, more local shows with 7 nights of all-Filipino programming on primetime, weekend programming to cater more viewers, which include the Kids Weekend block. Even though it is a slightly different channel but feels new, RPN 9 will always be remembered as an iconic brand in the history of Philippine television. I hope that this new rebranding will be the beginning of Channel 9's journey to redemption, as we are yet to start experiencing a new way of watching TV through digital television.

RPN employees haven't been the government and the management. Those people deserve to be heard and compensated for their efforts to keep the station afloat. Hopefully it stays that way.

ETC on RPN Schedule

Legend: - Local shows, Tagalog dubbed foreign cartoons and foreign drama and ETC programs

If ever kung mabili ko ang 130% stake ng ETC on RPN-9. I will plan to order a new transmitter, new cameras, new HD cameras, new studios (from RPN main studios and RPN Broadway Centrum), new OB vans, new OB van radio booths and other broadcast equipment for its TV and radio broadcasting as well as the regional stations. Some of the shows would be a co-production with Viva and Solar.

On August 2011, ETC on RPN created two new departments, News and Current Affairs (headed by Marigold Haber-Dunca) and Entertainment TV (headed by Willie Milan).

DWRT-FM (99.5 Play FM)

The First 99.5 RT (1976-2006) Edit

DZTR changed its call sign to DWRT-FM, moved to the 99.5 MHz frequency and branded itself as 99.5 RT on September 6, 1976. Its studios were located for most of its existence on Ayala Avenue in the central business district of Makati, at one time in Pacific Bank Building. It was then originally owned and operated by Trans-Radio Broadcasting Corp. (currently operating Radyo Inquirer 990, Cebu's Y101, Davao's DXKR, & Butuan's Majik 97.5, RT's original sister station). with owner Emilio Remedios Tuason, who also became one of the deejays (his on-air name was "ET"), until personal problems forced his retirement from the station in 1987.

99.5 RT became famous for playing the hits three months ahead of most other music stations because its programming philosophy did not pander to the masses nor cater to the lowest common denominator. It was more concerned with bringing the latest hits to the audience as soon as they were released by the artists. One of the most remembered examples of this was in the early 1980s when RT broke in the song "More To Lose" by the obscure English duo, Seona Dancing (one-half of which is the now famous lead actor and comic of the British television hit series The Office, Ricky Gervais). The station kept everyone guessing about the identity of the song by announcing the title as "Medium" and done by the artist "Fade", two words which were actually descriptions of the song: medium tempo with an ending that faded out.

Over the years, RT became popular with different slogans such as "The Rhythm Of The City" (1976–1996), "Red Hot Radio" (1983–1988), "Maximum Music" (1988-1996), "Source For The Best Hits" (1996–1998) and "Your Music Authority" (1998–2001), From 2001 - December 18, 2006 before it was rebranded, 99.5 RT's slogan was "The Most Hit Music".

Top 40, special programs Edit

RT was also home to some of America's popular hit countdown shows like American Top 40 and the Rick Dees Weekly Top 40. In the early 1980s (specifically 1983-1984), RT also ventured into the music-video business. As one of the pioneer music video shows in the Philippines, "Rhythm Of The City" which aired on Tuesdays at 7:30 pm on then government-owned MBS Channel 4 (now PTV Channel 4), showcased then ground-breaking videos from artists such as Men At Work, Naked Eyes, Real Life, Michael Jackson, and some of the best acts in North America during a time when then-fledgling MTV had not yet established its presence in the Asian region.

It is also known for its oldies show, 24K Friday playing the hits from the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s.

It was also known as the first radio station in The Philippines to have ventured into having a home on the World Wide Web, launching its bulletin board in 1995.

Change of management Edit

On June 14, 1996, Trans-Radio sold RT to Supreme Broadcasting Corporation (now Real Radio Network Inc.) and moved to the Royal Match Building. Under new management, the station tried its best to maintain its upscale and niche-market on-air identity and programming format, unlike many other stations which reformatted after being sold.

On April 1999, it moved to its present location at the Paragon Plaza Building, along EDSA, Mandaluyong City.

Over the next few years, 99.5 RT's sound slowly became similar to other CHR radio stations in Manila. By 2004, most of its veteran DJs had left and were replaced by younger ones. During the period, programs like Up and Coming (a new music countdown show, which later split into two: RT Top 10 Biggies (daily) and the RT40 (weekly)), On the Decks (a dance show hosted and with live dance music mixes by Dj David Ardiente, which later became David's House), RT Sunday Sessions (where performed live in the radio station's studio), The Get Up and Go Show with Joe Schmoe, Alex and Lellie, Dinner and Drive Show (formerly known as Da Brainy Bunch), and The Playground with Da Kid, Lexi Locklear and BB Fred were developed. Beginning in 2004, RT put up an annual concert event called, "Ripe Tomatoes", featuring up to 30 OPM bands playing back-to-back on a single night.

The end of RT Edit

In 2006, a corporate decision was made to rename RT to "HiT FM" starting January 2007. Thus, at midnight on December 18, 2006, the station signed off as the First iteration of 99.5 RT. For the next two weeks, the station played non-stop music, with occasional liners from the DJs, and teasers about the new station. On January 1, 2007, it officially signed on as HiT 99.5.

Hit 99.5/99.5 Hit FM (2007-2008) Edit

On January 1, 2007, Hit 99.5 signed on and presented almost-uninterrupted music programming with live announcers and its new programs officially debuted on January 8, 2007. The programming was essentially the same as RT's, but more content-driven rather than music oriented similar to sister station in Davao 105.9 Mix FM. It catered to a young audience, whose demographics included kids in high-school and college; from the aspirational to the affluent backgrounds. It used cutting edge production techniques and materials to accent the music with an upbeat and hip sound image that identified the station distinctly from competition. In August of that year, its on-air name was changed to 99.5 Hit FM.

The end of Hit FM Edit

99.5 Hit FM signed off for the last time on Holy Wednesday, March 19, 2008. Some Hit FM jocks later moved to Jam 88.3 and Magic 89.9. The last song "Nice to Know You" by Incubus was played before the holy week.

Campus 99.5 (2008) Edit

File:Campus995.jpg

The 99.5 frequency resumed broadcast as 99.5 Campus FM on Easter Sunday, March 23, 2008, with some of the announcers coming from Barangay LS 97.1 (formerly "Campus Radio 97.1") and some of the retained Hit FM jocks. The new incarnation of 99.5 reflected the spirit of the former Campus Radio. Early in May, 2008, it was renamed Campus 99.5. The on-air format was essentially the same, with familiar programs and segments and jocks from Campus Radio 97.1 re-introduced later on.

Collectively, the station's on-air announcers were known as the Campus Air Force, as they were with DWLS-FM.

The end of Campus FM Edit

On the afternoon of August 14 at 4:00 pm, the management abruptly discontinued Campus 99.5, due to management difficulties. The station then switched to an automated all-music format with only pre-recorded station ID's played intermittently between songs. BrewRats! continued on its usual schedule until August 21, after which it went on a one week hiatus. On August 24, a new set of stingers announced that a new format and station image would be premiered in days.

Campus Radio revived on March 21, 2009 as an internet radio station.

The Second 99.5 RT (2008-2012) Edit

File:DWRT-FM.jpg

On September 1, 2008 at 6 a.m., after two weeks of automated music programming, the station resumed its broadcast under the reinstated name 99.5 RT. Joshua Z was the first DJ to go on board that morning, followed by other jocks who have worked with the frequency's three incarnations (mostly from the RT roster and HiT and one from Campus). The station initially reused its old and familiar slogan, "The Rhythm Of The City". The playlist is more progressive and experimental, attempting to sound like RT's first iteration. The deejays have a collective tone similar to parent station, Magic 89.9, due to the use of Tagalog-English or "Taglish" during live spiels.

They also introduced its 2nd slogan, from 2009 - 2010, dubbing the station as playing "The Best Music on the Planet", which is also used in sister station in Davao, 105.9 Mix FM. For every Summer, it brought back the "Red Hot Radio" slogan, which was originally used from 1983 -

1988. Since 2010, they launched The Farm, an on air training program for the beginner/student jocks.

Since October 2010, RT began to play some Modern Rock music, earning its 3rd slogan, "The Drive", after the Sunday night-only program of the same name. It was a call for the demise of NU 107, which happened a month later. Ironically, they rarely play some songs from the 90s and early 2000s to promote 24K Weekend. However, CHR is still retained as its initial format. In June 2011, RT dropped "The Drive" in favor of its previous slogan "The Best Music on the Planet", as an attempt to bring back RT's old image.

The end of RT's 2nd Iteration Edit

During mid-October 2012, management decided to reformat the station. Half of its on-air crew were dismissed (replaced by selected Junior Jocks from Magic 89.9), and some of the shows ended. The station continued to air using 99.5 RT, but with new teasers (which began a week before), until December 9 when 99.5 RT signed off for the last time. Koji Moralez was last to board and its last song was "Kings and Queens" by Thirty Seconds to Mars.

99.5 Play FM (2012-present) Edit

File:99.5 Play FM.jpg

On December 10, 2012 at 6am, the station signed on as 99.5 Play FM. Socialite and eventologist Tim Yap, RT mainstay Sam Oh, and former Magic jock Nikko were the first jocks to go on board that morning, followed by the remaining RT jocks and selected jocks from Magic. The very first song played was "Play" by Jennifer Lopez. The programming and imaging is more identical to that of its parent station, Magic 89.9, and the defunct 99.5 Hit FM, as opposed to that of RT. It caters to a young audience, whose demographics included kids in high-school and college; from the aspirational to the affluent backgrounds.

As of April 1, 2013, the sequestered TV-radio media network Radio Philippines Network now acquired the partnership of Real Radio Network, Inc. relaunched as the first FM radio station 99.5 Play FM together with RPN. The FM radio for format is the playing mixed of pop music, contemporary hit radio (CHR) and Original Pilipino Music (OPM), showcasing the FM music, alongside Top 40 hits with some hit foreign songs and more than OPM hits featuring some of Pinoy artists, Joe Spinner appointed the station manager complements are priority in the mass-based category than a mass-based music as the pop format in the a high-ratings pop music FM station in Mega Manila and rivaled other radio stations.

99.5 Play FM is conceptualized in 2012 when RPN chairman Wilson Tieng joined by Joe Spinner as the station manager for their FM radio network. With RPN-9, a fledgling organization that was to rise in June 1960, Tan wanted to make sure that his FM radio affiliate would similarly make a dent in the broadcast circles, he envisioned his TV network to do collar the 106.7 mhz in the FM band to become a contemporary hit radio (CHR) and Original Pilipino Music (OPM) station featuring the hits.

It was an innovative, bold and creative approach towards radio programming as pop radio station dared to do so. Play FM was the first to breakthrough with this approach in programming to synergize the market of RPN since their target market were the young adults aged 21 and above. Hence, The Hits All Day tag and eventually becoming mainstream hits with various tracks exclusively played at their radio station.

First radio station to give away huge cash prizes on a daily basis. The promo was called Play FM Cash Payoff, whereby a song is played and is identified as the money song of the day.

Once the song is repeated of the day, the 106th caller by the time the song win a cash prize anywhere from P1,000 to P10,000. When they will now started to playing some more then OPM hits such as Patuloy ng Pangarap by Angeline Quinto, Na Sa'yo Na ang Lahat by Daniel Padilla, Forevermore by David Archuleta, Ikot-Ikot by Sarah Geronimo, Anong Nangyari Sa Ating Dalawa by Aiza Seguerra, Scared to Death by KZ Tandingan, Gayuma by Abra feat. Thyro and Jeriko Aguilar, Paano by Jovit Baldvino, Forever by Tom Rodriguez and Dennis Trillo, Kung Pwede Lang Sana by Bugoy Drlon, Nasaan ang Pangako Mo by Anja Aguilar, Ikaw Pala by Kris Lawrence, Because I Love You by Gerald Santos, Mahal na Mahal by Sam Concepcion, I'll Be There by Julie Anne San Jose, Help Me Get Over You by Jonalyn Viray, I Will Be Hereby Gary Valenciano, Hanggang Ngayon by Bryan Termulo, Huwag Ka Lang Mawawala by Gary Valenciano, What Can I Do by Christian Bautista, Pangako by Regine Velasquez, Bulag by Mitoy Yonting, I Need You Back by Raymond Lauchengco, I Just Fall in Love Again by Angeline Quinto, The Way You Look at Me by Christian Bautista, among others.

The station also has its first-ever weekly countdown separated where daily countdown in top 10 requested foreign songs and top 10 OPM hit songs are aired at 11am and 5pm respectively on Saturdays. The station that plays The Hits All Day actually came out with one of programming in Philippine local FM radio history.

Radyo Ronda Manila History Edit

On August 2013, it was found out that the set of investors are associated with Wilson Tieng, the chairman of Radio Philippines Network (sill in president of Solar Entertainment Corporation), Robert T. Rivera, the president and CEO of Radio Philippines Network and Marigold Haber-Dunca, the RPN news and public affairs head. Since August 22, 2011, DZKB-AM was on test broadcast, airing RPN's feed.

DZKB Radyo Ronda Manila 1422 kHz, RPN's radio arm, was launched last April 1, 2013. His mission is to bring the glory of radio, which is radio sans images, since "Radio on TV" has become the new trend. He also launched RPN OB Van radio, a first in Philippine Radio history, in which it broadcast to a specific location via see thru OB Van studio vehicle.

RPN OB Van Radio Booth is Philippines' First, Stuns Mediamen

Edit

Taking its first rolls on metro streets, RPN's Radio Mobile Booth was spotted airing the live coverages of the country's two biggest events this January, giving spectators and mediamen a sheer surprise.

On August 29, the same day it was launched, the radio-on-wheels aired live the Malacañang Press Conference with President Noynoy Aquino.

"Many mediamen were surprised when the Radio OB Van Booth make a stop at Senate, so I hope other networks will follow Wilson and Robert's idea that they may genuinely provide government with truthful reporting," said AdSpeak President Lito Bamba in the vernacular. Bamba was commissioned to do the radio OB van booth project. Last September 4, the OB van radio also brought the actions of one of the largest fun run events ever organized and participated in by Filipinos live on air.

Another first in Philippine broadcasting by RPN and RPN news and public affairs head Marigold Haber-Dunca, the mobile radio was launched simultaneously with DZKB Radyo Ronda Manila (1422 kHz), Totoong-Totoo sa Radyo ng Pilipino (Honest to Honest in Radio of the Philippines) for first slogan and Ang Angkan ng Tagapagbalita (The Clan of the Herald) for second slogan, during the station's kick-off party at RPN studios at the RPN Media Center in Boni Avenue, Mandaluyong City.

The radio-on-wheels is RPN's another vehicle to bring more government closer to people.

Marigold Haber explained how the public could benefit from the launch of the radio station OB van booth, saying, "If people see it parked in one area and they have some important announcements, they only need to knock and they will be assisted so they can air their announcements using our radio OB van booth.

The RPN Chairman Wilson Tieng, RPN President and CEO Robert T. Rivera and RPN News and Public Affairs Head Marigold Haber-Dunca also added that since the booth can be brought to where an actual event or happening is reeling, it would allow radio news anchors to report the events as they see them, thus, giving listeners more accurate information.

Both RPN Radyo Ronda and its mobile booth are part of Alex Tinsay's media advocacy that started with Tulong Serbisyo Muna (Rescue Service First). Launched in August 2011, the new news tagline prioritizes rescue operations over news reporting. When the new news advocacy was launched, it brought forth RPN News and Rescue Team, the first Philippine media entity to undergo rescue training according to Dick Gordon, Philippines Red Cross Chairman and CEO. In less than 1 month, the advocacy also brought forth other pioneering media initiatives including RPN News and Rescue Command Center and the acquisition of several mobile and rescue vehicles.

BEAM TV 31's New Schedule this 2013

BEAM TV Channel 31 of Radio Mindanao Network (RMN), in the same company that brought the 2 radio stations as DZXL Radyo Mo Nationwide 558 and 93.9 iFM, and Broadcast Enterprises and Affiliated Media, Inc. is now No.3 behind the UHF networks UNTV and Net 25. Channel 31's new slogan Ang Katuloy Natin parang TV, as the branding Katuloy network. Channel 31 will now airs O Shopping (daily 9am-2pm) and TBN Asia programs (daily 7-9am and 2-6pm and 12mn-3am) since September 1, 2014, a day after the last Free TV broadcast of Jack City, as BEAM prepared for Digital Terrestrial Television in the Philippines. Its studios and broadcast facilities are located at the Unit 507 Taipan Place, F. Ortigas Jr. Road, Ortigas Center, Pasig City, and the transmitter is located at Palos Verdes Subdivision, Sumulong Highway, Antipolo City, province of Rizal.

BEAM TV 31 is now the proud member of the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP). Debuting on October 1, 2014 as the primetime-only block, BEAM TV 31 was first utilized by RMN as its answer to UNTV and Net 25. RMN was picked as the broadcast arm of TBN Asia and O Shopping in the Philippines at the time, and also with BEAM TV Channel 31 started test broadcast in September 1, 2014 with rebroadcast of TBN Asia and O Shopping. A month later, it launched its own programming under the station name BEAM TV 31 and adopted the slogan Ang Katuloy Natin parang TV. The station initially ran TBN Asia and O Shopping rebroadcasts in the day, and ran its own shows at primetime. It also ran for 24 hours, but financial limitations forced it to sign off at 3AM every day. That has been the broadcast arrangement ever since.

The flagship station, DWKC-TV signed on about a month before the launch of BEAM TV 31, simulcasting the Philippine airwaves of TBN Asia programming. BEAM TV 31 was officially launched on October 1, 2014, when the blocktime timeshare with TBA Asia and O Shopping aired during the daytime, with BEAM TV's newest programming taking over in the primetime hours.

The local programming introducing BEAM TV's two Filipino news programs News 31 with Gilbert Remulla and Latetime News with Weng dela Pena as the news anchors of the newscast will cater to the masses with the help of BEAM TV News and DZXL correspondents and reporters. The network will also devote programs like gaming, entertainment and movies.

What Makes 9TV the Best Entertainment Channel on Free TV?

October 5, 2014

It's been over a month since 9TV came in to our television screens. The new face of RPN 9 appoint many Filipino viewers including myself who want to try a different brand of alternative viewing experience on free TV. I assumed that Channel 9 has finally found its true calling after a longtime search for its own niche. And that would be as the news and information that aims to reach and widen nationwide free TV audience. In fact, for me or in my point of view, among all the TV networks that are available on Philippine free TV,.

What makes 9TV the best entertainment channel on Philippine TV for me is definitely its programming strategy, considering that. It is an clear, evident fact that weekdays are always slated for news and information programs, but it is on primetime and weekends that makes this channel more interesting. 9TV's beefed-up weekend programming is filled with a various and diverse mix of entertainment programs that would cater every segment of the Philippine viewing population. Perhaps the best highlight of weekend programming on the new channel 9 is its Kids Weekend block, which features the return of Sesame Street and Pokemon on Philippine television with freshly new episodes along with Batibot and Penpen de Sarapen.

Meanwhile, its local programs on primetime that complementing each program on RPN Channel 9 possess different elements and qualities. Such programs would include Temptation Island: Dare to Win, Kanta Tayo, Boses Tinig Pinoy, Price is Right, Superstar, John en Nova, Actually Yun Na! Megaon and recently launched new programs for young viewers and teens including Meet the Date, Carl & Ed, I'm a Princesa, Fantastik Man, Fall in Love for You, Junior TV, Barkada Diaries, Dear Hazel and Dobol Trobol, among others.

Judging by the traditional programming provided by other networks, I think that 9TV's primetime programming is better than ABS-CBN, GMA-7, IBC-13 and TV5. I would surely hope that 9TV, with 9News and its weekend programming, would continue to reach its purpose to inform and entertain many Filipino viewers with its own brand of quality alternative programming.

RPN's 'Boses' reels off for nationwide tilt

Tuesday, 19 November 2013 13:50

The much-awaited BOSES Tinig P-Noy, a nationwide reality search for best trio and duet in acapella singing competition launched by Radio Philippines Network, Inc. (RPN), will hold its final monthly elimination rounds on Saturday, November 23, 3pm, at the Yubengco Starmall in barangay Putik, this city.

Said contest, which kicked off with its weekly elimination rounds last July, has so far, garnered four sets of winners each for duet and trio categories, respectively.

Winners of this monthly finals will again compete for the coming quarterly finals, and who ever makes it, will be bound for the grand finals in Manila, on January next year.

RPN-Zamboanga Station Manager, Manuel 'Jerry' Lacastesantos, has also confirmed the arrival of national artists to grace the said affair, which is expected to draw a mammoth crowd.

"We will have famous balladeer Anthony Castelo, the singers Aileen Papin and John Nite, as well as, the child sensation Constantine, coming over to be both entertainers and judges for BOSES Tinig P-Noy roadshow said Lacastesantos. At the same time, Lacastesantos announced the coming of RPN executives headed by its lawyer-president, Assistant Secretary Robert Rivera, who treats BOSES as his brainchild.

A million pesos worth of cash and valuable prizes await the victors of such contest, along with recording contracts with sponsoring music studios.

Rivera will also lead in the soft opening of newly-constructed studios and offices of RPN's radio station DXXX in its new site, at the 3rd floor of Fairland Building, along Mayor Vitaliano Agan Street, on Saturday morning.

Lacastesantos said, The transfer of our (DXXX) radio studios to its new site, forms part of RPN's massive program for both its radio and TV stations along with its technical equipment nationwide. Such transfer also paves the way for RPN's projected operation of a tele-radyo style of broadcast here in the city very soon.

Meanwhile, the RPN station manager has also hinted about his network's relief operation project for victims of the recent armed conflict, who are still languishing at the different evacuation centers.

"After our radio station's soft opening this coming Saturday, we, along with our visitor-artists will be proceeding to Sta Maria and City High main evacuation centers to distribute relief goods to those war victims", narrates Lacastesantos. Lacastesantos said, such relief operation is in partnerships with Coca-cola FEMSA, District 2 Congresswoman Lilia Nuño, James and Ruth Cawley, and John-john Store.

Also, watching for the contestants of live performance night every Saturdays at 9PM and the votes of results night live every Sundays at 8PM on RPN-9.

BOSES Tinig P-Noy previews are being shown on RPN's primetime programs like ABL, MBA, Roderick en Nova, Mister Kems Bayani, Champoy, The Million Peso Money

Drop and Superstar, as well as its long-running news programs Arangkada Balita and NewsWatch. That's a reminder to all BOSES Tinig P-Noy fanatics to watch RPN more often as the country's reality singing search draws near.

RPN's executives grace RPN's DXXX activities

December 26, 2013

RPN DXXX TV 5 officers and staff had their hands full for two days as they embark with different activities together with RPN's executive officers.

The various activities started on Friday, November 22 when local officials of DXXX-TV5 gave a resounding welcome to their Manila guests composed of Balladeer ANTHONY CASTELO, AILEEN PAPIN and CONSTANTINE, RPN's President and CEO Mr. ROBERT RIVERA, Regional Operations Manager NESTOR SANDOVAL, Treasury Department Head Ms. AIDA CABRERA, Bacolod Station Manager Mr. BUDDY FERRER and the Technical staff. From the airport they proceeded to City Hall for the courtesy call on Mayor MA. ISABELLE GARCIA CLIMACO-SALAZAR. In the evening of the same day they also paid a courtesy call to Congresswoman LILIA MACROHON- NUÑO in her residence in Guiwan, this city.

A press conference with the local media was also held on the same day at the Sunflower Restaurant after which a soft blessing of their new office and studio located at the 3rd Floor of the Fairland Building at Mayor VITALIANO AGAN Street. The blessing rites was officiated by Rev. Fr. JUDE DUNCOMBE. Cutting the ceremonial ribbon were RPN's President and CEO ROBERT T. RIVERA assisted by RPN DXXX-TV5 Station Manager GERRY LACASATESANTOS and Balladeer ANTHONY CASTELO.

Saturday morning of November 23 they conducted a relief operations for the evacuees of Santa Maria held at the Covert Court of Santa Maria Elementary School and Zamboanga City High School (Main) in partnership with Coca Cola Bottler's Phils, Inc. RPN's DXXX TV 5 would like to thank their sponsors WALLY and GRACE GEARLAN, MS GWEN FEUERSTEIN, M DOROTEO REYES Rice Mill, JAMES and RUTH CAWLEY and JOHN JOHN STORE. In the afternoon was the monthly finals of "BOSES TINIG PINOY" held at the YUBENCO Star Mall. A motorcade that started at ASTORIA HOTEL going to YUBENCO preceded the affair.

No less than Balladeer ANTHONY CASTELO, AILEEN PAPIN and CONSTANTINE graced the affair. The Manila guests and RPN's executives purposely came to witness the BOSES Roadshow.

Adjudged winners were: JEFFREY JULIAN, LIONEL JULIAN and ANSON ATILANO for the Trio category while XYLYN JOY ABALLE and MA. COLLETTE MONTION for the Duet category.

The Board of Judges were Rev. JUN SUTILLO, Mr. EFIGENIO AQUINO, JR., and ARNOLD FRANCISCO.

RPN-Aliw tie-up to broaden broadcasting reach

January 03, 2014

The Kasama Network of Radio Philippines Network under the Media ng Bayan and Aliw Broadcasting Corporation have agreed to work together to widen their reach. Both parties agreed that Aliw will provide content to RPN's nationwide radio network aired over RPN's Amplitude Modulation bandwidth or AM stations.

Programs aired by Aliw over its radio station DWIZ shall be simulcast over RPN stations for an initial period of three years. Both parties will also share revenues generated from commercial spots.

RPN President and Chief Executive Officer Robert Rivera and Aliw President Jesus Antonio Cabangon signed the agreement Friday morning.

Rivera said: "With our more than 12 regional stations nationwide, we will be able to carry the primetime shows of DWIZ and, with this program, we hope to enhance the wide reach coverage of both stations." Cabangon added, "There would more interactive participation between TV and radio, especially in Metro Manila."

DWIZ, RPN forge pact to widen Reach

In Photo: Aliw Broadcasting Corp. (DWIZ) and Radio Philippines Network Inc. (RPN) formalized their partnership on Friday through the signing of a memorandum of agreement (MOA) at the RPN office in Broadcast City at Diliman, Quezon City. The MOA was signed by J. Antonio A. Cabangon Jr. (second from left), Aliw president; and Robert T. Rivera (second from right), RPN president. The signing was witnessed by Reynante "Rey" Langit (left), DWIZ station manager; and Wilson Tieng, RPN chairman. The partnership will widen the reach of the two stations. (Roy Domingo)

Aliw Broadcasting Corp., a sister company of the BusinessMirror and owner of several AM radio stations under the dwIZ brand, is set to air its programs over Radio Philippines Network Inc. (RPN), partly owned by the government, that has a wide network in Mindanao.

In a memorandum of agreement signed between the two parties on Friday, the dwIZ- produced programs would be aired simultaneously over RPN during an initial period.

The dwIZ-produced programs are Kasangga Mo Ang Langit, Karambola, Hataw sa Serbisyo, Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo, Doble Banda and Chachahin Mo Baby. The deal is not limited to the programs cited. The aims to widen the reach of the DWIZ programs and enhance revenue generation for both parties. "Revenue from commercial spots for the Aliw programs shall be shared by the parties," according to the agreement signed by Robert Rivera, RPN president, and J. Antonio A. Cabangon Jr., Aliw Broadcasting president.

RPN has 13 stations in the Philippines, three of which are non-operational but would undergo rehabilitation.

Its operating stations are dzKB Manila, dzRL Batac, dzKI Iriga, dzBS Baguio, dyKB Bacolod, dxKS Surigao, dxXX Zamboanga, dxKD Dipolog, dxKT Davao, dxDX General Santos and dxKP Pagadian. The stations that will undergo rehabilitation are dzTG Tuguegarao, dyKC Cebu and dxKO Cagayan de Oro.

In November last year RPN retrenched some 200 employees as part of its move to wind down its public-affairs operations to stem further financial losses. The government still has a 20.8-percent stake in RPN; the Solar Entertainment Group, led by businessman Wilson Tieng, owns 34 percent; Far East Managers and Investors Inc., an investment group associated with the late Ambassador Roberto Benedicto, owns 32 percent; and the remaining 14 percent is owned by individual private investors.

RPN does TV on its own terms

March 8, 2014

For RPN won as Best TV station in the 2013 KBP Golden Dove Awards. In his brief acceptance speech, the first time in recent years that the best station award is being given to neither of the two giant networks. He gave due credit to the "men and women behind the success of The Kasama Network who had to work harder with equipment, resources, manpower and yet have achieved many feats."

New RPN and Solar owner Wilson Tieng said he ventured into new business territory to be the biggest to be the best. Trying to be the best by challenging conventions and daring to be different in its alternative programming, and striving to make a difference in the lives of others through its advocacies.

Last Thursday, The Kasama Network gathered its friends from the press to celebrate its win and to formally unveil its new program slate. Network executives were led by the chairman Wilson Tieng who keynoted the affair. Canoy cited RPN's escalated efforts to strengthen the network's financial muscle to finance its programming, modernization, privatization and expansion plan. RPN will still be focused on maintaining the same target demographic of young, ABC viewership and positioning. Wilson Tieng's Solar Entertainment assume to functions of managing, providing programming content and marketing for Channel 9.

RPN claims a new program slate described by the president and CEO Robert T. Rivera as an unrivaled suite of entertainment, news and information and sports programs whose broad appeal crosses age, gender, and socio-economic class. She said the network believes that there are audiences looking for true alternatives to formula programs and to cut and dry formats and that there are markets out there with a broad repertoire of tastes and interests and with penchant for original, out-of-the-box ideas. This is the audience to whom RPN wants to serve its multi-faceted quality primetime menu.

More important is what the viewers can expect from RPN in the upcoming days. "We will continue with our primetime foreign shows. Honestly, competing with the other giant networks drawing our own following with our Emmy Award-winning series, dramas and comedies," said RPN Chairman Wilson Tieng. In exchange, RPN would get P100million in "goodwill" money.

Prior to the takeover, RPN emerged as the able underdog in the so-called network "duopoly." This year alone saw the station's steady climb to the number 3 position due to the impressive showing of some of its programs, particularly those in the bracket.

The Kasama Network has doing it before and it's doing it once again. From the benchmark of the special events of Thrilla in Manila, The Olympics and the Apollo Missions; the award-winning Filipino mini-series such as Malayo Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao; the imports of telenovelas are Marimar, Luz Clarita, Simplemente Maria and Maria la del Barrio, and the outstanding foreign series such as MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg and The Practice. The unforgettable Filipino shows are the long-running No.1 sitcom John en Marsha which spawned any number of clones across all channels with the comedy king Dolphy, a musical variety show Superstar hosted by one and only superstar Nora Aunor and co-host German Moreno, a top-rated gag show Champoy, the noontime variety show Eat Bulaga! hosted by Tito Sotto, Vic

Sotto and Joey de Leon, the drama anthology series like German Moreno's Young Love, Sweet Love, a reality show for a singing contest Ang Bagong Kampeon hosted by Pilita Corales the late Bert "Tawa" Marcelo which first brought the singing contest to Philippine television, Pepe Pimentel's Sunday noontime game show Kwarta o Kahon, a soap opera Flordeluna starring the rising star Janice de Leon and the high-rated sitcom Buddy en Sol top-billed by Eric Quizon and the late Reford White. And now, RPN unleashes a fresh batch of homegrown and groundbreaking shows on the Kasama Network spawned by some of the best creative teams in the network led by VP Licensing and Merchandising Kitchie Benedicto, Entertainment Division of Entertainment TV Head Eduardo Cojuangco, Jr. and for News & Public Affairs, by News Head Mariold Haber-Dunca.

He assures viewers that RPN will continue to show world-class U. S. episodes for as long as the American networks continue to do so and some of the programs have completed a full season worth of episodes.

According to Tieng, the public can expect new and unique show next month as the game shows, musical variety shows, reality shows, sitcoms and fantasy series makes a splash in the local scene this month.

In the network's RPN news programs: the top-of-the-hour news capsule RPN News Break, a flagship Filipino primetime newscast Arangkada Balita anchored by Bing Formento and Angelique Lazo, and Newswatch, the longest-running English late-night newscast anchored by Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon. Rivera aims to turn RPN around back to the glory days with its own pool of talents and as the leader network.

The new slate of first TV program includes the reality show for national singing contest Boses Tinig Pinoy hosted by German Moreno with a judges of Aileen Papin, Anthony Castelo, John Nite and Pilita Corales for the singing superstars discover talented singers were the standards they upheld in the show's host, judges and contestants encouraging the youth, in school and out of school, members of campus and church choirs, and other talents, age 15 and above to join the search in nationwide radio and TV search for the best in a capella while auditions are held daily in all provincial stations nationwide with a capella duet and trios coming from the 12 regions of the country will take home P1 million peso cash prize with a talent management contract with RPN through Talent9 and a music recording contract of Polyeast-Universal Records for the nationwide winner of Kasama singing champion; a musical variety show Superstar hosted by Angeline Quinto; a top-rated sitcoms such as Roderick en Nova top-billed by Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa, Mister Kemis Bayani starring Bayani Agbayani and recently a gag show Dobol Trobol with the top talents Arnell Ignacio, Mr. Fu, Brod Pete and Gio Alvarez; a Filipino mini-series Jose Rizal starring Joel Torre, Gina Alajar, Panky Amador and Michael de Mesa directed by Ruel Bayani, the network's evening soap operas Kung Maibabalik Mo Lang top-billed by the one and only superstar Mr. Nora Aunor and Tirso Cruz III and My Family's Lover starring the beauty queen Ruffa Gutierrez and Albert Martinez with a roster of Kasama talents Erin Ocampo, Jane Oineza, Andrea Brillantes and Ingrid dela Paz directed by Joel Lamangan; Pinapangako Mo, a drama anthology for the lucky-sender story hosted by Coney Reyes; a showbiz-oriented talk show Showbiz Ka! hosted by Pat-P Daza Planas and Nestor Torre; the local version of the top-rated game show The Million Peso Money Drop hosted by Rafael Rossel and The Price is Right hosted by Tom Rodriguez becoming the million peso prized game show on primetime; the late-night talk show Oh Yes!, it's Dennis with Dennis Padilla; the daily top-rated noontime variety show Chibugan Na! hosted by Randy Santiago, Marjorie Barretto, Hajji Alejandro and Chiqui Pineda together with today's hottest celebrities and stars; and the educational children show Penpen de Sarapen with Kobi Vidanes, Aaron Junatas, Angel Sy, Andrea Brillantes, Lance Angelo Lucido and Clarence Delgado.

The pioneered educational programs Eskwela ng Bayan targeted among younger children and elementary students. There four shows of Eskwela ng Bayan series: Karen's World tells about a talking female carabao (a carabao mascot for real) named Karen and a young man named Ingo (portrayed by Tonipet Gaba) about English and they met lot's of friendly characters showed also English lessons by animated pictures and examples in the setting took place in a province; Why? about a woman teaches people about Science and like in Math, she owns a laboratory; Solved with three kids who lived in the province tells about solving Math problems; and Alikabok tells about a young boy who lived with his grandmother tells about some Filipino stories and lessons too what the young boy didn't know about his grandmother is that she has magic too. For the first time Eskwela ng Bayan series for grade students in the covered court with the other students helped me alot achieve higher grades and best friend had the interest with programming for educational TV.

With the help of Solar Entertainment, RPN comes up with new and exciting programming became known for its World-Class US Primetime campaign, which was launched last year. This means RPN airs new seasons and new episodes of popular American TV series after its initial U.S. airing wherein popular foreign programs are shown in the Philippines in current with their US seasons. Viewers need not buy pirated DVDs or download from the Net as the episodes are shown about three weeks after their telecast in the U. S.

RPN has also kept its viewers updated by bringing into local television more series hits also airs top-rated US foreign shows on primetime such as Glee, America's Next Top Model, New Girl, The Vampire Diaries, Survivor: One World, 2 Broke Girls, Agents of Shield, Community, MacGyver, The Neighbors, Chicago Fire, NCIS, The Carrie Diaries, American Idol and The Walking Dead for the hir foreign series. It is the leader network which regularly airs the Hollywood blockbuster films, TV specials and concerts in Sine Nueve and Sunday's Big Event, and the telenovelas such as Mar de Amor and Porque el Amor Manda. It has a number of Asian dramas led by the Koreanovelas like Over the Rainbow, Wonderful Life and Dear My Sister. Of course, RPN also airs the MBA basketball games which has acquired new luster for the network, and also carry the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics this April, and Miss Universe beauty pageant.

With this development on RPN-9, we hope that local TV scene is enlivened beyond a two-network world. After all, IBC-13 and TV5 are doing with their own programming. Just a thought, a network has a consistent 25 to 30 percent of ratings, it will already rank No.3 to ABS-CBN and GMA-7 that n their ratings.

RPN-DXDX GenSan's winning duo vie for Boses Tinig Pinoy grand finals

Tuesday 11th of March 2014

GENERAL SANTOS CITY, March 11 (PIA)--- RPN-DXDX GenSan's bet for duet is up another step as the siblings emerged on top in the recently-concluded RPN's a cappella Boses Tinig Pinoy semi-finals at the Limketkai Mall, Cagayan de Oro City. In January this year, RPN-DXDX GenSan Boses Tinig Pinoy held its grand finals at SM Event Center here which named siblings Katherine and Felix Calixton as winners for the duet category to represent in the semi-finals.

The "a cappella" singing contest has two categories, the duet and the trio.

With pride, RPN-DXDX General Santos City station manager James Catalan said that they also vied in the trio but failed. "We didn't make it in the trio though, but that's rather okay since we did make it in the duet."

Catalan noted that the event in Cagayan de Oro was a great success and the experience was very enriching and full of fun as the contestants have gotten to know the other contenders from other areas.

"It was very overwhelming, we have much bigger crowd in CdO and they were very supportive and welcoming," he said.

According to Catalan, for the semi-finals RPN management decided to get five winning areas that would represent in the duet and trio categories. "But this is all in random, it all depends on the performances of the respective contestants and that is if they win."

The winning areas for the duet were General Santos City, Surigao City, Davao City, Cebu City, and Dipolog City. The cities of Cebu, Dipolog, Zamboanga, Bacolod, and Davao will compete in the trio category.

The winning duos and trios will travel to Manila for the nationwide grand finals on March 18 at SM Aura, Taguig City. The grand winners for duet and trio will each receive P1-million worth of prizes including a recording contract with PolyEast-Universal records.

Catalan however said that all regions where RPN stations are strategically based were well represented.

Aside from the cities of General Santos, Cebu, Davao, Dipolog, Surigao, Zamboanga, and Bacolod, other areas that joined also included Baguio, Pagadian, and Batac, Ilocos Norte.

Boses was aired over RPN's 12 radio stations in the country. It had its first launch in Baguio City in June last year, then in Cagayan de Oro City in July and in Batac City, Ilocos Norte. It was launched here in September at SM City General Santos.

The search was then open to all interested a cappella duos and trios, who can infuse their musical talent into the song they choose and interpret it with such power of emotions.

Selection and judgment were based on four criteria: quality of voice, 50; interpretation, 25; choreography, 15; and attire 10. Aside from thanking all contestants and those others that auditioned, Catalan also attributed the success of Boses Tinig Pinoy to all the sponsors, individuals and groups, who have supported the event since its launch. Thank You, for making us the leader network. The Kasama Network RPN is now the country's third leader network on primetime, per Kantar Media TV survey for the period of February and March 2014.

Bing Formento: Moving on with RPN 9

April 7, 2014

Solar Sports will use RPN as its carrying station for the MBA and KBL games. Tieng's station wins the bid, then expect him to make RPN, the sports and action channel to beat and they rated well.

The news content of RPN-9's news programs Arangkada Balita and Newswatch under the Media ng Bayan with the help of Solar Sports to provide sports news. Hence, with Solar Sports' purchase of blocktime hours on IBC 13. We see on the RPN news are products of the government network people. To answer your question though, yes, their sports news always feature the results of the MBA games shown that day.

RPN News and Public Affairs programs is under the media organization Media ng Bayan are strongly positioned to bring to ever-widening audiences the exciting, fast-paced and often turbulent events of the century. The network's programs that combine has outstanding talent, pluck, creativity and a greater respect for the intelligence and taste of the Filipino viewing public while RPN-9 with have the facilities to allow the broadcast of the MBA games, they would need a coveror to handle the actual games have the expertise of coming up with an extensive coverage of the games, particularly in the creatives part.

Veteran broadcaster and newsman Bing Formento refuses to the news broadcaster despite the challenges, and gears up to join RPN's broadcast team as anchor to their flagship news program: Arangkada Balita.

In 2013, Solar Sports, under new management, brought the rights and aired the MBA games on Channel 9 by buying airtime from RPN-9, the government-run network.

"I am constantly evolving," explained the experienced radio commentator calling back his humble beginning from DZRH and his gradual transition to RPN News and Public Affairs, the news organization under the media organization Media ng Bayan. "Yes, i want to be him a newscaster," was Formento's reply when offered the anchor opposite RPN's female news anchor Angelique Lazo.

Arangkada Balita, RPN's evening news program representing the all broadcast newscast in the primetime slot (6:30 p.m.), offers a Filipino viewers of the masses with the day's headlines in a national news, political news, crime news and police reports, CCTV reports, public service, global news, sports news, weather forecast and entertainment news. Formento and Lazo wherein commentaries and the news reportage in the traditional news programs that are set in the highly competitive early evening news and public affairs block as delivered by the reinvigorated news reporting teams of RPN News and Public Affairs.

Perfect Tandem

RPN News and Public Affairs team is a dedicated and highly professional group of men and women. When asked about her expectations on the newest tandem, Formento expressed high hopes and faith on the chemistry. "I listen to programs with Angelique Lazo and he is a very substantive woman."

No wonder. Angelique Lazo has been in the business and through networks for years, abreast with the quirks of the industry, and hailed by award-giving bodies as the Best Female Public Affairs Host (KBP, Golden Globe). Lazo has been the vanguard of RPN News' Arangkada Balita since 2000.

Known for the feisty and fearless commentaries on radio and television, Formento and Lazo has made a mark in the industry as they produced some of the biggest stories of the nation of our broadcast journalists and our regional and international bureaus will give the most comprehensive coverage of the day's events.

News Calling

"News is public service, especially with the amount of work you do and the coffee you drink."

As Formento is on TV and radio anchor, so RPN leaps ahead to challenge the next generation of Philippine broadcasting with an invigorated News and Public Affairs. Alongside Arangkada Balita, RPN is re-launching its most-watched, highly-rated and the longest-running English newscast: Newswatch now with the newest anchors Eric Eloriaga and Cristine Peczon on weeknights at 11 p.m.

Promising a strong competition, RPN has just acquired new state-of-the-art cameras that utilize discs instead of tapes, non-linear editing facilities, and a centralized server-based technology for its new programs. Aside from this, they also have satellite news gathering terminals with "flyaways" to be used in covering live events in Metro Manila, their provinces and remote areas, in addition to the OB vans, SNG vans and ENG vans that use microwave links to transmit audio and video.

To boost its news team, RPN producers, reporters, directors and writers have also undergone strict and rigorous training workshop on revolutionary news delivery headed by the world-renowned news head and the broadcast journalist Marigold Haber-Dunca.

Must' shows on RPN 9

April 7, 2014

Sports superstars, movie celebs in RPN's new programming

They come up with innovative shows to get ideas and talents by other networks (Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao, John en Marsha, Eat Bulaga!, Superstar, Champoy and Buddy en Sol), and those ideas get the higher ratings. Maybe because of the budget to properly market their shows. With Tieng in the picture, they have a large budget for marketing. According to reports, RPN-9 will be transformed into an all-sports channel on free TV for the male viewers. Going against the regular primetime programming formula of female flair, RPN gives out the kind of programs men truly fancy with sports, comedy, action and sexy-naughty.

Radio Philippines Network is celebrating its 54th anniversary this year. Sequestered Channel 9 started operating in 1960 but peaked as a commercial station in the '70s and early '80s at the height of martial law. Among its flagship programs were Superstar (Nora Aunor), John en Marsha (Dolphy, Nida Blanca), Champoy, Buddy en Sol (Eric Quizon and Reford White), Eat Bulaga! (Tito Sotto, Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon). RPN also started the Mexicanovela trend in local TV, topping ratings with Marimar. As we talked of the new shows, we also asked for comment to the number three in market share and ratings.

Now, that the government-owned sequestered media station RPN-9 has been in operation when the new management of Wilson Tieng as the chairman helps the partnership of Solar Entertainment Corporation is expected to be more visible in this network somehow, with design programming. Mostly, they will have imported foreign canned show, in which other dishes of Channels 2 and 7. It has also using the homework behind the marketing, licensing and merchandising, and programming of Channel 9 as well as the domestic and imported awards ceremonies to show the commercial stations aboard the government by adding more localized programs in its foreign canned series dominated roster in the niche of upscale to the market.

Wilson Tieng to invest millions to revive RPN-9. Many new programs now on Channel 9 breeding watching. Showbiz insiders believe that Solar Entertainment producer courage ran into the giant network.

Solar owner Wilson Tieng got on a large-scale plan to fill RPN-9 primetime programming lineup with locally produced shows. Since the sequestered broadcast station could pay debts to Wilson, he agreed to airtime swap. The award-winning channel has aired a number of American shows, telenovelas, Asian dramas and animes as well as original programs and local sporting events.

Rivera stressed that the unique strength of The Kasama Network's major player in the Philippine television industry is that it brings together the superstars of local sports with the leading lights of Philippine stardom in the television and movie industry under one roof, in a never-before-tried mix.

At the RPN headquarters at Broadcast City in Diliman, Robert detailed the future of the network and what great things this new board has in store, provided programming, packaged it and promoted it. Programming rode on the popularity of basketball tournaments of the MBA and KBL, as well as the boxing matches with the championship of Manny Pacquiao and other boxing stars. There is also the mixed-martial arts (MMA) Ultimate fighting Championship (UFC) and World Wrestling Entertainment. Beyond sports and action, as well, RPN intends to build increase its foreign canned programming on primetime entertainment. Think of it as meets the MBA. Hence, for the first time ever, the likes of basketball icons Johnny Abarrientos, Alvin Patrimonio and Marlou Aquino will join hands with the tinseltown's Angelne Quinto, Tom Rodriguez, Rafael Rosell, Nova Villa, Roderick Paulate, Cony Reyes, German Moreno, Albert Martinez, Aileen Papin, Raymond Lauchengco, Pilita Corales, Anthony Castelo, John Nite, Ruffa Gutierrez, Nora Aunor, Tirso Cruz II and Bayani Agbayani in a series of promotional efforts for the leader network.

One thing RPN already has going for it is a well-entrenched niche of local TV viewers - fans of sports programs and now seeks to build upon this foundation by expanding into a new area, that of local and foreign entertainment, by producing shows whose formats have a proven track record of success.

RPN 9 and Solar Entertainment Corporation to expand the tight competition that used to occur in which two television networks continues. With their fusion of strength, more than RPN 9 be secured their predominance as a strong provider of shows for A-B-C viewers for middle-class and upper-class.

Three soap operas debuted on The Kasama Network. Two primetime soaps which premiered on primetime is the mini-series Muling Ibalik ang Tamis ng Pag-Ibig (weeknights at 5:15 p.m.), starring the one and only superstar Nora Aunor and Tirso Cruz III with Agot Isidro and Lito Pimentel, directed by Ruel Bayani and Mervyn B. Brondial. Also starring with Lloyd Zaragoza, Bambol Roco, Raquel Villavicencio, Sylvia Sanchez, Randolph Stamatelakey and Tart Carlos. Directed by the award-winning director Joel Lamangan also partner Solar otherwise additional performances expected to strengthen further especially with shows.

Ever Saturday and Sunday at 8 p.m. is Boses Tinig Pinoy, the flagship reality show for the national singing contest competition hosted by German Moreno as Kuya Germs with Aileen Papin along with the judges are the singers John Nite, Pilita Corales and Anthony Castelo. The established talented singers for the best singing superstars such as Coleen Mangabat, Mhelrose Uy Johanna Miranda, Jasper Arizabal and Phoebe Faye de Guzman, Jasmine Santos, Alex Soller, Gina Ventura, Christian Paul Torqueza and Erickson Paulo, Christopher Mendoza and Ian Mendoza. The triumvirate of Ian Mark Corales, Dianne Paul Saberon, and Nina Claire Rivaca from Cebu and the duos Febra Sagarino and Rueda Haictin from Dipolog and Maretchen Vasquez and Esther Martinez from Surigao were the winners of the first Boses Tinig Pinoy singing competition organized by RPN-Radyo Ronda. The finals was held at the SM Aura Premier, Taguig City.

Other program movements: high-rating Arangkada Balita anchored by Bing Formento and Angelique Lazo now airs at 6:30 p.m. Newswatch, the most-watched, highest rated and longest-running English newscast anchored Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon, airs 30 minutes late-night at 11 p.m. Where public affairs program occupy the graveyard shift in other networks, they remain on late-night in RPN. head Marigold Haber-Dunca's Tell the People on Monday, Saklolo Abogado on Tuesday, veteran broadcasters Rey Langit and JR Langit's public service show Kasangga Mo Ang Langit, Rey Langit's travel show Biyaheng Langit and Ramon Tulfo's public service program Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo on Friday which it goes at 11:30 p.m.

Solar bought most of RPN-9's primetime slots. Weekdays starting at 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., kids get a triple treat as RPN presents anime back-to-back with Dragon Ball Z at 9 a.m., Crayon Shin Chan at 9:30 a.m. and K-ON! at 10 a.m. The anime wrap will feature a video jack (VJ) with the winner of a hottest young stars. RPN now offers a two-day world's Hollywood cinema screening: Sine Nueve (weekdays 12:30 to 2 p.m.) offers the best movies from top foreign movie production companies that is home to the biggest names in the entertainment industry, Bong Revilla Cinema sa RPN (Saturday afternoon 12:30 p.m.), a weekly presentation of an action-packed Pinoy blockbuster cinema featuring the box-office king-action star Bong Revilla's movies ruled the rating reigned as local TV royalty, and the Sunday night movie block Sunday's Big Event (Sundays 10:45 p.m.) promises an all-out collection of huge action movies top-billed by the big guns of the silver screen with action movie hits, award-winning films for musical extravaganzas are featured each week for your viewing pleasure sit back and relax as you watch your favorite movies, concerts, and other specials right in your own living room. Most-watched telenovelas: Mar de Amor (3 p.m.) and Porque el Amor Manda (10 p.m.), and the fan-based Koranovelas: Wonderful Life (3:30 p.m.) and Dear My Sister (10:30 p.m.). For those into sports, RPN has programs featuring the most popular sports offerings. For the country's favorite, basketball, RPN's banner television shows will continue to be its sports programs has:led by its flagship program MBA(Wednesdays and Fridays at 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., Saturdays at 2 to 4 p.m. and Sundays at 2 to 5:30 pm.) which Solarhas been producing for television and also features the popular KBL (Saturdays 10 a.m. to 12 noon and Sundays at 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.). For those are world-wrestling, RPN has WWE Bottom Line (Saturday at 9:45 p.m.) and WWE SmackDown! (Sundays 10 p.m.) will blow fanatics away as iron-boned wrestling champions are set. The mixed martial arts (MMA) and a latest boxing aficionados will love popular UFC: Ultimate Fighting Championship (Saturdays at 5:15 p.m.) and a best boxing matches of the fighters on Philippine television like World-Class Boxing (Sundays 11:30 am. to 1 p.m.) back-to-back with Pacquiao Flashback (Sundays 1 to 2 p.m.) with high-quality sports production in your favorite boxers. Get a load of all the sports Filipinos love. ATP Tour (Sunday 10:30 a.m.) for tennis.

RPN-9 has lined up American shows on primetime. While most networks are too preoccupied with grabbing rating points by putting on the air locally produced staff, RPN reserved the trend by going against the norm.

In foreign canned shows, RPN has the highest-rated US series: MacGyver (Mondays at 5:30 p.m.), the return of 24: Live Another Day (Tuesdays at 5:30 p.m.), NYPD Blue (Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m.), Community (Saturdays at 6:30 p.m.), NCIS (Mondays at 8 p.m.), Chicago Fire (Mondays at 7:30 p.m.), The Walking Dead (Tuesdays at 8:30 p.m.), Law and Order (Fridays 5:30 p.m.) Glee (Thursdays at 8:30 p.m.), Mission: Impossible (Saturday at 6 p.m.), more advanced the return of The X-Files (Mondays at 8:45 p.m.) showing their latest acquisition and the brand new show Revolution (Saturdays 4:30 p.m.), the huge reality shows Survivor (Thursdays at 5:30 p.m.) and American Idol (Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:30 p.m.).

RPN also introduced 13 brand-new locally-produced shows, including two comedy sitcoms, two popular local game shows based on the US franchise, a drama anthology, two soap operas, reality show, two musical variety show, two talk shows and a hit Bong Revilla's action movie featuring the heavyweights of the genre, in an aggressive bid to firm up its No.3 position and move up to the top slot in the industry.

Even though RPN-9 is a government entity, it is run like a private corporation. Rivera told us that the network receives no subsidy from the government. They generate their own revenues and income to support the station. Their partnership with Solar Sports brings sport fans a superior, digitally enhanced product that pushes them technologically ahead of its competition. More: two of top-rating sitcoms John en Nova top-billed by Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa (Saturdays at 10:30 p.m.) and Kemis: Kay Bayani Ako starring Bayani Agbayani (Sundays 5:45 p.m.), drama anthology serial Pinapangako Mo hosted by Coney Reyes (Saturday 9 p.m.), the popular and top-rated game shows The Million Peso Money Drop hosted by Rafael Rosell (Saturday 6:15 p.m.) and The Price is Right hosted by Tom Rodriguez (Sundays 7 p.m.), talk shows such as Showbiz Ka! hosted by Pat-P Daza Planas and Nestor Torre (weekdays 4 p.m.) and the late-night talk show Oh Yes, it's Dennis! with Dennis Padilla (weekdays 12 midnight) and the Sunday night musical variety show Superstar hosted by the superstar Angeline Quinto (Sunday 9:15 p.m.) continue to bring in viewers who will be treated to the reinvention of these local shows as they are elevated to the next level.

RPN-9 to mark 54th year

May 30, 2014

With Kasama Ako! tagline as its theme, RPN-9 will celebrate its 54th anniversary with a week of activities starting on June 1, at the RPN-9 studios at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City.

A major highlight of the celebration is a two-hour TV special entitled Kasama Ako!: RPN 54 Celebration which will feature the major talents discovered and developed by RPN-9 and who became legends or institutions themselves, as well as clips of the famous shows which also became famous. The TV special will be aired on primetime on June 1, the foundation day of The Kasama Network.

As a broadcast station, RPN-9 has excelled in four areas, among others:

1. Leadership in talent discover and development - RPN-9 discovered and developed the longest list of talents who started their careers in RPN-9 and became famous artists. Among them are Nora Aunor, Hilda Coronel, Snooky Serna, Tina Revilla, Maricel Soriano, Janice de Belen, Inday Badiday, Lino Brocka, June Keithley, Bert de Leon, Eric Quizon, Reford White, Tito Sotto, Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon, Harry Gasser, Loren Legarda, Ian de Leon, Lotlot de Leon, Rustom Padilla, Herbert Bautista, Manilyn Reynes Rina Reyes, Dolly Anne Carvajal, Gelli de Belen, Donna Cruz, Regine Velasquez, Dranreb Belleza, Dolphy, Maila Gumila, Nida Blanca and Lovely Rivero.
2. Leadership in programming - RPN-9 produced a variety of local shows which became the greatest hits, like John en Marsha starring the comedy king Dolphy and Nida Blanca, Nora Aunor's musical variety show Superstar, Champoy, Buddy en Sol top-billed by Eric Quizon and Reford White, the drama series for Hilda Coronel, Rosernarie Sonora, Snooky Serna, Boots Anson-Roa and Nora Aunor. The Filipino mini-series like Malayo Pa Ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao.
3. Other top hit variety shows were those of Tirso Cruz III, Tina Revilla, Jeanne Young and Sonny Cortez. Other musicals were Aawitan Kita, Carmen Soriano Show, Maggie de la Riva Show, among others. Spin-A-Win, Tic-Toc-Toe and Clubhouse 9 for children were institutions.
4. Broadcast leadership - RPN-9 brought the first slow-motion machine in 1973 to support the coverage of the MICA basketball games and the PBA games; it also encouraged the use of domestic satellite and the first to acquire "back-pack" cameras to encourage location shooting. RPN-9 also brought the country the first color outside broadcast van (OB Van). RPN-9 also became the leader in sports broadcast and the first to air a one-hour newscast Eyewitness News, which later became RPN-9's prime newscast Newswatch is the longest-running English newscast.

5. Leadership in innovative ideas - RPN-9 made the first experiment on development communication (popularly known as devcom) through its long-playing series John en Marsha. It also dubbed foreign drama series into Tagalog, like Kojak and has pioneered in several aspects of public service programs.
6. Since the resurging trend in 1996 with a telenovela La Traidora, Marimar and Maria la del Barrio which is starring Thalia, Simplemente Maria, Luz Clarita, Maria Isabel, among others.
7. There is the foreign canned series on primetime TV: MacGyver, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg, The Practice, among others.

'Marimar' returns to RPN-9

June 1, 2014

The repackaging of RPN-9: I think, decided that the management of RPN-9 need to have a stronger and more impressive niche in Philippine television so slowly but surely, you re-package them.

Just look at the DJs of the FM radio station 99.5 Play FM, playing the contemporary hit radio (CHR) and more OPM hits. It channels 2 and 7 are going for the masses. Is the strategy of RPN-9 to go for more intellectual viewers for a good one.

The Tieng-owned network has further opened its primetime to blocktimers and co-producers like Solar Entertainment, which is definitely good since network executives that can be into top-rating shows. Further hear that RPN-9 wants to beef up not only its entertainment shows, but also its news and public affairs programs. Personally like RPN-9 for coming up with really good original shows. They come up with very interesting ideas in case often. They both really lack marketing and more aggressive marketing for more maatract to viewers through producing shows and repackaging added new programs.

I'm tired of watching the shows from 2 and 7 craving for more intellectual from local channels.

GOOD FOR CHANNEL 9: RPN-9 has good shows intend to complete more viewers. After acquire the KBL and MBAgames, in attract more viewers of the Kasama network should invest more on genre shows.

The no.1 fans started the comedy and variety show, and some mini-drama and Mexican telenovelas like the popular star Thalia and the rest of our drama series brings back and their quality talk shows, news daily and update of our report, the blockbuster movies as well. Some of Mexicanovelas to rule again like Esmeralda, Preciosa, La Usurpadora and Luz Clarita with the popular child star Daniela Luna who grew up as an adult movie princess in Mexico and I wish that RPN got back in an old days that our rules all the top-rating shows in competing with the other giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA as well as IBC and TV5 showing the number 3 spot in the ratings game at the point even I wish that primetime shows of our network will rule again like telenovelas and variety shows will airs on 4 p.m. to midnight slot.

Go RPN! Kasama Ako!, more telenovelas and Koreanovelas as well. Acquisition of thye popular US programs are undergoing negotiations.

The Kasama Network will have a new station with a transmitter tower in Panay Avenue, Quezon City. Although they will retain the Broadcast City studios in Capitol Hills, Dlliman, Quezon City, the Panay Avenue will cater mostly to LIVE programs that is both accessible to the talents and audience.

Before that, RPN-9 competes with Thrilla in Manila, Olympic Games and Apollo Missions; the award-winning Filipino mini-series like Malayo Pa Ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao and Boracay, and with its local op-rating shows like John en Marsha, Superstar, Champoy and Buddy en Sol. Also the Mexican telenovela hits: La Traidora, Marimar, Simplemente Maria, Acapulco, Luz Clarita, Maria la del Barrio, Piel, Maria Isabel, La Usurpadora, Alguna Vez Tendremos Alas, Los Parientes Pobres, Esemeralda, Gente Bien, La Dueña, Luz y Sombra, Preciosa, Quinceañera, Serafin, Siempre te Amare and Maria del Cielo, showing an outstanding foreign canned programming (MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg, Chicago Hope and The Practice). Now that RPN-9 is still struggling I hope this year will be a good one for this channel.

Told us our friend, Wilson Tieng, the chairman of RPN set to relaunch the 2nd season of Boses Tinig Pinoy, the biggest singing reality search in Philippine television last May 31, 2014. Plans also said the TV networks do something of the natinowide and worldwide version. I personally feel that RPN should take a chance on getting a local franchise of American Idol. The yuppies are a great target audience especially now when singing contests in Philippine TV seem to be only focused on making pathways for 15-19 year olds. Yuppies, too, need Idols coming from the 20-28 year olds age bracket.

Gradually also now that Channel 9 especially given the third spot behind ABS-CBN and GMA.

According to Tieng, many new local programs are reportedly planning to launch RPN-9 this year to be more competitive they turn into the two giants. RPN-9 is now owned by telecom magnate Wilson Tieng.

Some of Thalia's popular telenovelas like MariMar, Maria la del Barrio, Quinceñera and Luz y Sombra. For those of telenovela hits like La Traidora, Acapulco, Luz Clarita, Preciosa, Piel, La Usurpadora, Maria Isabel, Esmeralda and Siempre te Amare becoming the huge margin.

The Kasama Network RPN-9 is set to bringing back the hit telenovela that started it all, Marimar starring the Mexican actress Thalia airing on June 2 from Monday to Friday at 6 p.m. This is part of the network celebration of its 20th anniversary of being the 'Home of Telenovelas'.

Netizens on Thursday expressed their excitement for the comeback of Marimar in the Kapinoy channel. RPN refreshed the viewers memory as a teaser video titled Marimar: The Ultimate Throwback was uploaded on YouTube. On Twitter Philippines, users were abuzz with the news that the hashtag #ThrowbackMarimar trended on Thursday. RPN-9 announced that Marimar rerun will start on Monday, June 2, 2014 with a new telenovela hits liek Mentir Para Vivir at 5:30 p.m. and Porque el Almor Manda at 10 p.m.

Marimar was a Mexican TV telenovela that was first aired in 1994 on Televisa with singer-actress Thalia in the title role. The series had 75 forty-five minute episodes, and is the second part of a "Maria" trilogy. The first was Maria Mercedes, Maria la del Barrio and Rosalinda. The rights were later bought by RPN 9, dubbed it in Filipino and re-broadcasted on a primetime slot on Philippine television. Pitted against industry giants ABS-CBN and GMA-7, Marimar caught the fancy of Filipinos and became a nationwide sensation. Intriguing is the fact that at that time, ABS-CBN and GMA's shows lord over television and their shows occupy a very huge chunk of the ratings pie. In came Marimar and shoved its rival's ratings. What made this foreign telenovela so special that it was able to do such? On the marketing perspective, what strategies were employed that led to the tipping of the ratings scale?

Since RPN-9 began to turn around in the year of 1996, thanks to the phenomenal Mexican telenovelas like Marimar and Maria la del Barrio that helped the broadcast network post a net income of P297 million that year. RPN then opened its programming to block timers, who bought airtime from the network. Solar has been aggressive in improving RPN's prime time programming by coming up with locally produced shows.

"We have been trying our programming formats to improve our audience share. Hopefully, with RPN, we will have better ratings," said Robert T. Rivera, the president and CEO of RPN.

A widely popular American TV series like Community, The Walking Dead, Smallville, The Big Bang Theory, Chicago Fire, 24: Live Another Day, Revolution and Law & Order. The Kasama Network also broadcasts the phenomenal reality contest Survivor and American Idol.

Based on media research group Kantar Media/TNS Philippines reports, RPN's audience share currently hits an average of 19%, at the bottom of the ratings charts behind dominant television companies ABS-CBN Corporation and GMA Network, Inc., which get an average of 54% and 43% respectively. IBC-13 (30%) and TV5 (22%) now also shares the number 3 spot in the ratings game. While not privy to government negotiations regarding the sale of RPN, Rivera expressed optimism that the changes in programming would boost the network's chances of being sold at a higher price than earlier estimates. The Kasama Network RPN-9 who brought Marimar, Maria la del Barrio, Luz Y Sombra and Quinceanera to the Filipinos hearts becoming the huge success on Philippine television as Thalia fans in the Philippines.

The government-owned station RPN-9 first aired a Mexican telenovela Marimar in 1996 singlehandedly altered the public's viewing habits and became the highest-rating telenovela in the country that usually reached massive a hit in the Philippines with ratings over 50% and peaking at 46.5% became the one of the well-loved telenovelas in Philippine television history.

Showbiz critics attributed Marimar's success to several of its qualities. First of all, the story was about a poor yet charming young woman who went through a slew of misfortunes brought about by her love for a filthy-rich hacendero. In the end, she discovered that she was the long lost daughter of a wealthy old man. This revelation greatly turned her life around, enabling her to exact revenge on her former tormentors, including her childhood love. It was the characterization of the heroine as an underdog that really tugged at the viewers' heartstrings. The plot, critics said, was flatly formulaic, but Filipinos naturally have a soft spot for the poor and oppressed. Audiences could easily relate with the sufferings of Marimar as a reflection of the socio-economic plight of the majority. Marimar's triumph in the end signified hope, and the fairy-tale ending satisfied viewers as an escape, at least symbolically, from their bleak plight as individuals and as a people.

According to Kantar Media, RPN national ratings during the telenovela's primetime slot (6 PM) increased by as much as 250% in total urban Philippines and as much as 239% in Mega Manila. Fans of the show have also blown up the micro-blogging site Twitter making subjects related to Marimar a constant fixture in the trending topics locally and worldwide. Thalia's physical features, as well as the other actors' faces, were as homespun as ours, another factor that contributed to Marimar's success. The actors became household names. Babies born at the height of the show's popularity were named after the characters of the soap; even pet dogs were named after Pulgoso, Marimar's loyal talking canine.

Among the cast, Thalia gained the most attention and adulation of local viewers, of course. As expected, her immense popularity called for her to grace the country with a show, which was highly feasible since she's a singer and a performer in real life.

Executives of RPN eventually confessed that they had gladly relented to give P1 million-plus-per-day for Thalia's expenses during her August 1996 visit. Of course, given the projected income generated by RPN during the show's phenomenal run, they could well afford to shell out the hefty sum.

The original Marimar telenovela will be replayed by RPN daily airing from Monday to Friday at 6 p.m. while a radio adaptation titled Marimar Radyo Novela will be broadcast over 15 RPN radio stations nationwide through Radyo Ronda in Tagalog and Cebuano versions.

RPN-9 launches new TV offensive

June 4, 2014

Competition for the bigger slice of advertising budgets is driving TV networks to come up with the most creative marketing gimmicks to capture advertisers' attention. First, IBC-13 announced its "homecoming" via a big bash at the Smart Araneta Coliseum. It was a dressed-up affair with food and drinks flowing, much in the tradition of the Canoy, Roa and Cruz of Manila's 1,000. Advertisers were treated to a spectacle - one, tapped and other, live, featuring the "Kapinoy Network's" new line-up of shows.

Not to mention, the leader network turned the Kasama network RPN-9 created a real sit a month later, when it invited advertisers and some members of the press to an evening cruise on Manila Bay aboard. Expectedly, the response from the invited guests was enthusiastic. Here, indeed was Channel 9's "captive audience," - once on board, it was vieryally impossible to slip out of the presentation.

RPN-9 presented its "longest 30-second", a compilation of the new programs to premiere on the leader network. Toppling the list are the telenovelas: Mentir Para Vivir, Marimar and Porque el Amor Manda; the Koreanovela Dear My Sister; new morning animes like Dragon Ball Z, Crayon Shin Chan and K-ON!.

Then, there are the bset-sellers of foreign canned series on primetime: Law and Order, 24: Live Another Day, Community, Chicago Fire, The Walking Dead, Mission: Impossible, Smallville, American Idol, Survivor and Revolution; and some sports programming fans: the MBA and KBL basketball games; the best MMA fighter UFC; and the boxing matches for the champion Pacquiao Flashback.

Viewers will also get the chance to see their movie heroes in memorable roles.

From the presentation it was clear that Channel 9 will continue to go the foreign canned series for the A-B-C audience. For this Philippine television, though, the station has developed several new local shows for C-D-E viewers (including drama, comedy, talk shows, reality and variety show).

We understand this will be co-produced by Wilson Tieng's Solar Entertainment outfit.

While Channel 9's popular localized programs are consistently in the magic circle as well (Pinapangako Mo, The Million Peso Money Drop, Superstar, The Price is Right, Boses Tinig Pinoy, John en Nova, Showbiz Ka!, Kemis: Kay Bayani Ako, Kwarta o Kahon, Arangkada Balita, My Family's Lover, Bong Revilla Cinema sa RPN), it have the majority of the top 30 programs. But no matter what. Insiders in the advertising industry tells us that RPN-9 is unique that ratings doing greatly affect spot buying. Even those programs which rate are heartily supported by advertisers. These are shows advertisers watch. This debunks the motion that only shows with good ratings can survive in local television. This is the home, at least, home of Channel 9.

The live presentation is a mini-variety show top-billed by the entire RPN-9 family: Tom Rodriguez, Angeline Quinto, Rafael Rosell, German Moreno, Boses Tinig Pinoy finalists are Coleen Mangabat, Mhelrose Uy, Johanna Miranda, Jasper Arizabal and Phoebe Faye de Guzman, Jasmine Santos, Alex Soller, Gina Ventura, Christian Paul Torqueza and Erickson Paulo, Christopher Mendoza, Ian Mendoza, Ian Mark Corales, Drianne Paul Saberon, and Nina Claire Rivaca, Febra Sagarino and Rueda Haictin, Maretchen Vasquez and Esther Martinez, Andrea Brillantes, Albert Martinez, Ruffa Gutierrez, Bayani Agbayani, Roderick Paulate, Nova Villa, Pat-P Daza Planas, Mr. Fu, Coney Reyes, Anthony Castelo, Aileen Papin, John Nite, Nestor Torre, the VJs are Ingrid dela Paz, Arron Villflor, Christine Serrano and Errol Albayan. Also on hand to meet the guest were RPN bossman and chairman Wilson Tieng and the president and CEO Robert T. Rivera.

Conspicuously was the comedy king Dolphy, Nora Aunor, Maricel Soriano and Eric Quizon.

To fans and viewers of RPN-9, your great fans scine you what started in all the best telenovela like Marimar and many others, I wish that your old program like Maria la del Barrio, Esmeralda, Luz Clarita, Preciosa and many other will return in 2014, I hope that all of those program will brings back the values and moral lesson in this coming 2014 will bring the shines of your old networks scines is difference managements like Solar, I hope that RPN-9 will return all those hits of telenovelas and blockbuster shows RPN-9 still the no.1 best telenovela and primetime show in the Kasama network to bring those telenovelas.

To keep up good work this 2014 and please bring back those best telenovela like Maria la del Barrio and other best films and great foriegn and local artist, I wish that those show will bring back good values and good moral lesson if us your new managements andreturn all the bets telenovela and cartoon in morning, afternoon and night at the best still no.1 forever.

In a show of gratitude for continued advertising support, Channel 9 raffled off three round tickets for two each to Hong Kong, Singapore and Tokyo. In addition, the station also gave out three tickets for two each to Hong Kong in exchange for entertainment numbers from guests.

The evening was a cool, special way to greet the summer and learn about Channel 9's new season line-up. Now that the two giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7 have given the advertisers in a show, once again in the number 3 spot is IBC-13, TV5 and RPN-9 also come up with to be them. Let's see the Broadcast City top these two sales blitzes. PTV-4 did they get the commercial networks to have popular shows as well.

Corazón Salvaje marks the return of TeleNovelas in 9TV

August 9, 2014

It has been more than 20 years since RPN-9 airs a telenovela on the network's primetime block. The trend-setting telenovelas that the Kasama network aired was La Traidora, Marimar, Simplemente Maria, Acapulco, Maria la del Barrio, Luz Clarita, Alguna Vez Tendremos Alas, Esmeralda, Gente Bien, Los Parientes Pobles, La Dueña, La Usurpadora, Luz y Sombra, Piel, Preciosa, Maria Isabel, Siempre te Amare, Maria del Cielo, Serafin, Quinceañera, Sin Ti, Monte Cristo, among others in the primetime timeslot. And now the network will bring back the family centered and intense drama theme of Latin TV series in its primetime schedule beginning August 11 with Corazón Salvaje. It will be in 9TV's primetime slot.

Corazón Salvaje will be airing after My Family's Lover and originally titled Wild Heart. It is a Mexican TV series that was produced by Salvador Mejía Alejandre in conjunction with Televisa and broadcast on El Canal de las Estrellas. Corazón Salvaje premiered on October 29, 2009, at 9:00 PM, and aired for a total of 135 episodes. The premiere earned 4.1 million viewers. Corazón Salvaje marks the return of Aracely Arámbula; she portrays the dual role of twins Regina and Aimée Montes de Oca accompanied by Eduardo Yanez. It is antagonized by Cristian de la Fuente, Helena Rojo and Enrique Rocha with stellar performances by Laura Flores, Osvaldo Ríos, María Rojo, René Casados and Elizabeth Gutierrez. The young protagonists, Gabriel and Jimena, are portrayed by Sebastian Zurita and Angelique Boyer. Corazón Salvaje, was written by Liliana Abud.

This telenovela is the fourth television adaptation of the classic 1957 novel of the same name which was written by Caridad Bravo Adams.

In the year 1851, María del Rosario (Laura Flores) falls in love with Juan de Dios San Román (Osvaldo Ríos), a humble fisherman, unaware that another man, Rodrigo Montes de Oca (Enrique Rocha), is in love with her. María del Rosario confesses her love for Juan de Dios to her sister, Leonarda (Helena Rojo), and tells her of their plans to wed, unbeknownst that Leonarda harbors a deep hatred for her sister because she is secretly in love with Rodrigo. Leonarda tells Rodrigo about her sister's wedding plans and he uses his influence with the authorities to stop the wedding and incarcerate Juan de Dios for life. While visiting him in prison, María del Rosario confesses to Juan de Dios that she is expecting their child. Rodrigo and Leonarda decide to confine María del Rosario to an estate by the sea. Juan de Dios escapes from jail and searches for María del Rosario but Rodrigo discovers their plans to escape and tries to shoot him.

Juan de Dios flees the estate as María del Rosario has begged; he swears he will return for her and their child. María del Rosario gives birth to her son whom Leonarda sends away to be raised in an orphanage while lying to her sister that the baby died. Upon hearing the news, María del Rosario spirals into insanity. Leonarda decides to deceive Rodrigo and pass her sister off as dead while locking María del Rosario away in the estate's basement dungeon. All the while, María del Rosario's son has been rescued from the jungle by Remigio. He adopts the boy as his brother and takes the child to be raised by Aurora who baptizes him as Juan de Dios, as requested by a note left with the baby.

Leonarda expects to win Rodrigo after her sister's supposed death. When Rodrigo responds by leaving Mexico, she decides to marry Noel Vidal (René Casados), Rodrigo's friend, who she does not love. After a few years, they have a son, Renato (Cristián de la Fuente). Rodrigo announces his return and Leonarda believes that he is returning for her, but to her great surprise, he arrives married to Constanza (Laisha Wilkins), who is expecting child. Out of jealousy and anger, Leonardo poisons Constanza. She dies shortly after giving birth to twins Regina and Aimée (both portrayed by Aracely Arámbula).

Time passes, in 1880, the now adult Juan decides to return to Mexico to fulfill the oath. Only now, he has the surnames of his adoptive parents. Juan meets Aimée, who is impressed with him and a torrid relationship full of eroticism and sensuality is born between the two, even though Juan portrays himself to Aimée as a humble poor man. Regina, Aimée's twin sister, disapproves of their relationship.

Meanwhile, Regina wants to marry Renato because she has been in love with him since childhood, but he is in love with Aimée, so Regina enters a convent and becomes a nun. Juan discovers eventually that Aimée is the daughter of his worst enemy and angrily rejects her. He then leaves so that he will not hurt her or her sister whom he considers innocent of their father's treachery. Aimée, rejected by Juan, marries Renato as she cannot live without the luxuries he offers. Juan decides he cannot live without Aimée and the passion he feels for her and decides to return for her. Upon his return, he learns of her marriage to Renato and decides to have revenge, but his passion for Aimée again defeats him, and an illicit relationship is established between the two. They decide to escape together, but when Renato discovers that Aimée may be cheating on him with Juan, Regina intervenes to save her sister by pretending to be the woman that Juan was secretly seeing. Renato thus obligates Juan to marry Regina.

Aimée searches for a way to win Juan back but he tells her that he feels nothing for her now because he has discovered true love with Regina. Aimée tries to find a way to get rid of her sister and Renato so she can have Juan. She gets caught drugging Renato as he walks in, leading Aimée to scream at him telling him everything about her affair with Juan and that she only married him for his money. Renato tries to choke her but she escapes his grip, and runs into the woods during a torrential thunderstorm. Aimée runs to the witch who gave her the potion to drug Renato and asks her for help. The witch says all she can do for her is to give her a horse that a merchant traded her for help. She then tells Aimée to run to the lowest part of the river stream and swim to the other side because that will distort the scent Renato's dogs have of Aimée and they will not be able to chase her. Aimée scurries and gets lost; she goes the wrong way and ends up high on a cliff above the beach. Renato, on horseback, with his dogs chasing Aimée, sees her on the cliff and tells her to stop. Aimée, intent on escaping, keeps going to the top of the cliff. The horse she is on gets scared and abruptly halts. The horse bolts, and Aimée falls off, rolling down the rocky cliff to her death.

Days later after Aimée's funeral, Renato discovers (by reading her diary), that Regina loved him since childhood. Jealous, determined to get rid of Juan, and annul his marriage to Regina, Renato pledges to win back Regina's love. Noel, his father, tries to convince him to end his struggle against Juan and accept Juan and Regina's relationship. Renato is unable to let go of his anger and jealousy and is convinced he can win Regina's love. He confronts Juan in a great battle in which Juan is victorious but disappears after falling into the sea. Arcadio attacks Regina and Renato intervenes, saving Regina but is mortally stabbed by Arcadio who escapes. Juan re-encounters Regina while Renato is dying in her arms. On his deathbed, Renato asks Juan and Regina for their forgiveness as he tried to separate them and annul their marriage.

Rodrigo locks Leonarda in the dungeons where she kept María del Rosario. He tells her she is going to pay for all the pain and suffering she caused; Leonarda soon dies from starvation. Rodrigo also kills Arcadio in the dungeons. Soon after, Rodrigo is captured and locked up for all his past atrocities. Noel visits him in jail and Rodrigo tells Noel that in one month, no less, he should go visit the dungeons as a surprise is waiting for him. A month later, Noel goes to the dungeons and is shocked to see the remains of Leonarda's corpse. Finally, a while later, Rodrigo dies in jail from a heart attack.

In the end, Juan del Diablo San Román and a pregnant Regina Montes de Oca get married. The now happy couple sets sail into the sunset on Juan's ship.

Corazón Salvaje airs on 9TV starting August 11 at 10:00PM after My Family's Lover.

9TV goes live! on August 23

August 22, 2014

RPN 9, their foundation as the leading TV network even further back in the contest ABS CBN. They still hold that the biggest stars led by Nora Aunor, Dolphy, Alma Moreno, Nida Blanca, TVJ, etc. Show Superstar indeed made RPN 9 the number 1 TV station of the 70's until the late 80's.

I wish that RPN would bring back on its own programming and to air again with US TV shows, a telenovelas, Asian dramas, animes, cartoons, movies, etc.

A quick click on the TV remote today on Channel 9 gives viewers a “timer” teaser on the new 9TV which would have it's launch tonight at 7pm tomorrow (timer says so).

Signing on tomorrow, Aug. 23, at 7 p.m. is 9TV and it promises an exciting and dynamic viewing experience for the Filipino audience. Kicking off the official sign-on will be a musical extravaganza featuring the country's biggest stars. "We realize that our target market is an active segment follow something on a daily basis."

They have entertaining shows are Malayo Pa Ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu, Davao, Boracay, Eat Bulaga!, Flordeluna, John en Marsha, Superstar, Champoy, Buddy en Sol, they did bring in such foreign canned shows such as MacGyver, The X-Files, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg, Chicago Hope and The Practice, telenovelas La Traidora, Marimar, Simplemente Maria, Acapulco, Maria la del Barrio, Luz Clarita, Preciosa, La Usurpadora, Maria Isabel, etc. RPN-9 were indeed enjoying good ratings with this shows during that time in terms of local shows.

He added that with the channel's new programming came the need for the network to change its brand name. The network had been known as Radio Philippines Network (RPN) 9 since 1960. The arrangement allowed the network to reformat its overall programming while at the same time provide enough room for innovations that would cater to a broader market.

RPN-9 becoming 9TV the newest force to contend with as it joins the league of free-TV channels in the country when it starts broadcasting its powerhouse lineup of shows this Saturday, 23 August 2014 at 7pm.

It will bring back its glory days under Cabangon-Chua, this marks the beginning of the channel's thrust to reach a wider audience and to strengthen its presence on free TV RPN 9 as the major player in the Philippine TV industry aimed towards a bigger audience, which is home to the KBL and MBA basketball.

The Kasama Network provides Filipino audiences with new, exciting and refreshing programs that will surely delight their TV viewing experience. The newest free TV channel caters to target the underserved demographic of 30 and aptly termed including those who are young at heart--generally the progressive Pinoys. 9TV promises to be your new home on Philippine television.

"We think we can attract a sizeable audience by providing a fresh alternative to the country's two major networks which seem to mirror each other's programming. We hope to provide shows that are different and more relevant to a youthful Filipino audience."

The newly repositioned TV station will be broadcasting using a 100kW transmitter. It was recently launched to the trade industry through an event attended by more than 1,000 movers and shakers from the advertising business as well as the stars from the channel's upcoming programs. The big trade launch showcased 9TV's new programming lineup, which was well received by the audience.

9TV was introduced to the industry through an event held August 16 at the SMX of the Mall of Asia in Pasay City. A musical extravaganza airing on Aug. 23 at 7 p.m. will inaugurate the newly dolled up network.

Television viewing is certainly getting exciting on the local front as a major player continues to break in the network duel scene and shakes the TV landscape. Since 9TV was launched with its new look and innovative programming in June 1960 and August 23, 2014, the network has steadily attracted more audiences, gaining substantially in both Nationwide and Mega Manila TV environments and eventually breaking away from the 'third player role' as it enters into the dominant networks' viewership battle.

Continuing to attract a sizeable viewership base, RPN-9 as 9TV targets the "Progressive Pinoy" audiences. These are the 30 year-old and below demographic segment belonging to the mass market C and D, who are open to change and are willing to try out new experiences, events, and discoveries.

True to its rallying call, Kasama Ako!, 9TV has successfully created waves in the Filipino's TV viewing habit—a fact that is supported by official Kantar Media from the TNS Philippines data, immediately placing RPN-9 at the No.3 spot in local network ranking, arriving with a remarkable 600% increase in magnitude of audience share since the channel's recent launch.

9TV was launched recently to the trade industry through an event attended by movers and shakers from the advertising industry as well as the stars from the channel's upcoming shows.

With the new slogan Kasama Ako!, 9TV ties up with the Malaysian local company to give a well-rounded and state-of-the-art shows to the Filipino worldwide. With the international channel RPN USA, RPN still lead by its the chairman Amb. Antonio L. Cabangon Chua and the president and CEO Benjamin Ramos, will have its turn to showcase its hidden desire to compete with Channel 2 and 7 with its new format of shows, new line of celebrities and new type of news anchoring.

Given these official data, 9TV has undoubtedly dislodged its closest rival at the No.3 spot and is on the right track to contend with the two leading networks with its steadily growing number of viewers who are satisfied with the programming shift that offers the best of light entertainment.

9TV dares Filipinos to shake their viewing habits

August 23, 2014

(From left) 9TV's Fall in Love for You's Empress Schuck, The Price is Right's Richard Gutierrez, Superstar's Angeline Quinto, Temptation Island's JM de Guzman and I'm a Princesa's Ingrid dela Paz are some of the stars who will bolster the station's chances of competing against the two local network giants.

Hip, fresh and definitely more exciting!

Those words perfectly capture the new look of RPN-9 as it alters its name to 9TV-boldly indicating the network's desire to reinvent itself and garner a bigger share of the market.

After Solar bought a massive chunk of RPN's airtime and virtually converted the channel into a crime and suspense platform, there was absolutely for kiddie audiences. For the first time in its history, the station could enter a single program in the Anak TV derby.

Two days after the grand press launch held last Thursday, August 22, at the C3 Events Place in Greenhills, San Juan, 9TV publicly introduced its new set of programs via a television special titled Kasama Ako, Basta't 9TV Ako!. The boob tube spectacle was taped at the SMX Convention Center of the SM Mall of Asia in Pasay City and was aired earlier today, August 23, at exactly 7 p.m.

Hosting the event were Richard Gutierrez of The Price is Right and Empress Schuck of 9TV's newest kilig teleserye Fall in Love for You. The young and dynamic team of RPN-9 and their executives, led by head honcho Tonyboy Cojuangco, were all present to partake in the celebration.

Kasama Ako, Basta't 9TV Ako!, provided a sneak peek of the network's 60 new shows that are all set to premiere this week.

The stars came in full force to introduce and talk about their respective shows. Mirroring the newly repositioned network's image, the occasion adopted a variety show format complete with games, dance and song numbers and band performances by Kaligta.

Some of the stars who showed up that evening includes Bayani Agbayani, Ingrid dela Paz, Arron Villaflor, Andres Brillantes, German Moreno, Coney Reyes, Roderick Paulate, Nova Villa, John Wayne Sace, Nikki Bagaporo, JM de Guzman, Pat-P Daza Planas, Kobi Vidanes, JB Agustin, Jillian Aguila, Diego Loyzaga, Christine Serrano, Errol Abalayan, Karen Reyes, Kim Gantioqui, Mariz Rañeses, Tom Doromal, Jazz Ocampo, Marc Carlos de Leon, Mr. Fu, Helen Gamboa, Bong Revilla, Anthony Catselo, Aileen Papin among many others. Boses Tinig Pinoy top finalists are Coleen Mangabat, Mhelrose Uy, Johanna Miranda, Jasper Arizabal and Phoebe Faye de Guzman, Jasmine Santos, Alex Soller, Gina Ventura, Christian Paul Torqueza and Erickson Paulo, Christopher Mendoza, Ian Mendozalan, Mark Corales, Drianne Paul Saberon, and Nina Claire Rivaca, Febra Sagarino and Rueda Haictin, Maretchen Vasquez and Esther Martinez, Hazel Faith dela Cruz, Kristofer Martin and Joshua Dionisio.

Dance number with the UP Pep Squad drew ooh's and aah's from everyone inside the venue while Angeline Quinto's Superstar number wrapped up the evening's presentation to wing Sana Sana.

The official station jingle Kasama Ako!, composed and performed by the pop superstar Angeline Quinto.

SHAKING THE STATUS QUO. The Kasama Network's overhaul was made possible after the Cabangon Chua-owned network entered into a long-term block airtime agreement with ALC Group of Companies, the Solar Television Network company and Solar Entertainment Corporation.

The tie-up allowed RPN-9 to boost its programming, which consequently bolstered the network's chances to compete against established network giants, ABS-CBN and GMA-7 along with IBC-13 and TV5.

According to Amb. Antonio L. Cabangon Chua (Chairman) and Benjamin Ramos, (President, CEO), the slogan Kasama Ako!, mirrors the network's objective of radically altering the public's boxed viewing habits. The young network executive shared that they're here to offer alternative programs to cater to the needs of those who are looking for something different aside from the usual flavor offered on the primetime slot.

"Our objective is to shake the TV landscape and be able to shake your viewing habits," said Mr. Antonio in a conversation with PEP (Philippine Entertainment Portal). "Ang maraming tao kasi akala nila Dos and Siyete lang, hindi, gusto namin ma-shake 'yong perception mo."

According to Mr. Antonio, RPN-9 is still handling the engineering side but Solar Entertainment Corporaton will be providing the content of the TV station. Pat Marcelo-Magbanua is now in charge of media relations for RPN-9 but Terra Daffon is still with corporate affairs of RPN-9. In the question and answer portion of 9TV press launch, Mr. Sy allayed fears that the TV station might be influenced by Malaysian investors. He explained, "RPN-9 is still owned by the chairman Amb. Antonio Cabangon Chua."

The primetime block of rival networks ABS-CBN, GMA-7, IBC-13 and TV5 are filled with telenovelas but RPN-9 promises to deliver varied shows that veer away from this genre. 9TV's schedule can be seen on their official Facebook You can also find the viewers' reactions.

"We want to give people an alternative. If we offer people another teleserye, pareho lang kami sa Channel 2 and Channel 7. I think they are serving their market very well but we just want to want to provide an alternative for people who wants to watch a teleserye on primetime." Starting tonight, August 23, 9TV now airs its new programming using its brand new 100kw transmitter that cost US2.6 million (about P117 million). This allows 9TV to be picked up in areas as far as San Jose, Cabanatuan in the north.

Survey: 9TV lands 3rd slot

August 26, 2014

MANILA, Philippines - 9TV, the newest Philippine television sensation and otherwise known as government-squeustered TV-radio station RPN-9, is now the No.3 most watched station nationwide, according to a survey conducted by Kantar Media/TNS Philippines.

In its first week of airing, 9TV captured 21.9 % of viewership in key cities according to the survey on Kantar Media National Ratings. ABS-CBN placed first at 50.2% and GMA-7 which landed the second spot at 42.3% Meanwhile, the country's number 3 station IBC-13 ranks the third spot with 34.1% audience share.

The study revealed stiff competition between TV5 and RPN-9, which placed two of third at 17.4 percent.

"We're grateful, but it's too early to say that we are where we want to be," RPN chairman Amb. Antonio Cabangon-Chua and RPN president and chief executive officer Benjamin Santos said on Saturday.

Sy said the network will continue to challenge industry norms by presenting novel programs. But he admitted that it would take a while for 9TV to become a "solid" third force. "We need to be consistent," Chua noted.

9TV is the new brand name of the sequestered media network RPN, which entered into a "long-term block airtime agreement" with ALC Group of Companies, the media company of Solar Television Network.

In a previous interview, RPN chairman Amb. Antonio Cabangon-Chua said the network aims to serve viewers aged 15 to 40 years old.

These were broadcast to coincide with the second half of the game on Wednesday and Friday. This coverage had ended since 2011 when RPN lost its PBA broadcasting rights to Studio 23. On February 16, 2009, former ABS-CBN news anchor Joyce Burton-Titular replaced Orly Mercado as anchor. Mercado was then able to focus on his duties as the network's President and CEO. The second time that a female anchor of the newscast since the time of Cathy Santillan, Cielo Villaluna and Cristina Peczon. On November 30, 2009, Radio Philippines Network (RPN) relaunched as Solar TV. Broadcast times were changed from 30 minutes to 60 minutes duration. From the usual twice a day times of 5:30 pm and 11:00 pm, it became once a day at 5:30 pm and Reema Chanco was engaged as an additional anchor. RPN NewsCap replaced NewsWatch Second Edition and started airing at midnight. In 2010, the timeslot was moved to back to 11:30 in the evening. It also continued to air on cable until February 25, 2011.

On March 2, 2011, after Solar Entertainment bought 34% of RPN, RPN relaunched as ETC. Alongside NewsCap, NewsWatch started to air only on free TV on the date at 5 pm as ETC had occupied the RPN frequency on all cable providers nationwide. But, it is still being managed to air only through Global Destiny Cable on channel 116, which was the frequency occupied by The Game Channel occupying the 5:00 pm timeslot. On August 15, 2011, two newscast began to air on BEAM TV Channel 31 as The Game Channel was simulcast on that channel. Its simulcast on that channel stopped on October 2011.

On October 29, 2012, NewsWatch and NewsCap had its final episode due to the impending privatization of the network and the controversial retrenchment of some employees of the network. However, NewsWatch is still used by RPN's radio AM Radyo Ronda for its newscasts. But in April 1, 2013, alongside Arangkada Balita, NewsWatch marked its return to the English newscast and the returning anchors of Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon as the news anchors and the timeslot moved to 11:00 pm introducing a new set, new logo, opening titles, modified its newsdesk and new graphics design

On April 7, 2014, NewsWatch introduced the first time to interview the tribute to the late veteran news broadcaster Harry Gasser dead at 76 for the first time will covered the updates about Gasser's death and wake in stroke as Harry was the face of RPN's main primetime well-respected news anchor on domestic satellite and NewsWatch is the highest-rated and the most-watched news program at that time was an icon in Philippine broadcast media when Harry passed away with the longest telecast in its history to millions of viewers worldwide. At the same time, NewsWatch started to celebrate its 44th anniversary.

44 Anniversary Celebration Edit

On August 25, 2014 during the network's re-launch as 9TV, together with Arangkada Balita, NewsWatch which will celebrated on its 44th year anniversary, reformatted with a new set, new logo, brand new studio set by placing its city background large added a Globe, new graphic design, new opening titles (featuring NewsWatch logos of the past and the present), new OBB, modified its newsdesk and new title cards. A retrospective segment was also added in to commemorate the best events covered during the first 44 years. It remains the highest-rated, most-watched and longest-running English news program at the time.

Commemorative activities include 44 marker openings in various parts of the country to honor the many important events marked in the first 44 years since 1970, and a fund-raising drive aimed at giving back to those who became part of the news coverages through the years.

Other prominent media figures who have made their mark on RPN News and Public Affairs: Bong Lapira, Babes Romualdez, Ramon Imperial, Joe Carlos, Teresa Guanzon, Ninez Cacho-Olivarez, Ernie Fresnido, Luchi Cruz-Valdez, Pat Lazaro, and Jing Magsaysay. In the past RPN news anchors such as, Dennis Cabalfin, one of the original newscasters of RPN started his news career in the 1960's; beauty, brain guts Cathy Santillan; the veteran news icon Harry Gasser was the face of RPN's main primetime well-respected news anchor; Buddy Lopa and Coco Quisimbing made their mark in the world of news; the dynamic duo Dodi Lacuna and Cielo Villaluna made the perfect pair in delivering news on RPN with the famous line That's the Way it is; former RPN news manager and the executive vice-president Frankie Abao became one the most known newscasters in the country; former news anchor Loren Legarda; and one of the most familiar faces on television and the broadcast journalist Lulu Pascual.

RPN goes Nationwide Phenomenon

November 21, 2013

Solar Entertainment Corporation announces that the government-owned RPN-9 becoming the worldwide phenomenon. Starting November 30, 2013, The Kasama Network showing on weeknight foreign canned programming in our multi-award-winning world-class hits in the viewership ratings. Solar is one of RPN's major block-timers and the companies which buys airtime from the network for their programs.

Joining the reunion comeback of the world-class hits are MacGyver, America's Funniest Home Videos, Roswell, Dharma and Greg, Ripley's Believe It or Not, Chicago Hope, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue and The Practice, and the hit telenovelas like La Usurpadora, Preciosa, Maria Isabel, Sin Ti, Marimar, Maria la de Barrio, Simplemente Maria and Luz Clarita.

With the move, Solar plans to boost the reach of RPN to viewers. According to RPN chairman Tieng and president and CEO Robert T. Rivera, by a new state-of-the-art analog abd digital 100-kilowatt Harris transmitter will be built for the TV network. Running at a higher capacity and with a higher elevation, this looks to boost Channel 9's reach to viewers in Manila by 50 percent. For the country transmitters in key areas such as TV-12 Baguio, TV-10 Iriga, TV-4 Iloilo, TV-8 Bacolod, TV-9 Cebu, TV-5 Cagayan de Oro, TV-5 Zamboanga, TV-9 Davao and TV-6 General Santos.

From Monday to Friday, RPN offers viewers the hottest, latest and freshest in popular and top-rated shows and episode's straight from the United States. Stay up to date in the world of entertainment with the channel's lineup of the world-class quality primetime programming via World-Class US Primetime titles that include: award-winning musical Glee, The Carrie Diaries, the hilarious sitcom's New Girl, Two and a Half Men, Community, Top 20 Funniest, The Neighbors and The Big Bang Theory, supernatural drama's The Vampire Diaries, the action-packed series The X-Files, Revolution and NCIS, a phenomenal horror series The Walking Dead, and the world's reality show such as Hell's Kitchen, Survivor: Blood vs. Water and America's Next Top Model.

This coming 2014 the channel is working on airing more of its popular series day and date with the U.S. just like the airing of its hit show Glee that Kasama fans air via satellite. The network is also home to the ABL and MBA basketball games have helped boost Channel 9's ratings. Adding to The Kasama Network's World-Class US Primetime line-up in January is the new season of reality cooking competition Hell's Kitchen, and the long-running reality singing-competition American Idol. Also joining the network's Indian horror-thriller TV series Aahat, a hit telenovela Rosalinda and Koreanovela Dear My Sister.

Viewers can also look forward to more big Hollywood blockbuster movies under the movie blocks of Sine Nueve, Saturday Night Playhouse and Sunday's Big Event.

As RPN-9 embarks on a stronger reach on the airwaves, they also look to conquering online too. Fans of the channel can log onto <http://www.blink-now.com> to watch RPN's free live streaming on a computer, with mobile services being rolled out in the coming months for even more ways to watch.

RPN-DXDX Boses Tinig Pinoy ends search in GenSan

Thursday 30th of January 2014

GENERAL SANTOS CITY, January 30 (PIA)--- RPN-DXDX Boses Tinig Pinoy has made another mark of success as it held its grand finals Saturday (Jan 25) at SM Event Center here concluding the “a cappella” nationwide singing search in this area.

The a cappella singing contest has two categories, the duet and the trio.

RPN-DXDX General Santos City station manager James Catalan said the event was a success gaining loud applause and rave reviews from the audience.

“We have a big crowd watching the contestants competitively showing talents and trying their best to win the championship,” he said. Of the four pairs who competed in the duet, siblings Felix and Katherine Calixton were named winners for the category.

Reniel Fernandez, Jay Zayco, and Darwin Amistouso defeated the two other groups for the trio category.

The board of judges for the search was prominent local music experts and trainers. The selection and judgment were based on four criteria: quality of voice, 50; interpretation, 25; choreography, 15; and attire 10. The contestants in the grand finals were the winners in the September, October, November, and December 2013 monthly finals.

The search, which started in Gensan in September last year has been open to all interested a cappella duos and trios, who knew how to project themselves and interpret the song emotionally.

Boses is aired on RPN-9 and over RPN 9's 12 radio stations in the country and had its first launch in Baguio City in June last year, then in Cagayan de Oro City in July and in Batac City, Ilocos Norte. It was launched in GenSan in September. Catalan said the winners here will be fielded for Mindanao-wide championship in Cagayan de Oro City on February 22, 2014.

“They might get the chance to travel to Manila for the grand championship if they win in this competition,” he mused. According to him, the Manila grand championship will be on March 19.

Catalan also expressed his gratitude to all contestants and those that auditioned for the contest as well as the search sponsors topbilled by SM City General Santos, the local officials, and the private sectors and individuals, among others. The Kasama Network turns the corner, gears up for competition

The Kasama Network Radio Philippines Network (RPN) is the member of the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP), posted profits of P15 million in the first half of the year, a turnaround from the full-year loss of P10 million incurred in 2013 with the Golden Age of Philippine Television, as it is more popularly known to millions of listeners and viewers of its varied programs celebrates its 54th anniversary as a leader in the Philippine Communications industry. Viewed from any perspective, such increase in number indicates growth in listenership and viewership of a considerable magnitude and scale. That growth can rightfully be attributed to a work ethic guided by a fine sense for balance programming, an openness for innovative ideas, and a talent discovery and development.

As home to the freshest US episodes of established TV series and MBA basketball, RPN cemented its status as the coolest and hippest free TV channel in a country that is still predominantly without cable TV service with a mixed formula of the Philippine television programs and mixed a Filipino-American programming. Filipino deserves balanced, quality programming, innovative and creative shows, and sports.

RPN has 9 TV stations located in the cities, TV relay and translator stations in Iriga and 12 other population centers in Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao and 15 radio stations strategically spread out over the archipelago. "Providing responsible entertainment and information is part of RPN's mission and vision, and balanced programming is necessary to achieve this mission refreshing change from the traditional," says RPN president and CEO Robert Rivera which said fighting it on ABS-CBN and GMA.

As the poineer in balanced programming, the governmwnt-owned sequestered TV and radio station RPN-9 claims to be the leader network in the country that with the reputation of offering Filipino viewers the best balanced of program that combines from the top-rating local and foreign entertainment, family friendly values, up-to-date and responsible delivery of news and information, public service and educational.

We want to commend Mr. Wilson Tieng of Solar Entertainment to its bold steps to invest for reinvigorating the RPN-9 by producing more programs among local and foreign canned shows. If the giant TV networks ABS-CBN and GMA are the major TV networks in the country and follow him IBC and TV5, not far pursued to catch RPN-9 due to aggression that Mr. Tieng to restore the major TV network RPN-9.

Just watch for the preparation of RPN 9 by Wilson Tieng of Solar Entertainment and participate in network war. Now just to be retrieved are many artists that they will feature many local shows begin to air. The actor big name appears as the television stations that appear. Solar Entertainment to grow viewership of The Kasama Network to led the performance of television programs.

Roebert T. Rivera, RPN president and CEO, expects more robust performance toward yearend as the unit estimates a net income at least P5 million for the third quarter alone. He attributes the years record revenues to better programming, acceptance by its target viewers and positive perception of advertisers with its niche foreign language programming draws high numbers via American TV series and programs that appeal to young, upscale and masses viewers, said RPN chairman Wilson Tieng.

RPN broadcasts all English language programs through a nationwide network of VHF stations. In a survey conducted by Trends, RPN emerged as the number 3 station among the A-B socioeconomic group and also among the A-B-C classes in the upscale and masses age group. In terms of image among the A-B-C-D-E respondents, the station under most exciting and in the category hip and cool and the number 3 spot, next to ABS-CBN and GMA along with the number 3 runners of IBC and TV5, according to the recent survey of Kantar Media. The industry perceives RPN-9 as a trailblazing phenomenal TV station owing to its innovative concepts, flexibility, and introduction of new, high quality products both in terms of programs and advertising opportunities. The station has also improved its signal quality tremendously. It owns and operates 10 broadcasting stations throughout the Philippines and 15 radio stations.

As the network who brought us such Filipino mini-series Malayo Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao, classic TV shows John en Marsha, Ang Bagong Kampeon, Eat Bulaga!, Superstar, Flordeluna, Champoy, Buddy en Sol, Young Love, Sweet Love, among others. RPN aims to deliver more quality programming that is basically pro-people and pro-service. RPN's strength lies in its inventory of programs based on foreign produced primetime programming materials which was conceptualized in the 80's. The programming scheme proved to be a resounding success which later on become a major marketing play in attracting advertisers. RPN was a big player in the local broadcast industry with several shows and special coverage in its fold. It aired special coverage like the Olympics, Thrilla in Manila and the Miss Universe beauty pageant. Starting the telenovela craze of soap operas like Quinceañera, Marimar, Maria la del Barrio, La Traidora, Maria Isabel, La Viuda de Blanco, Piel, Luz Clarita, Monte Cristo, Preciosa, La Usurpadora, Siempre Te Amare, Simplemente Maria, Maria del Cielo, Sin Ti, Luz y Sombra and Serafin, and the outstanding foreign canned series like MacGyver, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, The Practice, Dharma and Greg, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, among others.

Due to our continuing investments in better facilities and transmission equipment, The Kasama Network now has a strong signal that is as crystal clear as anyone else's in Mega Manila. Mega Manila is not only Metro Manila but also includes the surrounding provinces such as Bulacan, Pampanga, Cavite, Rizal, Laguna and Batangas, Quiogue says. He adds that the VHF channel now has the third most extensive reach nationwide, behind ABS-CBN Channel 2 and GMA Channel 7 along with number 3 slot of IBC and TV5.

Wilson Tieng's Solar Entertainment for Television is going to shoot for the third slot network through the branding campaign Kasama Ako! launched yesterday over RPN-9. This will be change and bring a fresh brand of entertainment and excitement to televiewing. RPN indeed gambled in choosing to air this telenovela because it's undeniably distinct from the other networks are airing to see that RPN is willing to take a risk as great as this for the Filipino viewers in this kind of effort from TV stations to bring productions to the intelligent people that will turn them into more critical viewers.

By and large, the top talents, executives and programmers of the other networks: the Kasama talents and homegrown stars such as German Moreno, Aileen Papin, Rafael Rosell, Tom Rodriguez, Angeline Quinto, Dennis Padilla, Mr. Fu, Coney Reyes, Roderick Paulate, Pat-P Daza Planas, Joel Torre, Nova Villa, comedian Bayani Agbayani, Nestor Torre, beauty queen Ruffa Gutierrez, Randy Santiago, dramatic actor Albert Martinez, Marjorie Barreto, Arnell Ignacio, the Asia's queen of song Pilita Corales, Hajji Alejandro, the one and only superstar Nora Aunor, Tirso Cruz III, among others.

Topping the re-engineering of its programming is Arangkada Balita, the primetime Filipino newscast in the treatment of Filipino masses and Newswatch, the longest-running English newscast for upscale audience which revolutionized the TV newscast. RPN's relaunch in 2014 as the Kasama network proved to be a network in the ratings ladder and captured ranked the number 3 spot, all the top 15 slots in the ratings were the station's locally-produced programs, like Boses Tinig Pinoy, Superstar, The Million Peso Money Drop, Chibugan Na!, Jose Rizal, The Price is Right, Roderick en Nova, Mister Kemis Bayani, Oh Yes, it's Dennis!, Jose Rival, Kung Maibabalik Ko Lang, My Family's Lover, Penpen de Sarapen and Pinapangako Mo in its presence with the introduction of innovative and creative programming in an area increase their wonderful production when foreign shows dominated continues in their primetime line up got the primetime block of Solar for RPN. at least, people would have more choices should find a programming of ABS-CBN and GMA.

Music programs of MTV for 1.5 hours in the morning and midnight, Hollywood movies on weekends and the MBA basketball games every Wednesday and Friday nights and weekend afternoons for the action-packed sports programming, animated shows and Japanese animes every morning, and foreign shows in the evening (RPN's primetime block), local shows every weekend with two Pinoy soap operas on weeknights, and TV specials and concerts to watch.

Known for its signature English-language programming, mostly consisted of imported shows and Hollywood blockbuster movies from the US. Meanwhile, Solar Entertainment became a household name in the local cable front with its roster of niche specialty channels catering to the same audience as that of Channel 9.

To cater to its active target audience, Pioneered in the country the now-standard practice of fast-tracking programs from the US to well within 1-2 weeks after their broadcast stateside. The network called this World-Class US Primetime. Alongside it was the introduction of an online on-demand streaming service that carries basically every show of the network Kasama on Demand TV, which was way ahead. From Monday to Saturday, ETC offers viewers the hottest and latest shows and episode's straight from the United States.

RPN directs programming toward a young, upscale and mass audience in which specifically targeted by the leading VHF channels. It is the station of choice for advertisers who want to reach affluent audiences. It broadcasts some MTV per week of airtime, airs Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA) games four times a week and shows strong of top-rating foreign canned programs from the US such as popular shows bolstered RPN's line-up of viewer favorites in the world of entertainment with the channel's lineup of match-airing titles like Glee, America's Next Top Model, New Girl, Community, Hell's Kitchen, American Idol, NCIS, The Walking Dead, 2 Broke Girls, The Vampire Diaries, Chicago Fire, The Neighbors, Beauty and the Beast and Survivor to satisfy the clamor for immediate airing of new seasons, these hot programs are aired on television in a way RPN can deliver revolutionary World-Class US Primetime, hooked its audience by delivering the latest seasons and brand new episodes as they are aired in the US.

Fondness for gimmicks brought large gatherings and impressive participation figures, a testament to The Kasama Network's credence in assembling the youth for its on-ground events, parties, concerts and promotions. Through online social networking, RPN kept close tabs with its Kasama talents and stars, ensuring that RPN will always remain fresh, hip, mass and in-demand, a hit telenovelas Mar de Amor and Porque el Amor Manda, and Koreanovela hits He's Beautiful, Can You Hear My Heart and Dear My Sister.

Quiogue believes the station will maintain its competitive edge not only over other free channels (both VHF and UHF) but also over cable channels which target the same young audiences. Advertiser wants to focus on the affluent or the youth, RPN can offer him a complete array of program options, he concludes.

Annual of The Kasama station

March 8, 2014

THE LEADER NETWORK

From day one, it has been a rapid ascent for the newest kid on the broadcast block.

Millions and billions poured into technology, facilities, programs, privatization, talents and people resources. 10 stations and affiliates and more than 25 cable stations tie-ups in a year.

The RPN Transmitter which changed the skyline of Panay Avenue in Quezon City.

No.3 in the chart in the months over the new world-class and quality primetime programs developed and produced through the years. Continuing investments to improve reach, programs and systems, Enough reason for IBC to proclaim itself "the leader network." A claim affirmed by the TV viewing public, whose perception of RPN-9 largely pertains to its phenomenal growth and home of the MBA basketball games.

At the close of the year 2014, RPN performed better than expected.

Proof of growing confidence in the network - sales increased by 35% over 2013, while airtime sale to blocktimers rose by 300%. To cope with burgeoning demands, The Kasama Network increased its manpower force by about 25%, beefing up critical areas of operation.

A WORD FROM THE CHAIRMAN WILSON TIENG

As we enter 54 Years of operation, a number of thanks are in order. So on behalf of the RPN family, allow me to say a heartfelt thank you.

First, to the millions of Filipino viewers whose patronage captulted us to the No.3 Top TV Station inbarely the months. To our advertisers, whose confidence and support helped us secure our footbold. To our directors and stockholders, who understand the demands of the capital intensive, highly competitive broadcastindustry, and stand foursquare behind us. To all our friends who had faith enoughin us to say we could do it, when many claimed i ouldn't be done.

With God's help and your continued patronage, we will sustain the gains of the past 54 years. We are prepared to face the challenges of this dynamic industry, as well as keep in step with new target upscale and mass market developments and new technologies. The contracts constitute RPN's biggest source of income and revenues of net profit like Solar Entertainment Corporation.

The Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA), Solar Sports and the state-owned TV station RPN, are set to sign an agreement which are being televised on RPN for the telecast of MBA games every Wednesday and Friday nights, Saturday and Sunday will likely raise the floor price for Channel 9 in the buyer values ratings. "It would also give the buyer time to work on his own programming."

The growth of The Kasama Network during the past fifty-four years underscores the vital importance of media, particularly television, not only as a vehicle of information and entertainment but also as an agent of social, political and cultural change that contributes to natural development and progress. We commit ourselves anew to being a responsible member of the media community and of the Filipino nation at large.

It takes a lot of faith to make The Kasama Network. Faith in ourselves. And your faith in us. We trust that we have both. Wilson Tieng, The Newest Chairman of The Network.

The radio counterpart 99.5 Play FM, RPN's FM radio station entered a partnership with Real Radio Network Inc. launched at the same time of the network. RPN took over the management of Real Radio Network, Inc. stations; relaunched as the FM radio station on April 1, 2013 as 99.5 Play FM.

RPN acquired a new franchise to operate under Republic Act 7831 signed by President Noyoy Aquino III on nationwide satellite broadcasting in over 34 regional TV stations nationwide and creating with RPN's Radyo Ronda in the radio broadcasts for the AM radio stations DZKB Radyo Ronda. In a surge of phenomenal growth, RPN earned a reputation as The Kasama Network among the ranks of the strong number 3 in the overall TV network rating challenge the dominance of the broadcast industry leaders with a programming that combines the America's certified hits, hit telenovelas, asianovelas, animes and all station-produced local programs. Its creativity and innovation have resulted in numerous long-running program successes on the challenge of revolutionizing the broadcast landscape including a stronger of local news and public affairs programs, high-quality entertainment, the broadcast equipment, and the acquisition of broadcast rights of the two basketball leagues such as the Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA) games. Additionally, the network also launched a new advertising campaign and slogan, Kasama Ako!, which the new lineup as being more distinct being aired by its competitors at the time.

Part of their success can be attributed to their carrying of the anime franchise Yu-Gi-Oh! and K-ON!, which effectively revitalized Filipino interest in anime. Amid the escalating network war, RPN succeeded in gaining a foothold, as the dark clouds of the Asian crisis loomed in the horizon.

Number 3 Post Sustained

The two dominant players in the Philippine television industry despite the network war, RPN-9 has been to maintain a secure and stable niche in the business. Since its inception in 1960, it has been a pioneer in broadcasting satellite as well as top-rating and trailblazing programming. RPN introduced such first as accucolor and non-stop programming. The first to use the satellite to become a truly national network. RPN has six TV stations located in the cities, TV relay and translator stations and 12 other population centers in the Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao and 15 radio stations strategically spread out over the archipelago as the AM radio station band DZKB Radyo Budyong 1422 and the FM radio station 99.5 Play FM.

Radio Philippines Network, Inc. or RPN, as it is more popularly known to millions of listeners and viewers of its varied programs celebrates its 53rd anniversary as a leader in the Philippine Communications industry. Viewed from any perspective, such increase in number indicates growth in listenership and viewership of a considerable magnitude and scale. That growth can rightfully be attributed to a work ethic guided by a fine sense for balance programming, an openness for innovative ideas, and a talent discovery and development.

The Radio Philippines Network (RPN) television station Channel 9 (RPN) recently firmed up its No.3 slot inched in the ratings of the giant networks in the latest Kanar Media survey. The No.3 position sustained RPN line The Leader Network echoed its newest slogan for 2014, Kasama Ako!.

As the network who brought us such classic TV shows as the Filipino mini-series Malayo Pa Ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao, a hit telenovelas Marimar, Luz Carita, Maria la del Barrio and Simplemente Maria, an outstanding foreign canned series MacGyver, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg and The Practice, the unforgettable Filipino shows like the sitcom John en Marsha, Eat Bulaga!, Superstar, Champoy, Ang Bagong Kampeon and Buddy en Sol, among others. RPN aims to deliver more quality programming that is basically pro-people and pro-service. Today, it is the local "home network" in the cream of the crop for English-language foreign canned programs: Glee, America's Next Top Model, Community, The Vampire Diaries, New Girl, 2 Broke Girls, American Idol, Survivor, The Carrie Diaries, Beauty and the Beast, The Neighbors, The Big Bang Theory, Chicago Fire, MacGyver, NCIS, The Vampire Diaries and Agents of Shield are the popular, top-rating award-winning and multi-awarded RPN foreign shows in the phenomenal growth.

Robert Rivera, the president and chief executive officer (CEO), said the network will maintain its present programming. "Our first priority is to institute much-needed structural changes in the network and make it ready and able to meet larger challenges. Also, to give televiewers and advertisers what they rightly deserve such as programming and service that is people and anchored on much improved News and Public Affairs programs," says Rivera.

RPN's strength lies in its inventory of programs based on foreign produced primetime programming materials which was conceptualized in the 80's. The programming scheme proved to be a resounding success which later on became a major marketing play in attracting advertisers.

"Producing our own local programs, top stars and talents as these are mostly under exclusive contracts with the dominant channels. Those that are free from the movie outfits excessively talent fees that through TV broadcast," he says. Rivera, who has been in the business for 24 years, said his basic plans for the network include protecting, preserving and enhancing the interest of the network within the company.

"Future projects for The Kasama Network at present as you know, the government plans to the privatization efforts. planning for network. What is important to us now is to preserve and enhance the value of the network so that would-be owners can be asked to pay a just price for it" says Rivera about competition and wants its presence felt in the ratings game.

He also added that RPN use add-on media values in luring advertising support. "By packaging our anchor programs with other network programs, we will bring effective costs and make us competitive. Add to this the add-on values like creative licensing and merchandising, brand-bugs, built-into-the-program credits then we have a very viable package. The realities dictate that we continue to pursue this line. The dominant channels are resorting also to schemes to enhance their potentials," says Rivera. On its 53rd anniversary, Rivera and the rest who make up RPN-9 brace for greatest opportunities that the new millennium will offer, which occupies the slot of Channel 9 on the VHF band.

According to its marketing manager Monica Llamas, the fledgling network will produce more local programs as well as its foreign canned programs still on primetime TV. We have several in the works. We are planning soap operas, drama anthologies, sitcoms, musical variety shows, talk shows, game shows and reality shows for the superstars, Llamas told Inquirer Entertainment.

Through the years, RPN-9 sustained its viewership ratings and now a strong and certified number 3 position in the TV industry behind Channels 2 and 7, based on the recent surveys of Kantar Media/TNS. The country's fledgling network has made a dent on the viewing audience. Has started to hit the right track record in its present programming and home to the sports programming of the popular regional basketball game league Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA).

RPN maintains a close ratio between its foreign canned programs on Philippines primetime television history and the station's locally-produced shows. Being an active buyer in the world's video marts, The Kasama Network has a wide inventory of top-rated foreign series as well as specials, concerts and Miss Universe beauty pageant. It is very aggressive in local program development. RPN airs the MBA basketball games every Wednesday and Friday from 7:30-9:30PM, Saturdays at 2:30-4:30PM and Sundays 1:30-5:30PM. The MBA teams represent a particular city, province and island in the country.

The teams are grouped into two conferences: Northern (Luzon and Metro Manila) and Southern (Visayas/Mindanao). The MBA had adopted several methods of determining its champion. The season concludes with the MBA National Finals, where the Northern Conference champion faces the Southern Conference champion to decide the MBA Championship that the regional basketball league. Since started in 1998, the Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA) is the world-renowned basketball league now is on its 15th year under Solar Sports, the ABL and MBA's television partner in partnership with RPN, expect the Kasama Network to bring this long-running and national pastime to even greater heights and is definitely pushing for more excitement for the coverage of hardcore basketball games with a Filipino sports fans. Without a doubt, the MBA fulfills the promise of more than scream-your-lungs-out kind of games.

It has Northern Conference: Batangas Blades, Laguna Lakers, Manila Metrostars, Nueva Ecija Patriots, Olongapo Volunteers, Baguio Stars, Pampanga Stars, Pangasinan Waves, Pasig-Rizal Pirates and San Juan Knights; and the Southern Conference: Cebu Gems, Davao Eagles, Cagayan de Oro Nuggets, Iloilo Volts, Negros Slashers and Surigao Warriors.

MBA basketball resulted in consistent double digit ratings and a solid audience share despite appeared to be a decline in the overall popularity of basketball and the troubles besetting the league. The MBA had adopted the several methods of determining its champion in the home-and-away play format in the Philippine basketball landscape. The season concludes with the MBA National Finals, where the Northern Conference champion faces the Southern Conference champion to decide the MBA Championship. Foreign canned shows have helped boost Channel 9's ratings at the number 3 spot.

It was more economically viable for RPN to carry its own programming instead of the MBA games in partnership of Solar Sports, for the network's television channel in the upscale market. The Kasama officials said they will weave the coverage of the twin MBA opening hoopla into mega presentation live on RPN via the network's state-of-the-art broadcast satellite facilities.

It also enjoys good relations with blocktimers and co-producers by Solar Entertainment Corporation, who further widen its programming birth. Being young and upscale, RPN has drive and dynamism of one in a hurry to go places. In a span of the months, it has developed close to the local productions (drama, comedy, talk shows, variety shows, game shows and reality shows), with more than potential chartbusters due to premiere on quality primetime TV.

These are: the reality show for national singing contest Boses Tinig Pinoy (Saturday at 8:30PM and Sunday at 8:00PM) hosted by German Moreno with a panel of judges of Aileen Papin, Anthony Castelo, John Nite and Pilita Corales for the singing superstars discover talented singers were the standards they upheld in the show's host, judges and contestants encouraging the youth, in school and out of school, members of campus and church choirs, and other talents, age 15 and above to join the search in nationwide radio and TV search for the best in a capella while auditions are held daily in all provincial stations nationwide with a capella duet and trios coming from the 12 regions of the country will take home P1 million peso cash prize with a talent management contract with RPN through Talent9 and a music recording contract of Polyeast-Universal Records for the nationwide winner of Kasama singing champion; Roderick en Nova (Saturdays 10:15PM) which puts together in one sitcom today's top stars of comedians Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa under the direction of Al Quinn; Mister Kemis Bayani (Saturdays 11:00PM), a top-rated comedy sitcom starring the comedian Bayani Agbayani with a powerhouse cast of Cherie Gil, Miggu Moreno, Gary Lim, James Blanco, Izza Ignacio and Luis Gonzales directed by Epi Quizon; and Dobol Trobol (Saturday at 11:45PM), a late-night gag show with the combined RPN talents of the comedians Arnell Ignacio, Mr. Fu, Brod Pete and Gio Alvarez directed by Bert de Leon. A showbiz-oriented talk show Showbiz Ka! (Weekdays at 4:30PM) hosted by Pat-P Daza Planas and Nestor Torre; and the late-night talk show Oh Yes!, it's Dennis (Sundays at 10:00PM) with Dennis Padilla; the daily top-rated noontime musical variety show Chibugan Na! (Weekdays at 12:30PM and Saturdays at 12:00NN) hosted by Randy Santiago, Marjorie Barretto, Hajji Alejandro and Chiqui Pineda together with today's hottest celebrities and stars.

The educational children show Penpen de Sarapen (Saturdays at 9:30AM) with Kobi Vidanes, Aaron Junatas, Angel Sy, Andrea Brillantes, Lance Angelo Lucido and Clarence Delgado. The pioneered educational programs Eskwela ng Bayan targeted among younger children and elementary students. There four shows of Eskwela ng Bayan series: Karen's World (Monday, Wednesday and Friday 11:00AM) tells about a talking female carabao (a carabao mascot for real) named Karen and a young man named Ingo (portrayed by Tonipet Gaba) about English and they met lots of friendly characters showed also English lessons by animated pictures and examples in the setting took place in a province; Why? (Tuesday and Thursday at 11:00AM) about a woman teaches people about Science and like in Math, she owns a laboratory; Solved (Tuesday and Thursday at 11:30AM) with three kids who lived in the province tells about solving Math problems; and Alikabok (Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 11:30AM) tells about a young boy who lived with his grandmother tells about some Filipino stories and lessons too what the young boy didn't know about his grandmother is that she has magic too. For the first time Eskwela ng Bayan series for grade students in the covered court with the other students helped me a lot achieve higher grades and best friend had the interest with programming for educational TV.

A weekend hit shows are: the local version of the top-rated game show like The Million Peso Money Drop (Saturdays at 6:00PM) hosted by Rafael Rosell and The Price is Right (Sundays at 7:00PM) hosted by Tom Rodriguez becoming the million-peso prized game show on primetime; and the musical variety show Superstar (Sundays 9:00PM) hosted by the Asia's pop superstar Angeline Quinto.

RPN has also kept pace with the current wave of producing soap operas for television, featuring the country's major stars and the top directors.

Latest to be the Filipino mini-series Jose Rizal starring Joel Torre, Gina Alajar, Panky Amador and Michael de Mesa directed by Ruel Agbayani, the primetime soap teleseryes Kung Maibabalik Ko Lang starring the one and only superstar Ms. Nora Aunor and Tirso Cruz III, and Muling Magmamahal starring the beauty queen Ruffa Gutierrez and the veteran actor Albert Martinez with a roster of Kasama talents Erin Ocampo, Jane Oineza, Andrea Brillantes and Ingrid dela Paz directed by Joel Lamangan.

Still another new program to be launched a drama anthology series Pinapangako Mo to be hosted by the veteran actress Coney Reyes for the lucky-sender letter in real true-to-life stories.

RPN continues to reinforce its in-house men and machine production capabilities to achieve greater self-reliance and be in better control of program content, quality, as well as efficiency in the use of logistics. Three lateral developments are the construction of remote studios in the heart of Panay Ave. Quezon City, for greater accessibility to guest performers and live audience; setting up of a talent center through Talent9 for the discovery and training for tomorrow's stars with the hottest stars of talent management and development for their own stable of new talents; licensing and merchandising; and the establishment of a post production house with the first-world technology.

SALES AND MARKETING

In line with its commitment to free, responsible, responsive broadcasting, the network will reinforce its efforts at social sales and marketing, with advocacy and public service campaigns revolving around major issues facing the nation and the citizenry, such as environmental preservation, peace and unification, and basic sectors concerns, including youth welfare and value formation.

RPN-9 is determined to sustain the gains of the past 54 years. It will rally the men and women who make up its core strength to build on the pains and passion, the grief and the glory days of its infancy stage, and continue to work as one to realize the network's vision to evolve as The SuperStation.

RPN NEWS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In 2014, the news organization RPN News and Public Affairs under the Media ng Bayan, the RPN news team distinguished itself with an excellent reportage and the scoops on the news anchors and broadcast journalist and the capture of the biggest stories of the year. RPN News and Public Affairs will continue to be a bulwark of journalistic freedom, integrity, responsiveness, credibility and responsibility. The AM radio stations for news and information, entertainment and music through DZKB Radyo Budyong 1385.

99.5 Play FM goes to RPN

It lays claims to having the station generation all the hits, 99.5 Play FM. The coolest music and the sexiest jocks. Play music? Yes, yes to the mix. Sexy Jocks? Hmmmm. We've got it, and we've got it, a 24-hours of pure non-stop entertainment as 99.5 Play FM, RPN's FM radio station with Real Radio Network Inc., is the number 1 station broadcasting in full digital stereo. They are using CDs, carts and players.

And they also have a CD recorder, which by the way cost more than a brand-new car. 99.5 Play FM also bills itself as the FM radio station of RPN and Real Radio Network with a "hot, adult contemporary and a contemporary hit radio (CHR) format."

All the hits 99.5 Play FM makes a blasting FM radio station of RPN to conquer the radio air waves a new and for good. The new-improved RPN FM sidekick is now with a new sound, a new twist and new voices, redefining the meaning of radio entertainment, said Joe Spinner appointed the station manager complements are priority in the mass-based category than a mass-based music.

"With Play FM's relaunch, we're not also bringing the Top 40 hits and local favorites to the Filipinos but also putting fun in the airwaves, which has been lacking now-a-days," says RPN VP for Radio Joseph Gorospe. Play offers what its executives call "all the hits" - entertainment through good music, cool artists, irresistible events, and on-air interactivities and promos.

There are some changes around this new station. It's that this station caters to the youngsters. With songs that are more pop, such as LMFAO, One Direction, Lady Gaga, Flo Rida, Ariana Grande, etc. Well, Foster The People, Rita Ora, The Script, Maroon 5, Owl City and Bruno Mars, those were heard.

Just the right combination of today's best hits and yesterday's all the hits, per 99.5 Play FM's top DJs like Nikko (Nikko Ramos) Noelle Bonus, Inka (Hannika Magnaye) a junior jock Jaz (Jazmin Reyes), Tino (Daniel Joseph Faustino), Justin (Justin Quirino), Gia (Gia Jamias) and Bea Fab (Bea Fabregas), Lil Joey (Joey Agustin), Guile (Miguel Sarne), Billy (Billy Añonuevo), Vica (Vica Hernandez) Anton (Anton Molina), Renzo (Samuel Magnaye), Joe Spinner (Rodrigo Miguel Villaroman; production head), David Ardiente, Mico Halili, Richard del Rosario and Jason Webb who roars with prove over his jocks of newscasters Carrissa and David and Candice from Trapik.com.

It caters to a young audience, whose demographics included kids in high-school and college; from the aspirational to the affluent backgrounds.

First radio station to give away huge cash prizes on a daily basis. The promo was called Play Cash Payoff, whereby a song is played and is identified as the money song of the day. Once the song is repeated anytime of the day, the 106th caller by the time the song is replayed will win a cash prize anywhere from P1,000 to P10,000.

Side-by-side the glorious re-entry into the FM sphere is Play's fresh voices owned by good looking disc jockeys. "Our on-air staff is going to be very accommodating and friendly, and will be keeping their ears open to the listening public," Gorospe enthused. It is the oldies show more than Wave 24, Saturday Clubbing, Back to the 80's and 90's Baddest of iDMZ, Friday Madness and Saturday Slam of Magic 89.9, Monster's Riot on RX 93.1, and Friday 80's, Decade and Turn of the Century on Mellow 947 can attest to the longevity and popularity.

Every Sunday, the DJs will accommodate that playing all the classic hits like Play 80's (Sundays from 4:00AM to 4:00AM the next day) your favorite 80's music for 24-hours every Sunday like a favorite throwback retro 80's music mixes hits of new wave, disco, dance and rock.

Every Friday, the DJs will accommodate all the listeners' request complemented by The Playlist (3:00PM to 6:00PM), a weekly chart of top 40 most voted-for-songs tabulated by Play tally central with Lil Joey.

New programs include The Playground (6:00AM to 9:00AM), a flagship morning show with Nikko and Bea Fab with a favorite hits were the first jocks to board on that morning shares to us listeners his friendship with celebrities, experiences in other countries followed by The Jungle Gym (9:00AM to 12:00NN) hosted by Justin with today's Top 40 favorites.

Early afternoon will be devoted to greetings and request of Music Request (12:00NN to 3:00PM) with Inka. The Play Pen (3:00PM to 6:00PM from Monday to Thursday) hosted by Lil Joey and Renzo, a radio show that happens everyday.

Tino and Jaz are being its junior jock go on board for their program Nitetime Playtime. (6:00PM to 9:00PM from Mondays to Thursdays). All time favorites of game-talk show give away to a relaxing late-night with The Bonus Stage (9:00PM to 12:00MN will hear the high octane Top 40 hits with Billy.

Special programs include Playback (Wednesday), playing songs from mid-90's to mid-2000's, and every Friday as Play It Live (6:00PM to 9:00PM), which features OPM bands and artists play live with Tino.

Also airs, The Play Date hosted by Bea Fab every weekends (6:00AM to 10:00AM), The Sweet Spot hosted by Anton (10:00AM to 2:00PM) and The Sling Shot with Vica (2:00PM to 6:00PM) and The Play Date with Renzo (6:00PM to 8:00PM on Saturdays and 6:00PM to 9:00PM on Sundays.

The station also has its first-ever weekly countdown separated where the top 10 most-requested foreign songs and top 10 OPM hit songs respectively on Saturdays as Play Hitlist hosted by Bea Fab (12:00NN to 1:00PM) and Justin (5:00PM to 6:00PM).

On Saturdays, like Club Play (10:00PM to 2:00AM) when the coldest party music mix in town starts playing with a house music and live mixes by David Ardiente and various club DJs

RPN-9, The All Sports Destination

March 31, 2013

RPN is for men

Wilson Tieng of Solar Entertainment is determined to make RPN-9 one of our top networks. "We've been a mega block timer of RPN for the past two years," he says. "With our eight cable channels that include Solar Sports, The Game Channel, My Movie TV, Diva Universal, Basketball TV and Jack TV, and free TV channels 2nd Avenue, ETC, Jack City and Solar News Channel. And also with our film arm, United International Pictures or UIP which is releasing the biggest US summer film, 'Transformers,' in July. Now is the time for us to focus on RPN and we're doing this by reprogramming on primetime slot. We'll offer alternative programs different from those seen in today's top channels.

After Solar Entertainment deal to air sports programs and foreign canned shows to RPN in a block-time agreement, RPN-9 has launched a new logo and new slogan Kasama Ako! to complement the more action-packed program lineup of the network. Remember of a first ever Filipino mini-series Malayto Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao; the era of Mexican telenovelas as Marimar, Maria la del Barrio, Simplemente Maria and Luz Clarita; the outstanding foreign series like MacGyver, Buffy, the Vampire Slayer, The X-Files, Rescue 911, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg and The Practice; and also recently the unforgettable Filipino shows such hits as John en Marsha, Eat Bulaga!, Ang Bagong Kampeon, Superstar, Champoy and Buddy en Sol. There were now a variety of Filipino and American programming galore from cartoons, Japanese anime, foreign canned shows in the US, Mexican telenovelas, Koreanovelas, Hollywood movies, sports, new locally-produced shows, etc.

Radio Philippines Network (RPN), the government-owned sequestered television and radio station brings the channel to our Kasamas who not only watch and support their favorite teams and athletes, but analyze and play the games themselves. RPN-9 goes hand-in-hand with the network's cable TV, pay-per-view, and digital platforms to create a unique and engaging sports hub for Pinoy sports fans is the new game that drives Filipino to play hard on and off the court through its sports and entertainment programs, it is the first Filipino free-TV male-oriented channel. Welcome to your new home, we are your new Kasama! Not just an alternative programming, but also your Kasama Network too!

The concept of Philippine TV station as The Kasama Network is manifested by RPN-9's programming grid that is interestingly spread out from 4 a.m. to 2 a.m. the following day with feeds from international satellite networks, foreign canned shows in the US and locally produced programs. "We would like to focus our thrust on providing the audience with quality entertainment and factual information that can influence positive attitude, values and action," explained to entice a younger audience.

To achieve that goal, RPN-9 has firmed up in partnership with Solar Entertainment Corporation. Simulcast programming watch on RPN is on radio listening on the AM band DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422 kHz in Mega Manila over Radyo Ronda nationwide stations. Catch the primetime newscast Arangkada Balita watch TV on RPN is simulcast also on radio here on RPN radio stations nationwide. Those were the shows that marked our memories of '90s RPN-9. Now, the spirit of these action-packed series are here again with the all-new shows, their move to buy time slots from a local TV channel is a first in the history of Philippine TV.

We've always considered you, our viewers, in everything we do. The network's programming content will feature mostly foreign canned shows, action-packed series and sports, along with local news and public affairs, high-quality local entertainment, children's educational programming, animes, telenovelas, asianovelas and Hollywood movies over corporate networks closer to your home deserve quality and sensible programming. And as we look forward to bring only the best shows, our combined unity and cooperation will help us achieve this breakthrough, we hope we'll be more than your friends.

The network's FM radio station 99.5 Play FM attracted an upscale audience by featuring the contemporary it radio (CHR) music, top 40 and more Original Pilipino Music (OPM) hits domination with some roster of DJs.

RPN will continue its coverage of the of the highest-ranked Metropolitan Basketball Association (MBA) and the boxing matches including champion Manny Pacquiao, Gabriel "Flash" Elorde and other fighting championships bouts. Stand by for special coverages of the greatest global athletes in the sporting worlds' biggest stages like the courts of the Korean Basketball Association (KBL), the octagons of the Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) and the wrestling fans of the World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE).

RPN keeps you the hit animes such as Dragon Ball Z, Crayon Shin Chan and K-ON!, the hit telenovelas such as Mar de Amor and Porque el Amor Manda, and the Koreanovelas Wonderful Life and Dear My Sister sacrificed a huge part of its powerhouse and homegrown programming, aficionados panicked.

Meanwhile, action thrill seekers get their fix reliving the Hollywood films in the movie blocks are Sine Nueve and Sunday's Big Event. RPN also debuts the explosive foreign canned series like Hell's Kitchen, MacGyver, Glee, The Big Bang Theory, Survivor: One World, Community, The Neighbors, Chicago Fire, Law & Order, NCIS, American Idol, The Walking Dead, WWE Bottom Line and WWE SmackDown!, joining returning series The X-Files, 24, NYPD Blue and Mission: Impossible. Watch out for the drama, action, comedy, and excitement of sports on RPN channel 9 that aims to promote sports, sports heroes and national pride, through sports content, events, partnerships and sports development initiatives.

RPN-9 offers their programming free to viewers, thus the reach of the deal has a much greater impact than that of a pay channel TV deal. The Kasama Network is well regarded for their line up of Philippine television, bringing a multitude of sports programming ranging from basketball, boxing, MMA and wrestling in addition to their mix of foreign canned shows in the US, hit animes, telenovelas, Koreanovelas, Hollywood blockbuster movies and action films, and all the station-produced local programs.

Channel 9 are action-packed based drama series such as NCIS, MacGyver, Chicago Fire, Agents of Shield, NYPD Blue, The Walking Dead, Mission: Impossible and 24, as well as the Hollywood movies and WWE programs. The network will also dabble into reality programming with American Idol and Survivor with a promise of action-packed local and international sporting events. Also training his eye on developing local programming, which other TV stations seem to have more masses.

Rivera asks, "That is the result of our promise when we sent media buyers our proposals that we will deliver to our audience the kind of programming and world-class technical quality lacking in the first days of broadcasting in the Philippines. The advertisers are now supporting us with spots." RPN's response to the growing TV audience with a demand for regional and global.

"On behalf of MBA and KBL basketball, I will like to warmly welcome RPN-9 as a broadcast partner for being such a strong supporter. RPN is a fantastic free-to-air broadcaster in the Philippines and MBA and KBL is excited at the opportunity to showcase our basketball fans to millions of homes throughout the country."

STRENGTHENING PROGRAMMING. The strength of RPN though lies in its sports programming which goes beyond the basketball stuff. It feels strongly the need to widen the audience's sports experience by featuring coverages of sporting events. The channel is the home of sports properties such as the country's premiere basketball league MBA and global basketball KBL as the official broadcaster, the stable of world class fighters in World-Class Boxing, UFC for MMA fighters and the wrestling fans of WWE.

President and CEO Robert T. Rivera added, "We are excited to have MBA and KBL on RPN-9. RPN-9 is the leader network proud to broadcast the best sporting in both the Philippines and the region and the MBA and KBL puts on world-class entertainment that our viewers will enjoy. Kasama viewers now also get the chance to watch the best hardcore Filipino basketball fans in action."

Rivera said The Kasama Network's main goal was to upgrade the quality of sports coverage. We want to position of basketball, boxing, MMA and wrestling as an entertainment sport, as a form of gambling noted that the network will also devote programs to other male interests like gaming of local news and public affairs, public service, children and educational programs, entertainment from dramas, comedies, talk shows, musical variety shows, game shows and reality shows, foreign canned series, telenovelas, asianovelas, animes, cartoons, and box-office Hollywood movies. I brought in seven new cameras for the coverage, state-of-the-art equipment, an OB van with microwave capabilities all to make the coverage.

"Viewers will learn all about sports, as well as relationships of basketball, boxing matches of fighting championships, mixed martial arts (MMA) fighters and wrestling fans," Rivera said, we hope to make the network an attractive proposition for particular advertisers.

"When the popularity of the of the station's (RPN Channel 9) programs began to transcend social class and income bracket, the catchline Kasama Ako! was adopted to embrace its broadening audience. Ratings skyrocketed with Revilla Cinema sa RPN, a weekend revival of action movie star Bong Revilla's cache of more than 200 hit movies. With this program the station started to shed its elitist image."

RPN also provides news and information through its primetime newscast Arangkada Balita and Newswatch, and a public affairs shows Saklolo Abogado, Tell the People, Kasangga Mo ang Langit, Biyaheng Langit and Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo. Network war beginning of Channels 9

As the phenomenal network who brought us the classic TV shows as John en Marsha, Superstar, Champoy, Buddy en Sol, Tell the People, Eat Bulaga!, Young Love, Sweet Love, the award-winning Filipino mini-series such as Malayo Pa ang Umaga, Bisperas ng Kasaysayan, Cebu and Davao, the telenovela hits like Marimar, Simplemente Maria, Luz Clarita, Maria la del Barrio, Preciosa, La Usurpadora and Maria Isabel, outstanding foreign canned series MacGyver, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, The X-Files, Ally McBeal, Felicity, NYPD Blue, Dharma and Greg, Roswell, Chicago Hope and The Practice.

RPN aims to deliver most quality programming that is basically pro-people and pro-service.

In celebration on its 54th anniversary of Philippine television history, Radio Philippines Network (RPN) is now join the growing number fo free TV stations in Metro Manila making the competition for viewership and advertising revenues even stiffer. The Kasama Network is the aggressive of Solar Entertainment, together with the country's number 3 station IBC-13 (The Kapinoy Network) to assert its dominance in the industry.

Wilson Tieng, Solar Entertainment president and CEO and is now RPN-9 chairman, said in a recent press conference briefing that the network paves the way for the segmentation of the network's audience. "What's happening now is the definition of viewership by way of income strata," he explained. "While the sequestered TV station turned into the broadcasting giant IBC-13 research tells us that the majority of Channel 13 viewers belong to the C-D-E classes, there is RPN that tapped potential viewership belonging top the upper and middle A-B-C markets which would normally prefer English language (read: American) programs and now expand of C-D-E market for those Filipino language (read: Filipino) programs for the masses."

With the relaunch of the new leader network and as IBC Channel 13 streamlines its programming to focus on local programs, IBC could corner between 85 to 100 percent of the TV audience in Metro Manila alone.

And that's possible with the station's 100-kilowatt transmitter which Tieng said assures the viewers of crisp video and audio reception. Existing other channels have a reception, the reason perhaps why media buyers are convinced about their effectiveness. "That scenario would definitely change as we go on the air last June 29, 1960," Tieng added. "When we made our proposals to them and presented the program packages that we plan to include out programming grid, we assured them that RPN-9's reception would definitely compete with the network war in VHF stations. It seems that their requirement is reception."

The newest network, said president and CEO Robert T. Rivera, has been designed to project something like a regular TV station, "Except perhaps the fact that it will carry all English and Filipino language programs, including the Filipino newscast at 6:30 p.m. and 11 p.m. English newscast."

The station will initially operate with the satellite broadcast. "We will definitely expand our programming, and even this early we are already mulling the several locally produced shows. In the meantime, we are concentrating on the imports that we have in our vaults."

The station's programming grid is divided into blocks. World-Class US Primetime which will put on the air foreign canned shows for the local home network: Law & Order (Tuesday 8:45 p.m.), 24: Live Another Day (Tuesdays at 8 p.m.), Survivor: One World (Wednesdays at 8:30 p.m.), Community (Mondays at 7:30 p.m.), Revolution (Mondays at 8 p.m.), Chicago Fire (Mondays at 8:45 p.m.), Smallville (Saturdays at 8:30 p.m.), The Big Bang Theory (Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.), American Idol (Wednesdays and Thursdays at 7:30 p.m.) and The Walking Dead (Thursdays at 8:30 p.m.).

With the Kasamang Telenovela will put on primetime Mexican telenovela hits: Mentir Para Vivir (5:30 p.m.), ultimate throwback of Thalia's telenovela Marimar (6 p.m.) and Porque el Amor Manda (10 p.m.) as well as the imports of Koreanovela: Dear My Sister (10:30 p.m.).

It became Anime sa Hapon on weekdays (3:30 to 5 p.m.) with the anime hits like Crayon Shin Chan (3:30 p.m.), K-ON! (4 p.m.) and Dragon Ball Z (4:30 p.m.).

Primetime starts at 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. from Monday to Friday, 2 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. on Saturdays and 2 p.m. to 12:45 a.m. on Sundays will be familiar to the audiences plus 11 locally produced shows, including two new comedy programs, three game shows, showbiz talk show, children's program, reality show, soap opera, drama anthology, musical variety show and the Tagalog movies featuring the legacy of Bong Revilla.

Among them: My Family's Lover (weeknights 9:30 p.m.), a soap opera is a teleserye combined the mix of drama, romance and family drama starring a drama actor Albert Martinez and beauty queen Ruffa Gutierrez with the promising child star Andrea Brillantes and a teen stars Erin Ocampo, Kylene Alcantara and Jane Oineza directed by Joel Lamangan; the two of newest Philippine local version of the top-rated US game shows such as The Million Peso Money Drop (Saturday 6:15 p.m.) hosted by Rafael Rosell and The Price is Right (Sun 7 p.m.) hosted by Tom Rodriguez becoming a million-peso prized phenomenal; Pinapangako Mo (Saturday 7:45 p.m.), a drama anthology featuring the real life stories is hosted by Coney Reyes; Boses Tinig Pinoy (Saturday at 9:15 p.m. and Sunday 8 p.m.), a reality show for the national singing contest hosted by German Moreno with a judges are Anthony Castelo, Aileen Papin, Pilita Corales and John Nite in a chance to win P1,000,000 million pesos for the singing champion of superstars; John en Nova (Saturday 7 p.m.), a comedy sitcom top-billed by comedians Roderick Paulate as John and Nova Villa as Nova; Showbiz Ka (Saturdays 5:30 to 6:15 p.m.), a showbiz talk show hosted by Pat-P Daza Planas and Nestor Torre; Penpen de Sarapen (Saturday 11:30 a.m.), a children educational show for kids is starring Kobi Vidanes, Aaron Junatas, Angel Sy, Lance Angelo Lucido and Clarence Delgado for exciting fun and games; Kemis: Kay Bayani Ako (Saturday 10 p.m.), a gag show starring Bayani Agbayani; Superstar (Sundays at 9 p.m.), a musical variety show is hosted by the pop superstar Angeline Quinto for sing and dance performers of musical numbers; Kwarta o Kahon Meganon (Sunday 12 noon), Mr. Fu's longest-running game show and Bong Revilla Cinema sa RPN (Saturday 10:45 p.m.) will feature the action-packed Pinoy blockbuster movies from legendary Bong Revilla.

The station also will offer the local news and public affairs programs: Masarap na Almusal (weekdays 5 a.m. simulcast over DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422), a unique teleradyo of morning show hosted by Alex Tinsay and Vivienne Gulla; a top-of-the-hour news capsule RPN News Break and the flagship Filipino news program Arangkada Balita (6:30 p.m.) anchored by the veteran anchorman Bing Formento and Angelique Lazo. There is also NewsWatch (11 p.m.), the longest-running English late-night newscast on Philippine television which is anchored by the veteran broadcasters Eric Eloriaga and Cristina Peczon; and Arangkada Balita Weekend (Saturday 12:30 a.m. and Sunday 12 midnight) by Kilo Pangilingan and Cielo Villaluna.

A late-night viewing in their late-primetime block (weeknights 11:30 p.m.), consisting of those public service programs (Saklolo Abogado on Monday, Kasangga Mo Ang Langit on Wednesday which is hosted by Rey Langit and JR Langit, Isumbong Mo Kay Tulfo! hosted by the hard-hitting Ramon Tulfo on Saturday), public affairs (Tell the People with Marigold Haber-Dunca on Tuesday) and travel show (Biyaheng Langit with Rey Langit on Thursday nights). Hollywood movies will definitely be another staple in this network by taking the noontime movie Sine Nueve (weekdays 1 p.m.) and Sunday's Big Event (Sundays 10 p.m.).

Sports programming: featuring the MBA (Friday 7:30 p.m., Saturday 2:30 p.m. and Sunday 2 p.m.) and KBL (Saturday 12:30 p.m. and Sunday 8:30 a.m.) becoming the professional basketball league on Philippine TV. The mixed-martial arts (MMA) fans of UFC: Ultimate Fighting Championship (Sunday 6 p.m.) and the best boxing matches Pacquiao Flashback at 11 a.m. Sundays.

Rivera's optimism about The Kasama Network is buttressed by his claim that it will also go on a nationwide simulcast. Already in place, he said, are 11 stations in the archipelago's key cities, each powered by either a 100-or 80-watt transmitter as well as 15 radio stations, including AM radio station for news and public service DZKB Radyo Ronda 1422 and the FM radio station for music entertainment 99.5 Play FM in Mega Manila.

Robert T. Rivera, president and CEO of RPN-9

Contrary to fears expressed by some members of the press, this new move by the broadcasting giant will cannibalize its own market, it may even fortify it. Expected to be affected mainly the network which have been redirecting their programming thrusts to the A-B-C brackets.

The bottom line, however, is still how a very discriminating high-end viewership largely influenced by the unabated entry of Hollywood and local entertainment magazines in the country would accept the program lineup of RPN-9. The upshot, of course, is how deft the new station's program acquisition guys could put up an attractive bid to the best shows there are on American TV now. And that really spell a big difference.

ANO BANG NANGYARI SA CHANNEL 9?

RPN-9 is now offered a variety of imported programming for those who wanted more than the usual slapstick and sampalan ABS-CBN and GMA 7 shoves to the viewers' faces, while IBC and TV5 still the no.3 spot. RPN-9 can import more and better imported programs. His vast sources can also help boost the new network and finally compete with the Two. Their own noontime show, the creation of their own stable of stars and alternative local programming were some of the possibilities that made TV insiders and fans talking.

After acquiring the rights to cover KBL and MBA games, the network became all of its imported programs. RPN-9's biggest show was a Mexican telenovela Marimar. Showing the local top-rated John en Marsha starring the main stars Dolphy and the variety show Superstar with Nora Aunor, What happened to RPN-9? Was acquiring the KBL and MBA so expensive that RPN-9 to resources to spend on better programs. Well, the sequestered TV station IBC-13, is now the number 3 network. And TV5 and RPN-9's primetime programming, thanks to Solar Entertainment, than anything RPN-9 has to offer. Here's a good suggestion.

A new network programming thrust for RPN-9

July 5, 2014

Raymond Lauchengco and Pilita Corales (Raymond and Pilita), Rafael Rosell (The Million Peso Money Drop), Angeline Quinto (Superstar), Tom Rodriguez (Price is Right), German Moreno (Boses Tinig Pinoy), Bayani Agbayani (Kanta Tayo), Pat-P Daza Planas (Showbiz Ka!), Roderick Paulate and Nova Villa (John en Nova), Albert Martinez and Ruffa Gutierrez (My Family's Lover), Coney Reyes (Pinapangako Mo), Brod Pete, Dennis Padilla and Eric Quizon (Dobol Trobol), Bong Revilla (Bong Revilla Cinema sa RPN).

Sequestered TV station RPN-9, jointly owned by the chairman Wilson Tieng and the Solar family, is revitalizing its network programming. According to its president and chief operating officer (CEO) Robert T. Rivera, RPN-9 will introduce Kanta Tayo, the sing-along karaoke game show hosted by Bayani Agbayani, will premiere on July 5, Saturday at 7 p.m. Dobol Trobol, the gag show with the combined talents of comedians like Brod Pete, Dennis Padilla and Eric Quizon on Saturday at 10 p.m.

Other new interesting in Philippine television shows are in their final planning stages. Eduardo Cojuangco, Jr., head of RPN Entertainment TV said that "it is basically a reactivation of our programming."

"Very much committed to the network. We are a strong third now and there had been more revenues coming in," he said. Rivera said the shareholders would like to take advantage of the network's momentum, having gained following for its homegrown programs, international blockbuster shows, telenovelas, Asian dramas, animes and home to the KBL and MBA for basketball aficionados, and UFC for MMA fighting fans.

"Most of the shows we had where the foreign canned shows on primetime from abroad in the United States through World-Class US Primetime, adding, "we are now making up for that by introducing a number of local programs. Ilalabas na namin what we have up our sleeves." RPN-9 has also acquired computer mainframe-linked teleprompter called MASYS (Broadcasting Automated System) costing an investment of $75,000, revealed Marigold Haber-Dunca, Head of RPN News and Public Affairs.

RPN-9 BRINGS BACK TELENODELA FEVER VIA “CORAZON SALVAJE”

August 10, 2014

From La Traidora, MariMar, Simplemente Maria, Acapulco, Maria la de Barrio, Luz Clarita, La Usurpadora, Preciosa, Maria Isabel, Quinceañera, Siempre te Amare, Serafin, Maria del Cielo, Sin Ti to Monte Cristo, among others, RPN-9 proves to be the home of hit telenovelas in the country is now marked on its 18th year anniversary as Kasamang Telenovela.

Beginning this Modnay (Aug 11), the Kasama network RPN-9 known as 9TV introduced yet a new breed of primetime soap operas that will surely captivate Filipino viewers with the launch of Corazón Salvaje

Corazón Salvaje not only marks the return of telenovelas in the country, it also marks RPN's partnership with globally recognized Mexican broadcast TV group Televisa, making the internationally acclaimed and award-winning program the Mexican drama series to air on Philippine television.

Corazón Salvaje marks the return of Aracely Arámbula; she portrays the dual role of twins Regina and Aimée Montes de Oca accompanied by Eduardo Yanez. It is antagonized by Cristian de la Fuente, Helena Rojo and Enrique Rocha with stellar performances by Laura Flores, Osvaldo Ríos, María Rojo, René Casados and Elizabeth Gutierrez. The young protagonists, Gabriel and Jimena, are portrayed by Sebastian Zurita and Angelique Boyer. Corazón Salvaje, was written by Liliana Abud.

This telenovela is the fourth television adaptation of the classic 1957 novel of the same name which was written by Caridad Bravo Adams.

In the year 1851, María del Rosario (Laura Flores) falls in love with Juan de Dios San Román (Osvaldo Ríos), a humble fisherman, unaware that another man, Rodrigo Montes de Oca (Enrique Rocha), is in love with her. María del Rosario confesses her love for Juan de Dios to her sister, Leonarda (Helena Rojo), and tells her of their plans to wed, unbeknownst that Leonarda harbors a deep hatred for her sister because she is secretly in love with Rodrigo. Leonarda tells Rodrigo about her sister's wedding plans and he uses his influence with the authorities to stop the wedding and incarcerate Juan de Dios for life. While visiting him in prison, María del Rosario confesses to Juan de Dios that she is expecting their child. Rodrigo and Leonarda decide to confine María del Rosario to an estate by the sea. Juan de Dios escapes from jail and searches for María del Rosario but Rodrigo discovers their plans to escape and tries to shoot him.

Juan de Dios flees the estate as María del Rosario has begged; he swears he will return for her and their child. María del Rosario gives birth to her son whom Leonarda sends away to be raised in an orphanage while lying to her sister that the baby died. Upon hearing the news, María del Rosario spirals into insanity. Leonarda decides to deceive Rodrigo and pass her sister off as dead while locking María del Rosario away in the estate's basement dungeon. All the while, María del Rosario's son has been rescued from the jungle by Remigio. He adopts the boy as his brother and takes the child to be raised by Aurora who baptizes him as Juan de Dios, as requested by a note left with the baby.

Leonarda expects to win Rodrigo after her sister's supposed death. When Rodrigo responds by leaving Mexico, she decides to marry Noel Vidal (René Casados), Rodrigo's friend, who she does not love. After a few years, they have a son, Renato (Cristián de la Fuente). Rodrigo announces his return and Leonarda believes that he is returning for her, but to her great surprise, he arrives married to Constanza (Laisha Wilkins), who is expecting child. Out of jealousy and anger, Leonardo poisons Constanza. She dies shortly after giving birth to twins Regina and Aimée (both portrayed by Aracely Arámbula).

Also on Monday (Aug 11), 9TV premieres newest Taiwanese idol romantic-comedy Love Around topbilled by Taiwanese sweetheart Annie Chen and Kpop star IU and Asian prince George Hu as the main lead.

It tells the story, while still reeling from the shock of his breakup, Zhou Zhen witnessed a girl, Liang Xiao Shu, getting dumped by her cheating boyfriend and didn't know how to fight back. Zhou stepped in and helped Liang exact revenge. They became friends over the incident. But their budding relationship soon suffered a great blow when Liang inadvertently made enemy with Zhou's father on a radio station. Could their relationship survive parental disapproval or die in its infancy?

Love Around features Boses Tinig Pinoy finalists Jasmine Santos's single Love Around as the theme song.

Don't miss the premiere of Corazón Salvaje at 10:00PM back-to-back with Love Around at 10:30PM right after My Family's Lover this Monday (August 11) on 9TV.

New investor vows to turn RPN 9 around

7:30 am | Saturday, August 23rd, 2014

Radio Philippines Network, Inc. Studio. FACEBOOK PHOTO

THE GROUP of Filipino-Chinese businessman and former ambassador Antonio Cabangon-Chua acquired a key stake in broadcasting firm Radio Philippines Network Inc. (RPN 9) with plans to restore the TV firm's lost luster and bring it back to profitability once again.

"The challenge now is to stop the bleeding of RPN 9 so we have to be more creative," Benjamin Ramos, chief financial officer of Cabangon-Chua's ALC Group, said in an interview.

Cabangon-Chua, whose media assets include newspaper BusinessMirror and radio station Aliw Broadcasting Corp., was taking three out of nine board seats in RPN-9 after buying out the shares of Wilson Tieng's Solar Entertainment Group, Ramos said.

"TV is a challenging business but we are already in media, through print and radio, so why not give it a try," Ramos said, citing a strong partnership with Solar TV. Asked whether a turnaround for RPN-9 was possible in five years, Ramos said they were targeting "to do it earlier than that."

RPN 9 was once the country's premier television broadcaster before a popular revolt in 1986 replaced strongman Ferdinand Marcos with Corazon "Cory" Aquino, mother of President Benigno Aquino III.

Ramos declined to discuss the value of the transaction, but said the deal with Solar Entertainment should be closed within the year pending certain deliverables, which he did not disclose.

A source with knowledge of the matter said that RPN-9, which is losing hundreds of millions pesos a year due to labor separation issues, had an estimated enterprise value of $30 million, valuing Cabangon-Chua's stake at about $10 million. RPN 9 also has liabilities estimated at P2 billion, the source said.

Ramos said the deal would initially be a "personal" investment of Cabangon-Chua but eventually would find a place within ALC, a privately held group for more than 20 companies involved in banking, real estate, pre-need, automotive and media.

Cabangon-Chua's entry into RPN 9 comes amid the stiff competition in the TV industry, where the country's two biggest broadcasters, ABS-CBN Corp. and GMA Network, manage to stay profitable. Currently, IBC-13 now also becoming the third biggest broadcaster, owned by the group of businessman Eric Canoy and Boots Anson-Roa, it has been struggling with earnings and earnings despite billions of investments into the venture.

Still, the lure of television remained strong given that the industry captured about 78 percent of the P340 billion that companies spent for advertising in the Philippines last year, data from Kantar Media showed. Advertising could ramp up anew starting 2015, mainly due to political-related spending ahead of the 2016 elections. Ramos, also president of BusinessMirror, was named president of RPN-9 while Cabangon-Chua would be chair, he said. There is no decision yet on who would fill the third seat.

Another key shareholder is the family of RPN-9 founder Roberto Benedicto— a known Marcos associate— with three board seats. The Benedictos were open to selling their estimated 32-percent stake in RPN 9, but at a steep price, an industry source said.

Meanwhile, the government controlled two seats while "minority" stockholders held the remaining board slot, Ramos said. The RPN-9 transaction was possible because the Benedicto family managed to enter into a compromise agreement with the new government after the fall of Marcos, allowing it to keep some of its stake in the TV broadcaster from sequestration by the government. That compromise was later questioned by the Presidential Commission on Good Government but the Benedictos finally obtained favorable rulings from the Sandiganbayan and the Supreme Court about four years ago.

Tieng eventually came in as a content provider and converted advances into equity, diluting all other shareholders. Tieng thus obtained 34 percent while the Benedictos trimmed their interest to 32 percent while government-held shares were pared to 20 percent.

We have the of quality of the shows from the network, and the quality of the people watching it. Those two qualitties are mmatched. GMA and ABS CBN has the trash quality that the people wants.

Businessman Ramon Ang, also president of conglomerate San Miguel Corp., was previously approached to invest in RPN 9, a source with knowledge of the matter said. But Ang eventually decided to acquire a 30-percent share in GMA Network, one of the country's biggest television networks. That deal could close by early next month, GMA chair Felipe Gozon had said.

Third-ranked TV5, owned by the group of businessman Manuel V. Pangilinan, has been struggling with ratings and earnings despite billions of investments poured into the venture. Still, Pangilinan said that TV5 could be back in the black in the next few years.

Marimar naman ang nagpataas ng ratings ng RPN 9 noon..What it means? Mahilig sa soap opera ang mga Pinoy, not things that matters.

Ang sabi ng article, RPN 9 was once the premiere TV broadcaster before 1986. Marimar was shown during the 90s. I think the article was referring to the Flordeluna years.

I agree RPN 9 has a good shows even after 1986, like Buddy en Sol, Mag-Asawa'y di Biro, Tipitipitim Tipitom and other foreign shows like The Simpsons, Legend of Kung Fu, Friday the 13th TV series. I even watched Captain Planet and the Planeteers. Then the 90s came and they started broadcasting telenovelas with the likes of La Traidora, Marimar (no doubt a hugely popular show), Maria la del Barrio and so on.

From RPN transform into 9TV starts today on August 23!

9TV ID screen grab from Starmometer

This may be the government-sequestered radio and television media station Amb. Antonio Cabangon-Chua's biggest gamble yet. After weeks of on-air suspense, the "new force" in Philippine TV said hello to local viewers from RPN-9 transform into 9TV starts today on Saturday, August 23 with a primetime special and a promise to "shine" local TV viewing.

The special featured stars from both ABS-CBN and GMA-7 who were employed by RPN to topbill its new programs. Leading them are carryovers from Channel 9, hosts are Richard Gutierrez, Angeline Quinto and German Moreno. Along as well came the launch of 9TV's more powerful transmitter.

The new channel, which will now again attempt to break the hold of the two big networks on local viewers, will be on air all day and all week. Most of the shows are productions of RPN's original local productions and the various companies like Solar Entertainment and others.

Game Format Edit

This version of the show is based heavily on the American version which in turn is based on The Million Pound Drop Live. At the beginning, a pair of contestants are presented with a million pesos (40 bundles of 25,000 pesos in 20 peso bills), they must be able to keep their money until the end of the game by correctly answering 8 multiple choice questions by placing their bundles of money on the trapdoor (among 4) they think is correct in 60 seconds. If they are wrong, the money placed on the trapdoor will fall down the "money drop". They may distribute their money on multiple trapdoors if they are not sure of the answer, however, one trapdoor must always be left empty. At certain questions, a trapdoor is put out of play. Whatever money they have left is theirs to keep.

Quick Change Edit

The contestants may use one "Quick Change" during the game, on any question except the eighth. This feature allows them an extra 30 seconds to distribute their cash among the trapdoors. If no trapdoors are left open and the contestants still have the Quick Change, it will automatically be used.
